A Wonderful Invention.

Zoology teaches that the hairs of the head are hollow, and contain an oil that gives them life. In clipping the hair with scissors, this hollow is left open, and the hair loses its life-giving properties.

I have a Machine named the Singeing Machine, which removes the hair and at the same time closes up the hollow, causing the hair to retain its life-giving properties, and therefore stopping the hair from falling out or dying, and giving it a soft growth.

Call and examine this machine and have your hair singed.

Special attention given to dressing Ladies' hair. Cutting done with exquisite and artistic skill by the old University Barber of twenty years' experience.

The singing machine is highly recommended by scientists throughout the country.

Very Respectfully,
T. D. DUNSTAN,
Professor of Tonsorial Art.

A True Story of Unfulfilled Ambition.

Though woods abound with partridges
He lays aside his cartridges
And proudly speaks his heart which is
"I hunt for bigger game".

Though others conquer turkey kings
Which fiercely fight with jerky wings,
Unruffled from his work he sings
"I hunt for bigger game".

At length he seeks an open spot
"I'll make a name, no matter what!"
He cries, and though he'd better not,
He fells two damsels at a shot—
But fails to bag his game.

Western colleges have adopted the four-year limit in the government of athletics, and made rigid rules against summer nines in base-ball.

Harvard has built an indoor tennis court. The court can be used at night, as the building is lighted by electricity.
