Quite a good deal of interest has been excited in the last few days at the introduction of basket-ball into our athletic sports.

Under the encouragement of Mr. Calder teams have been formed and games have been progressing every day. Crowds have gathered to the gymnasium to witness the sport. It promises to be an interesting game. In order to get the college behind it and interested in it, we would suggest that the classes form teams elect captains and managers and arrange a series of games. Mr. Calder will be glad to take charge of the teams and teach them to play. Now lets do this and not let it all end in a lot of useless talking. Basket-ball is a coming game and we can't afford to let it meet with failure here. Get together and push it and keep on pushing it till we develop a good team. Let the different class presidents call their classes together and start the ball rolling. Let the senior class start it and the others will fall in line.

Our first game of any importance has been played and won. The team's work in the game in Winston confirmed the confidence the college has in it. Coach Reynolds said that he had never seen them play a better game than they did in the second half when they piled up three touch-downs. 'Tis a pity that there should have been a "six" on the other side—but we don't want the earth.

The team redeemed their last year's defeat, and it was practically composed of the same men too, as seven of the men were on last year's team.

Well done Carolina!
Now for Georgia!

U. N. C. 11, Davidson College 0.

The game with Va. Polytechnic Institute has been played. Cheerful but tired out by the fierce contest the Varsity boarded the 5:30 train for Charlotte and soon were away from the hospitable Twin-city of N. C.

When they arrived at Charlotte there were various rumors afloat in regard to the strength of the opposing team from Davidson College.

There were many guesses as to what the score would be but as this was the first time that Davidson had ever sent a team away from home and no one could estimate their strength.

The score of 11 to 0 reflects credit upon them and their coach, Mr. Geo. Stephens, U. N. C., '96.

Davidson won the toss and chose the kick-off. A slight breeze was blowing from the south so the 'Varsity chose to defend the south goal.

The ball was placed in the center of the field and promptly at 3:30 Referee Alexander blew his whistle and Capt. Smith sent the pig skin thirty yards into Carolina's territory. Rogers catches the ball and returns 15 yards before being downed by Davidson's ends.

The ball is passed to Howell who makes an end run which advances the ball 52 yards for Carolina. McRae fails to gain. Bennett advances the ball 2 yards. On third down Graves punts 30 yards to Smith who is nicely tackled in his tracks by Gregory and Koehler. The ball is passed to Hewett who advances 1 yard. He again takes the ball but fails to gain over his right tackle. Smith hits the center but is downed on the spot. Carolina's ball.

Graves advances ball 4 yards. McRae quick opening on left 10 yard. Shull 1 yard. Howell 1 yard. Bennett fumbles and Davidson falls on ball on her 12 yard line.

Yonan attempts to go around the right of his line but loses 1/2 yard. Hewitt fails to gain so the ball is passed to Smith who punts 15 yards. The ball goes in touch and is brought in and is given to Carolina on 25 yard line. Howell advances 2 yards which he followed by an end run of 8 yards. On next play Carolina gains 5 yards. First down. Howell fumbles but recovers and advances 11 yards. Shull goes 3 1/2 and then Graves goes over the remaining distance of 3 yards for a touchdown. Gregory kicks easy goal.

Time of first touchdown 10 minutes.

Again the ball is carried to the middle of the field and Smith kicks off 40 yards. Graves advances the ball 10 yards. McRae is given ball but fails to gain. For an off-side play the 'Varsity is given 10 yards. Howell advances 8 yards in a mass-on-tackle play and McRae doubles this distance by an end run but fumbles. Koehler who follows the plays closely quickly falls on the ball and secures it again for the 'Varsity. Here Copeland is substituted for McRae.

The next play gives the 'Varsity 15 yards. Then Bennett advances 2 yards which is followed by an end run of twenty-five yards. The ball is in the 'Varsity's possession on Davidson's 20 yard line. Then follows the poorest exhibition of football playing seen on the gridiron. After two gains by Howell and Graves which netted 5 yards for the 'Varsity, Copeland fumbles ball on the 20 yard line. Davidson secures the ball and she in turn gives the ball back on a fumble. Howell advances 11 yards but loses ball and Smith secures it for Davidson. After a gain of 1 yard by McFadyen Davidson fumbles and the ball goes over to the 'Varsity on the 10 yard line. Here Bennett fumbles and as the players are disputing over the possession of the ball time is called.

First half, twenty minutes. Score Varsity, 6; Davidson, 0.

SECOND HALF.

Graves kicks off for 45 yards. Smith catches ball and advances 25 yards before being tackled by Carolina's linemen.

Now for the first time Davidson succeeds in advancing the ball the required five yards in three downs. Hewitt in two mass-on-tackle plays gains the first 5 yards. Then Yonan, who is counted one of Davidson's star players, gains 5 more. Smith gains 7 through line but on the next rush loses 6. Hewitt fails to gain and Capt. Smith punts 40 yards to Graves. Copeland gains 4 1/2 yards on quick opening. Howell goes around Davidson's left end for 30 yards. Graves follows this up by 6 and then by 2 1/2. Copeland 21 yards on quick opening.

Ball is now 21 yards from goal in Carolina's possession. Graves makes 3 1/2 over Bennett. Off side play gives Carolina 10 yards.

Graves takes ball on next three rushes and nets 7 1/2 yards. On the last rush he carries the ball over for a touch down ten yards from the side line. Rogers kicks out to Graves, who drops the ball, hence no goal. Klutz is substituted for Koehler. Time 9 minutes.

Smith kicks off 40 yards for Davidson. Klutz returns 15 yards. Howell fumbles but Cunningham recovers the ball for Carolina. Copeland gains 8 yards on end run, this is followed by a 15 yard gain for Carolina. Howell 4, Copeland 5 and Graves 3 1/2 on mass plays, Copeland 4.

Buxton substituted for Copeland. Buxton gains 2, then 2 1/2, Graves punts 30 yards and Capt. Smith returns kick 40 yards to Rodgers.

Graves gains 2 over centre, Howell 6 on end play, Carolina loses 6 yards and then gains 6, Graves punts 40 yards to McConnell, Hewitt gains 1 1/2 and then 1. Smith takes the ball and by a gain of 2 1/2 yards. Davidson for the second time gains 5 yards in 3 downs. Hewitt follows this by 4 yards.

Time is called with ball near centre of the field.

Time of second half 15 minutes. Carolina 11, Davidson College 0.
