WM. BINGHAM SHUT OUT

Carolina Defeats Wm. Bingham by a Score of Fourteen to Nothing.

On Saturday afternoon Carolina played her second game of the season against the William Bingham School of Mebane. It was a one-sided contest throughout and only once during the game did our opponents come near scoring. A good crowd of students was present and the 'Varsity and opponents were highly applauded when good plays were made.

Our team was without Captain Winston who was prevented from playing on account of a sore arm but his place was creditably filled by Bennett.

Rogers led in batting, making five hits out of six times up.

Lawson as usual pitched a good game.

Cocke at second for Bingham played the best game.

Mangum had good speed and showed his old time form.

Boone in centre field although small got everything that came his way and made one very pretty catch.

How Georgia Will Treat Us.

The following article which appeared in the last issue of the Red and Black shows in what light the coming Carolina-Georgia debate is held in the Georgians' eyes. Our representatives may safely expect a hard-fought contest as well as fine treatment on Georgia's part.

"The great contest with North Carolina is upon us.

Messrs. Broadhurst and Bowie, of North Carolina, will arrive Thursday afternoon.

They will be met by a committee and escorted to the home of the Chancellor, whose guests they will be during their stay here.

All is in readiness for the debate. The contest occurs Friday evening at eight o'clock in the chapel. Mr. Garrard Glenn will act as master of ceremonies. The judges for the contest are:

Prof. H. W. Smith, of Rome.
Hon. Porter King, of Atlanta.
Hon. W. S. Miller, Abbeville, S. C.

Music will be furnished by the U. G. Orchestra, which is preparing an excellent programme. Lucy Coob, the Home School, and the Normal School have been invited and will doubtless attend the exercises.

The question to be debated is: Resolved, "That the United States Senators should be elected by direct vote of the people." Georgia, affirmative; North Carolina, Negative.

The programme is as follows:

Music. Prayer. Music.
1st Speaker, Mr. Doyal, Ga.
2nd " Mr. Bowie, N. C.
3rd " Mr. Tison, Ga.
4th " Mr. Broadhurst.
Rejoinder, Mr. Doyal.
Music. Decision of Judges."

Business.

Some times it becomes necessary for the Business Manager to speak through the columns of this paper on a matter of some importance.

The matter is this. We would advise some of our subscribers to adopt a double entry method of book-keeping in preference to the single entry. The reason of this is that in using the single entry our subscribers sometimes forget that which is most essential and most important to the Business Manager, and without which the TAR HEEL can not continue.

Your

THE BUSINESS MANAGER.
