

HERE AND THERE.

Right Reverend Hugh Miller Thompson bishop of Mississippi has been invited by the Senior Class to deliver the Baccalaureate Sermon Commencement.

Mr. W. A. Reynolds who has been with us for the last two years in the capacity of foot ball coach left last Tuesday for his home in Philadelphia.

Professor Howell and Messrs. Vick and Young left on Wednesday Morning for Clayton, N. C., where they attended the marriage of Dr. Judson Young to Miss Margaret Robertson both of that place.

Mr. George Stephens '96 after spending several days on the Hill left Thursday morning for Greensboro.

Mr. W. D. Carmichael '97 spent Saturday and Sunday on the Hill.

Prof. J. Howard Gore of the Chair of Mathematics of the Columbian University of Washington, D. C., spent last week with his brother, Prof. J. W. Gore.

President Alderman will deliver an address before the Red Springs Academy some time during the month of April.

The Reverend Doctor Swope, Rector of Mr. Vanderbilt Church near Asheville, who was expected to arrive Saturday, as the next University preacher finds it impossible to be with us on that day. We hope, however, to be able to hear this distinguished Divine later.

Dr. Meade, Rector of Episcopal Church here, has been confined to his house for the last few days with an attack of sickness, but we are glad to report that he is better.

Miss Maud Hackney who has been visiting Miss Rena Pickard returned to her home at Durham on Tuesday.

The University Librarian is prepared to order any and all kinds of books. Those desiring to pay the lowest prices for their text books, gift books, etc. will do well to see him. Articles ordered will be received in four days.

R. S. Busbee has obtained a position in the Southern Railway office at Washington, D. C.

Mr. C. B. Buxton, '99, went to Raleigh last week to take in the Sousa Concert.

Mr. W. S. Crawford, '99, spent a few days away from the Hill last week.

The committee appointed by the Legislature to look into the condition of the University will arrive upon the Hill Thursday Morning.

Prof. M. C. S. Noble, returned to the Hill on Tuesday Morning from Selma, N. C., where he had been on a visit to his father.

Had it not been for the rare presence of mind of Mr. E. S. Askew '99, a serious conflagration would have swept the village of Chapel Hill on Monday night. This gentleman was walking by Pickard's stable on that night and detected a fire burning in the express office. With the aid of a driver sleeping there he quickly put out the fire which was spreading rapidly. No damage was done except the burning of a few things of no value.
