

More About the "Co-op."
Communicated.

Some time ago there appeared in the TAR HEEL an article concerning that "monumental fake" the so-called Co-operative store. The author of this article expressed his views, with which the greater part of college is in hearty sympathy, on the propriety of allowing the rapacious owner of this "co-op." to occupy a room in college, thereby giving him such an advantage of position over other similar business houses in the village, in which the student body has as much interest as in this "co-op." and where they are more fairly dealt with.

The author of the former article evidently was under the misapprehension that some members of the faculty held stock in this affair, but the writer of this has been positively informed that such is not the case, and that the sole ownership and contract of the business are in the hands of the "manager."

It is unfair to the other dealers in the village that he should be allowed his present position of advantage in a college building and it is worse than a reflection on the University that he should be allowed to style himself the "University Co-operative store" the better to fleece his patrons, really his victims.

Let the University authorities remove him from a college building, and then let us establish what will prove to be a Co-operative society in more than name, in whose benefits more than one can share.

Mr. H. G. Connor, Jr., '97, came in from Raleigh Monday morning and spent that day on the Hill. The many friends of "Tobe" were glad to see him again.

Mr. Charles Cates, brother of A. E. Cates, '00, spent Sunday on the Hill the guest of his brother.

Mr. C. E. Best, B. L. of '98, left for Waco, Texas, last Wednesday afternoon where he intends to practice law.

In this Spring's semi-annual inter-society debate Messrs. Thompson and Klutz of the Di Society will discuss the affirmative of the question "Resolved that capital punishment should be abolished." Messrs. Cowper and Stern of the Phi. Society will argue the negative. This debate will take place in April.

There will be an important meeting of the Tennis Club Thursday at 2 o'clock in the Chapel. Let all the tennis players in college come.

Miss Rosamond May, of Boston, Mass., sister of Mr. Samuel May, is visiting at Mrs. Gore's.

The best debater in the Phi. Society last Saturday night was Mr. J. C. B. Ehringhaus.

The first game of base ball is with Horner's School on Wednesday, March 8th. Let every body come out and cheer the team on to victory.

Mr. H. C. Cowles, Jr., '00, has been elected Manager of the University Dramatic Club.

The Freshman class will meet behind Chapel at 4 o'clock on Thursday afternoon to have group taken.

The annual inter-society debate will take place next Saturday evening at eight o'clock in Phi. Hall. The query for discussion is, Resolved that the U. S. annex Cuba provided a majority of the people of Cuba ask for annexation." Every body is invited.

Mr. Brooks made the best speech in the Di. Society Saturday night.
