The team has returned from their southern trip. One more game is to be played. In this game more interest is centered than in all the others. It is the most important. We've got to win. We can't lose. Now for hard steady training. Now for the last time let us urge the college from now till Thanksgiving Day to cheer and encourage the team on all occasions. Virginia has one of the strongest teams in her history, all the more honor then to defeat them.

To the team, once more, work hard and earnestly.

To the student body, once more, go out to practices, encourage the team and push them on to victory.

Basket Ball is progressing. It seems to have come for good. The intense interest shown in the sport just at this time in the midst of the most exciting period of the foot-ball season, speaks well for the new game --Push it!

We publish an interesting letter in another column from a young lady at St. Mary's School. We are glad to know that such interest is taken in Basket Ball at St. Mary's and trust that the students here will not let our fellow students in Raleigh outclass them in this interesting sport.

Get to work boys!

The election in New York was watched with keen interest here in the University as one of the candidates for the governorship was an alumnus of our alma mater. Though beaten the result of the election shows that our distinguished alumnus is extremely popular and made a strong fight.

It is gratifying to see the interest taken by the alumni throughout the state in our foot ball team. We are glad to see this. We believe that an active working interest on the part of the Alumni, in conjunction with the athletic organizations here in college will stimulate new zeal and strength into our future athletics.

At the University of Virginia the active interest of the Alumni has taken the form of Alumni coaching. Virginia has abolished the hired-coach system and trusts now entirely to the alumni coaches. This is a great advance in her athletic life. We trust that she will succeed. Such systems in all the Southern colleges would add much to the interest in athletics throughout the South.

Our football management is experiencing a great deal of trouble in arranging a schedule. A number of colleges, to whom letters have been sent, have entirely ignored them, and others have taken their own good time to answer. The University of Georgia has written our management that she cannot play us this year owing to a full schedule. We offered her all expenses. Tusculooa has likewise notified us that a game will be impossible, though she assigned no reason. We still have hope of a game with Auburn, though our letters to her remain unanswered. Our management is making every effort to arrange a game with Miami for the near future, though it is impossible to say at this moment, with what success. We have a game scheduled with Central University of Kentucky on their Nashville trip. Vanderbilt has as yet given her no definite date, so we are unable to say when the game will take place.

Swanee Purple.

The TAR HEEL had an article on this same subject earlier in the season. It seems that other colleges also are suffering from the same thing. Where does the trouble lie? No college ought to expect to be able to arrange good schedules after the football season opens. The only remedy is for every college to elect its managers for the next season at the close of the present one. Then let these managers begin their correspondence at once. We can't have good teams unless we have good schedules for people take no interest in one sided games. We hope that the colleges will think about this matter and co-operate in preventing difficulties of this kind in the future.

A Student's Statement.

I am informed that somebody has been telling my classmates and others that I said that I considered the article which appeared in the last issue of the TAR HEEL concerning some recent occurrences in one of the departments of the University unfair, and that I would not have written it had I been in the writer's place.

In justice to myself I must state that I said no such thing. I said that I did not write the article, and that I could not have afforded to carry a personal matter into public print. I positively did not say that I thought it unfair or that it ought not to have been written.

Inter-Society Debaters.

The societies have chosen their representatives for the annual inter-society debate to take place sometime in the spring.

From the Phi are Messrs. W. E. Cox and D. P. Parker. From the Di Messrs. Greenfield and Cates. They have not yet chosen the question for discussion.

Carolina 29, Auburn 0.

Game called at 3 o'clock. Mitcham kicks to McIver. McRae gains 8 yards and Copeland 10, then by constant plunging through the line Carolina carries the ball to Alabama's 27 yard line; then Shull goes the remaining distance for the first touchdown. Gregory kicks goal. Score N. C. 5 Ala. 0. Time 5 minutes.

Mitcham kicks 12 yards to Cromartie who fumbles and the ball is given to Alabama. Carolina regains the ball on a fumble and makes 10 yards. Copeland makes 16 yards. By repeated dashes through Auburn's line Carolina carries the ball to Auburn's 4 yard line and McRae scores. Gregory kicks goal. Score N. C. 10 Ala. 0. Time 4 minutes. The ball changes hands several times each team playing good ball Auburn uses the quarter back kick to good effect and carries the ball to Carolina's 15 yard line and Rogers gets the ball. Graves kicks well averaging between 35 and 40 yards. By constant dashes Carolina carries the ball to the center of the field when Copeland by a brilliant run for 55 yards scores a touchdown, but is called back by Osborne on Carolina's offside play. Carolina continues to make shors gains from 5 to 10 yards and has the ball on Auburn's 10 yard line when time is called for the first half. Score N. C. 10 Ala. 0.

SECOND HALF.

Graves kicks to Auburn's 10 yard line and Gregory downs the man in his tracks.

Auburn makes short gains netting 20 yards and then loses the ball on downs. Again Carolina makes several shot dives and Copeland makes a beautiful run of 17 yards. Then the entire Carolina team carries Copeland in the air for 9 yards. When the ball is rushed to the 1 yard line Graves carries it over for a touch-down. Gregory kicks a very difficult goal. N. C. 15, Ala. 0. Time 6 minutes, 30 seconds.

Mitcham kicks to Koehler. Graves, Copeland and McRae net 22 yards. McRae is hurt and Howell takes his place. Carolina nets 8 yards and then Howell skirts right end for 17 yards. Auburn gets the ball on downs and nets 4 yards when Skeggs kicks to centre of field to Rodgers who makes a beautiful open field run for a touchdown. Gregory kick s a pretty goal. Score N. C. 20, Ala. 0. Time, 3 minutes.

Mitcham kicks to Rogers. Again Carolina rushes the ball for several yards and then loses the ball on downs. Auburn works quarter back kick for 10 yards and Howell gets ball and gains 8 yards. Graves kicks 40 yards and Koehler gets ball on Auburn's 3 yard line, Shull gains 2 yards and Howell carries the ball over the line for a touch down. Gregory misses goal. N. C. 24 Ala. 0.

Time 7 minutes and 30 seconds. Mitcham kicks to Koehler, Howell Copeland, Shull and Graves net 32 yards and Rogers loses 5. Georgia worked quarter back kick for 12 yards. Carolina regains it. Time is called ball is in the center of the field.

The backs played great ball throughout the entire game. Bennett was missed yet McIver filled his place to the satisfaction of all. For Auburn Captain Mitcham and Faegan played the best game.

The Auburn Coach Heisman, deserves great credit for the wonderful team which he developed from what was entirely new material. With only one old man back in college he has developed a team that is calculated to give Georgia a handful on Thanksgiving day.
