VICTORIOUS SOUTHERN TRIP:

Carolina Defeats Georgia by Scores of 2 to 1 and 10 to 1. Mercer Bites the Dust to the Score of 10 to 4.

On last Friday Carolina had her first trial of strength on the diamond with our great Southern rival, the University of Georgia, and a right royal combat it was. The game is said to have been the prettiest college game of ball played, in Atlanta for years. It was a pitchers' battle from start to finish. Lawson, Carolina's peerless twirler, having the better of it. Considering the fact that the team had very little rest after their long journey, the few errors credited to Carolina are excusable. The Atlanta papers the day after the game spoke of Lawson's pitching as the prettiest ever seen by a Southern College pitcher. He is said to have been the first pitcher that Moore, Georgia's catcher and crack batsman, has ever failed to get a hit off of.

For Georgia, Bankston pitched a fine game and was well supported by Moore.

1st Inning.

Rogers flies out to second. Winston is given base on balls. Lawson flies out to centre. Woodard out to centre. Winston dies on first.

McBride hits to Lawson and is thrown out at first. Dubose's foul is caught by Graves. Moore, Georgia's best and safest hitter, is easily struck out by Lawson.

2nd Inning.

Graves leads off with a hit between short and third, but is caught off first. Allison flies out to right field. Lambeth flies out to left.

Heidt hits safe and steals second. Jones goes to first. Heidt is thrown out at third by Winston. Jones steals second. Richardson fans. Jones steals third. Bankston fans.

3rd Inning.

Donnelly fails to locate the ball. Carr flies out to left. Rogers hits grounder to pitcher and is thrown out at first.

DuBignon fails to connect with Lawson's puzzling curves. McBride walks to first, steals second and third and scores Ga.'s only run on a wild pitch. Dubose fans. Moore flies out to Allison.

4th Inning.

Winston out to right. Lawson hits safe between short and third, and goes to second on wild pitch. Woodard hits safe, advancing Lawson to third. Lawson scores Carolina's first run on sacrifice by Graves. Allison is thrown out at first.

Bense hits safe. Heidt thrown out at first by Lawson. Jones fans. Richardson hits to short and is thrown out at first.

5th Inning.

Lambeth thrown out at first. Donnelly strikes out. Carr's foul is caught by first baseman.

Bankston flies out to Woodard. DuBignon falls another victim to Lawson's curves. McBride reaches first on error. Dubose flies out to second.

6th Inning.

Rogers flies out to centre fielder who misses an easy chance, steals second and goes to third on hit by Winston. Winston steals second. Lawson hits grounder to second, and Rogers is thrown out at home; Winston advancing to third. Woodard knocks grounder to second scoring Winston. Graves flies out to left.

Moore knocks foul which is caught by Lawson after a beautiful run. Bense is thrown out at first. Heidt makes three noble, but fruitless efforts to find Lawson's curves.

7th Inning.

Allison flies out to right field. Lambeth hits to third and is thrown out at first. Donnelly knocks grounder to pitcher and meets with the same fate.

Jones hits safe, but is thrown out trying to steal second. Richardson fans. Bankston flies out to Woodard.

8th Inning.

Alston, who has been substituted for Carr, fans. Rogers and Winston are thrown out at first.

DuBignon strikes out, but reaches first on error by Graves, however, "Pat" retrieves himself by throwing him out at second. McBride flies out to Alston. Dubose hits safe. Moore flies out to Woodard.

9th Inning.

Lawson strikes out. Woodard out on grounder to first. Graves fans.

Bense flies out to Allison. Heidt places ball in same field, but "old sol" causes Allison to miss a rather difficult chance. Jones knocks grounder to Lawson and Heidt is thrown out at second. Richardson thrown out at first by Lawson.

SECOND GEORGIA GAME.

Carolina 10, Georgia 1.

Carolina's second game with Georgia at Atlanta was a complete walk over for the boys from the Old North State. Having had time to rest and recover from the fatiguing journey of Thursday night the Tar Heels were in better trim to show the people of Atlanta how Carolina could play ball.

Carolina did not play quite as steadily in the field as on the previous day but her batting was decidedly better than in the first game.

The main trouble with Georgia was her inability to hit Winston who has proved himself to be one of the best amateur pitchers in the South, allowing only two hits, and these at times when two men were down and the bases empty.

For Georgia, Jones played the best game, getting the only two hits made, and playing well in the field.

The game—1st Inning.

Richardson, Georgia's star twirler, goes into the box, and Carolina takes the stick first, only to retire in one, two, three order.

Georgia comes to the bat, and two errors and two bases on balls by Winston, who is a little wild, forces Georgia in a run. With the bases full and no hands down things look a little gloomy for Carolina. But Winston steadies himself and Georgia goes out in short order, leaving the bases full.

N. C. 0, Ga. 1.

2nd Inning.

Carolina comes to the bat again and Graves and Allison reach first on errors. Lambeth is given base on balls, and with bases full, Alston raps out a beauty two-bagger, scoring three men. An error and a wild throw add another run, and the Georgia rooters, so hopeful a moment before, become quiet.

Georgia again comes to the bat but is unable to get on to Capt. Winston's puzzling delivery, and retires in short order.

N. C. 4, Ga. 1.

3rd Inning.

Carolina takes the stick again, determined to clinch the game, and adds three more runs amid wild excitement.

Georgia retires in short order.

N. C. 7, Ga. 1.

In the fourth inning Bankston,

Second Inter-Scholastic Track Meet of N. C.

Oak Ridge Wins 62.5 Points vs. Horner's 54.5 Points. Carter of Oak Ridge Scores Greatest Number of Points.

Saturday witnessed the Second Inter-Scholastic Track Meet of North Carolina. Horner School and Oak Ridge Institute were both well represented and the events were hotly contested. The contest was between these two schools and the Athletic Management of each school deserves credit for the very excellent showing made by their representatives.

Both teams arrived on the morning train, and by 12:30 o'clock were on the grounds ready for work. The events were twelve in number and when the day was over 62½ points for Oak Ridge and 54½ for Horner told the story of victory and defeat.

In number of points scored by each individual, Carter of Oak Ridge held first place having scored 32½ points. Oldham and Knight K. of Horner held second and third places having scored 17½ and 12½ respectively.

Altogether the work was satisfactory and the TAR HEEL expresses the feeling of the University students and faculty in congratulating both teams for their work, for their dignified and manly bearing on the field of contest, for their conduct towards each other whether in defeat or in victory, a feeling that reflects credit upon the principles of these excellent schools, and we look forward with pleasant anticipations to next year's meet.

On account of lack of space the TAR HEEL can publish only the names of those who held first, second and third places in the events and will not be able to publish all the contestants as we would wish.

The following are the events and winners of each with the record of the first man:—
