October Number of the Magazine.

doings of the students here and the alumni in the world.

There seems to be a dislike on the part of the writers to give their names to the public. Only one article is signed. The modesty of these literary aspirants is commendable but misplaced. We like to give credit to whom credit is due. All may feel sure that credit is due anything the Editor-in-chief sees fit to publish in the Magazine.

We would like to see an increase in the fiction for the succeeding issues. Stories by students always have a peculiar interest. Don't be modest. We do not expect you to be a Richard Harding Davis or a Rudyard Kipling. It's something to try. Remember even these great story tellers had a beginning. We hope to see more and better work in this line.

The TAR HEEL desires to congratulate Editor Wilson on his successful beginning. We are aware of the amount of work that falls to his lot, and can but wonder how he has done it so well.

Sophomores 11---Freshmen 0.

The first game of the interclass series was played Saturday afternoon between the Sophomores and Freshmen. Both teams played well and excitement was high throughout the game. Supporters of the teams were about equal and coaching from the side lines was indulged in to a large extent.

Game started at 2:30 o'clock. Capt. Ottinger of the Sophs wins toss and chooses the defence of west goal.

The Sophs quickly work the ball down to the Freshmen's goal but the Freshmen make a noble stand and get the ball on downs. The Sophs, however, work the ball again into the Freshmen's territory and make a touchdown near the end of the first half. Dortch kicks an easy goal.

In the second half the Sophs score again but fail at goal, making the score eleven to the Freshmen, nothing.

The long runs of Woltz, good captaining and tackling of Captain Ottinger and the end playing of Gudger for the Sophs are noteworthy, while for Freshmen the fierce tackling of Captain Carr, the good all round work of Worth at full-back and the playing of Sutton at end for the Freshmen ought to be mentioned.

The TAR HEEL is glad to see that the inter-class games have begun again. Games ought to be arranged between the teams that have been organized immediately, while the classes that have not organized teams should do so at once. The class teams help largely in developing a man for the 'Varsity and such an important factor in our College life should not be neglected.

The Dramatic Club

After much delay the Dramatic Club has at length been reorganized. A great loss has been sustained by the loss of Prof. May who finds the time spent in histrionic frivolities too great a tax on his other work.

It had been hoped that the club would be able to make a new department this season and have the "Co-Eds" represented. But those in authority objected and the club was compelled to bow in humble submission to the higher power.

Two plays will be presented. Both will be given on the same night as only about fifty minutes is required for each. They are "The Little Rebel", by J. S. Cayne and "Evening Dress", by W. D. Howard.

The cast of characters for the two plays are as follows:—

The Little Rebel. (1 act)
Stephen Poppincourt, Mr. Lockett.
Arthur Ormeston, " Woodard.
Mrs. Wingrove, " Groover,
Laura, " Carr, J.R.
Kitty Vinks (maid), " Harris, J.

Evening Dress. (2 act)
Mr. Robeats, Mr. Hoover.
Mr. Willis Campbell, " Woodard.
Mrs. Roberts, " Carr, J.R.
Mrs. Campbell, " Harris, J.
Bella (maid), " Gruver.

The organization of the club for 1898-99 is as follows:—

Director, R. H. Graves; Manager, G. D. Vick; Stage Manager, Marsden
During the Christmas Holidays the club will make a tour of Eastern North Carolina.

A Wonderful Invention.

Zoology teaches that the hairs of the head are hollow, and contain an oil that gives them life. In clipping the hair with scissors, this hollow is left open, and the hair loses its life-giving properties. I have a Machine named the Singeing Machine, which removes the hair and at the same time closes up the hollow, causing the hair to retain its life-giving properties, and therefore stopping the hair from falling out or dying, and giving it a soft growth. Call and examine this machine and have your hair singed. Special attention given to dressing Ladies' hair. Cutting done with exquisite and artistic skill by the old University Barber of twenty years' experience. The singeing machine is highly recommended by scientists throughout the country. Very Respectfully,
T. D. DUNSTAN
Professor of Tonsorial Art.
