

HERE AND THERE.

President Alderman spoke in Durham last Thursday night.

Professor M. C. S. Noble left Saturday for Raleigh where he appeared before the Committee on Education in the interest of the new school law.

Dr. R. H. Whitehead spent a few days in Raleigh last week in the interest of the Medical School.

Miss Margaret McCaull is visiting friends on the Hill.

Mr. W. D. Carmichael, '97, spent Saturday and Sunday on the Hill.

Mr. J. A. Caldwell, '99, left Monday for Plymouth where he will engage in work with the State Botanist, Mr. W. W. Ashe.

The student body as well as the community is glad to know that Professor Charles Baskerville has recovered enough from his severe case of sickness to be out again. No doubt he will soon be well enough to take charge of his classes in the chemical department here.

Special attention of the Seniors is called to sections 45-50 of Regulations Regarding Students. It is of great importance.

Mr. Paul R. McFadyen, who was here in '94-'95, has returned and will study Medicine.

Mr. B. T. Cowper who failed to return in the fall has registered for the spring term.

Hon. J. W. Nichols, '97, representative from Pitt County, spent Sunday on the Hill, as guest of Mr. Barwick.

Mr. Nichols is a member of the important committee on Education and the committee on Towns, Cities and Counties.

President Alperman left for Raleigh on Monday morning.
