The new Catalogue will soon be out.

On account of the unusually small number of games played last week Capt. Winston asked that the stationery prize offered by Percy Whitaker for the best batting during the week, be continued over. This plan will be accorded with. Capt. Winston has a new way of computing averages. See him and find out particulars.

Letter from Eli Perkins.

On the train in Ohio,
Mar. 1.

Prof. Canada;—

Please tell the young men that I will talk to them Sat. evening, March 12th, on the Philosophy of Wit and Humor. My lecture has evolved so that you will not recognize it. It is up to date and has been tried on fifty big colleges this winter.

I will arrive on the 5:50 P. M. train without fail. I never miss. If all trains fail I will walk over from Greensboro and let my mirth and verocity follow on the freight. Senator Tillman says a good many free-silver men are walking now in North Carolina and the roads are fine.

I fell in love with the Chapel

Hill students four years ago—
Eli Perkins.

Seldom do we have an opportunity to turn aside from our regular work and give an hour to entertainment. It is a rare opportunity that we have now to hear the greatest American humorist, Eli Perkins. Four years ago he delighted, amused and instructed a large and enthusiastic audience, and we hope that now he will be received in the same way. Every student should hear him.
