throws Coggins out at second.

Score: N. C. 1; W. F. 0.

Lawson hits to short and safe at first. Belden and Lawson score on Woodard's hit to right. Hume hits safe to right, scoring Woodard. Graves hit by pitched ball and everybody moves up on Tate's sacrifice. Rogers hits out to Edwards.

Wake Forest now has her last chance but fails do any damage. Sams, H. gets pretty hit to left and goes to second on McKee's error. Williams fans and Sams, O. goes out from Hume to Winston. Camp ends the sad tale by three awful plunges at the unoffending air.

Score: N. C. 5; W. F. 0.

The game was the prettiest exhibition of team work by the Varsity ever witnessed on this ground. To

A Wonderful Invention.

Zoology teaches that the hairs of the head are hollow, and contain an oil that gives them life. In clipping the hair with scissors, this hollow is left open, and the hair loses its life-giving properties.

I have a Machine named the Singeing Machine, which removes the hair and at the same time closes up the hollow, causing the hair to retain its life-giving properties, and therefore stopping the hair from falling out or dying, and giving it a soft growth.

Call and examine this machine and have your hair singed.

Special attention given to dressing Ladies' hair. Cutting done with exquisite and artistic skill by the old University Barber of twenty years' experience.

The singeing machine is highly recommended by scientists throughout the country.

Very Respectfully,
T. D. DUNSTAN,
Professor of Tonsorial Art.

name the stars on Carolina would be to give place for her whole nine men. It was Tate's first game but he and Graves worked like clock-work and had their opponents at their mercy throughout the entire contest. The work of our team was even better than in the Trinity game, while the work of the visitors was very disappointing to the spectators. They showed no team work and never seemed to get together. Their boasts of lining out "little" Tate failed to be realized and the great Wake Forest slugers had to be satisfied with five meager hits.
