

HERE AND THERE.

AT HOME—

To all who still owe their subscription to THE TAR HEEL and wish to pay, the Business Manager is in.

Mr. Kemp P. Stephens, class '02, spent last Saturday and Sunday in Raleigh.

Mrs. E. A. Abernethy left Saturday morning to visit relatives at Beaufort.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Brem, of Charlotte, have been here on a short visit to their sons in College.

Mr. E. D. Broadhurst has been elected President of the Representatives' Contest at Commencement.

Misses Daisy and Lottie King, of Reidsville, are visiting Miss Mary Roberson on Columbia street.

Mr. W. S. Woodward, '02, who, a few days ago, went to his home in Raleigh on account of sickness, returned to the University the latter of part last week.

Dr. J. H. Pratt, who for the past session has been conducting a class in advanced mineralogy at the University, returned from the distant West with his bride on last Friday.

Members of the Di. and Phi. Societies will be interested to know that that they can secure very neat Society pins at Sorrell's. Call and see them before you leave College.

The Library would be much more agreeable to students who desire to work therein if certain members of the faculty would regard the rules about talking aloud.

The lodge of the S.A.E. fraternity has been completed and the fraternity has moved into its new quarters. The design is exceedingly neat and attractive and the building is an ornament to the campus.

Hon. Marion Butler arrived on the Hill yesterday afternoon. Senator Butler will take the course in the Law School preparatory to standing the examination before the Supreme Court in September.

The Spring semi-annual Inter-Society debate will be held in the Phi. Hall Friday evening, April 28th. The query for discussion is, "Resolved, That capital punishment should be abolished." Messrs. Thompson, '01, and Kluttz, '02, of the Di., will argue the affirmative. Messrs. Cowper, '01, and Stern, '02, of the Di., will uphold the negative.

Musical Entertainment Saturday Night.

One of the most enjoyable musical events of the season will be the concert to be given by the Schubert Glee Club under the auspices of the Athletic Association in Gerrard Hall next Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. This company of talented singers and musicians is one of the very best that will pass through here this spring, and judging from the very flattering newspaper criticisms that we read about this troupe, the concert can be expected to be of a high order and well worth the moderate admission fee that will be charged. The fact that the entertainment is for the benefit of the Athletic Association should cause a large audience to be present and thus help along a worthy cause as well as contribute to their own enjoyment and pleasure.

Mr. Holland Thompson, A.B., '95, against a large number of applicants, has recently won a fellowship on Political Economy in Columbia University valued at $500.00 in cash and $185.00 in fees.
