Tenn. 0, U. N. C. 16.

On Monday, the 8th, the team played the University of Tennessee, in Knoxville. It was raining heavily during the entire game; but the Sunday's rest had allowed the men to get in pretty good shape and they played a much better game than they did against Vanderbilt. Play started at 3 o'clock.

Tennessee won toss and Belden kicked to their 5 yard line, from which ball was brought 15 yards before being downed. Edmunds makes 5 on mass on tackle. Baird, J. retires on account of a bad ankle. Two trials over same place give 2½ more. Edmunds makes 3½ yards over left tackle and Nicklin fails to gain around left end. Edmunds hits left tackle for 5 and a double pass nets 15 yards through center. Two trials through center gain the required 5. The ball then goes over on downs.

Belden punts to 25 yard line and man is downed in his tracks. Nicklin makes 5 around left end. Two trials at center and a double pass all fail and the ball is Carolina's on downs. Howell makes 9 on quick opening, Collins 2 on tackle-mass, and then 3 through center. Belden 2 through center. Howell shoots through quick opening for 3. Howell skirts end for 9. Belden 2 over center. Howell 7 around end. Collins fails to gain, touch-down to make. Howell goes the required distance and Belden fails to kick goal. North Carolina 4; Tennessee 0.

Tennessee kicks to North Carolina goal and Belden kicks 45 yards. On first down Cromartie breaks through and tackles behind line. Nicklin skirts left end for 6 yards. Three trials fail to advance ball and Carolina takes it. Collins advances 4 yards over right tackle. Bennett fails to gain. Howell makes 7 and then 9 yards around end. Time called. Ball on Tennessee's, 20 yard line.

SECOND HALF.

Tennessee kicks to 15 yard line and Collins carries it back 25 yards. Shull is hurt and Turner takes his place. Belden makes 2 over center and Collins 3 over tackle and then 3 again. Howell makes 7 yards over tackle; Collins 4; Bennett 3; Belden 2; Howell and Turner add 4 and Howell gets around the end for 16: Collins goes through the center for 10, Howell and Collins 3 each over center; Howell 3 on quick opening and Collins touch down over tackle. Belden kicks goal. North Carolina 10; Tennessee 0. Seven minutes.

Tennessee kicks to 10 yard line and Belden brings back 20 yards. Collins goes 20 through center, Howell 4½ yards and Belden 3 through line and three tackle plays net 8 yards. Howell goes around end for 10 and Collins for 10 more. Howell makes 2, Belden 1. Ball fumbled, Bennett gets it. Howell makes a beautiful 20 yard run

CLASS CHAMPIONSHIP NEARING THE CLOSE.

Soph. 4, Seniors 0.

The Class Championship game on Tuesday between the Seniors and Sophs was the poorest exhibition of foot-ball seen on the gridiron this season. Busbee, Thompson and Little for the Seniors and Tate, Woodard and Hume for the Sophs deserve the greatest credit for their playing.

Sophs 10; Juniors 4.

At 2:30 Saturday the Juniors and Sophomores met on the gridiron to do battle for the class championship. Both teams were suffering from injuries though the Juniors were probably more handicapped by this cause than the Sophs. Capt. Woodward '00 won the toss and chose to defend the western goal. Capt. Winston, '99 kicked off and on account of a fumble recovered the ball with a gain of 15 yards. Then by steady hammering at the tackles the Juniors slowly but surely pushed the ball down the field and shoved it over for a touchdown. The whirling mass play which the Juniors have developed so near to perfection was irresistible and at this point of the game it looked as if they were going to have a walk-over. After the next kick off, however, the Sophs were not long in recovering the ball and by quick opening plays and an end run of 20 yards, the ball was carried close to the Junior's goal line. Here the excitement was intense. It was third down, eleven inches and a touch down to gain and ten seconds to play. Woodward called the signal for mass on right tackle but the ball was fumbled and bounded across the goal line, McFadgen falling on it. The Sophs had lost their chance to score during the first half, although coming so near it.

In the second half the Juniors weakened and the Sophs were not long in making a touch down, but failed kick goal. Donally and Davis, the Junior half-backs were laid out in the next few rushes, and Tate and Hume the '00 half backs skirted the ends for long gains scoring another touch down for the Sophs. Woodward kicked goal and no more scoring was done.
