

HERE AND THERE.

Mr. J. S. Cook, '02, was the best debater in the Di. Society last Saturday night.

The best debater in the Phi. Society Saturday night was Mr. B. B. Lane, Jr.

Mr. Fred Nissen, '02, who has been out of college for several weeks, has returned to the Hill to resume his studies.

We are glad to see Mr. David Graham, '01, out again after several days confinement to his room with a vaccinated arm.

Mr. Thos. H. Battle, '80, of Rocky Mount, and Dr. Kemp P. Battle, '79, and wife, of Raleigh, have been here on a short visit to their father, Dr. Battle, Professor of History.

The April number of the University Record is just out. It contains much valuable information about the University which is generally to be found in that paper.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Edwin Clark Gregory, A. B., '96 and Law, 1898-'99, to Miss Margaret Overman, of Salisbury, Wednesday evening, April 26.

J. O. Carr, Esq., A. B. '95, and Law '96, has associated himself for the practice of his profession under the firm name of Rountree and Carr at Wilmington, N. C.

Frank Miller, ex-'98, who left college last fall to accept a temporary position as chemist to a large electro-aluminum plant situated near Lynchburg, Va., has returned to continue his studies in Chemistry.

The sad news reached the Hill Monday evening of the sudden death at his home in Goldsboro of Claude Kennedy, who entered with the class of '02 but who did not return after Christmas. Although here but such a short time, Claude had made a great many friends who sincerely mourn his untimely death.

Mr. J. L. Ludlow, a hydraulic engineer who lives at Winston, was here Tuesday for the purpose of advising with the management of the University in regard to the construction of the new system of water-works soon to be established. Work on the system will be begun early in the summer in order that it may be completed before the opening of our next session in September.

The friends of Rev. J. S. Thomas, '93, will be interested to know that he has recently accepted a call to ministerial duties in connection with St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Wilmington, N. C. Mr. Thomas is the home missionary of that church and his duties will carry him to a number of churches and homes in New Hanover and Onslow counties. Since October '97 his work has been mainly in connection with home missions of the Wilmington Presbytery.

Meeting of The Tar Heel Editors.

A meeting of the TAR HEEL Editors was held in the Chapel last Friday afternoon at 3 30, at which Mr. M. Bellamy, Jr., '99, handed in his resignation as Editor-in-chief. Mr. Bellamy's resignation was accepted and Mr. H. M. London managing editor, was chosen to fill the place. Mr. London appointed Mr. Latta to be managing editor, and Mr. W. F. Bryan, '00, who was elected to fill the vacancy on the board, was assigned to the local department.

The annual contest for the Declaimer's medal in the Dialectic Society will take place in the Society Hall next Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend. The number of contestants is unusually large, and we predict that those present will hear some good declamation.
