

9th. Inning.

In this the last inning it seemed that the team intended to desert Lawson, the first man up hit safe. Then two rotten errors by Lambeth and Allison fill the bases. But "Bobbie" determined that the game should not be given away at the last put six strikes over the plate, that Mercer could not find, and the third man succeeded in landing a ball in Winston's hands.

The line up of the two teams is as follows:

Saturday is the day set for the University Field Day. This contest is open to all students of the University. Many valuable prizes are offered and the day promises to be one of interest. The events begin at 9 A. M.

The TAR HEEL is indebted to Mr. T. T. Allison, our star left fielder, for the reports of the southern games, which appear in this issue.

Miss Lucy Cobb is visiting at the home of her brother, Prof. Cobb, on Faculty Row.

Notice.

A number of subscriptions to the TAR HEEL still remain unpaid. This can be attributed no doubt to thoughtlessness on the part of those who have not paid their subscription. So as a reminder this notice is inserted. If you are not square with the management you will find your paper marked with a blue pencil. Please take notice and send in at once what is now due.

Yours,
F. M. OSBORNE,
Bus. Manager.

The Choral Society Concert.

The spring concert of the Chapel Hill Choral Society on Friday night promises to be the most attractive that the Society has ever given. Living as we do, so far from musical centres, and with too small a public to pay really good concert troupes to come here often, we are forced to look largely to our own resources for that musical education and cultivation of taste which properly belongs to a really high type of culture. But while such great Universities as Harvard, Yale, and Michigan, with their thousands of students, have regular departments of music, with celebrated Professors and courses leading to a degree, the University of North Carolina has at present not even a Glee Club to keep alive practical interest in this noble and refining art. We have therefore all the more reason to congratulate ourselves that through the Choral Society, uniting the efforts of citizens and students, we can occasionally listen to something in the musical line worthy of the University and its ideals.
