DAVIDSON GAME.

Presbyterians Put up Splendid Game. Both Sides Surprised at the Score.

The game in Charlotte last Saturday was a disappointment to every member of the University. The playing of our team was very good and only twice did it fail to make the required 5 yards in three downs. The game was full of steady gains by N. C. and there were more than a few long runs by our backs, both around the end and straight at the line. The only criticism that could be made upon our team was that it fumbled too often and most of these were when we were within 5 or 6 yards of the touch-down line.

The cause of the majority of the fumbles was on account of the spectators crowding the teams and the noise of the rooters prevented the team from hearing signals.

The "Presbyterians" played good, clean ball and were themselves somewhat surprised that we did not pile up a larger score.

The attendance was estimated at about 500. Being in the enemy's territory of course the rooters for the red and black outnumbered those of the blue and white, but the latter held out loyally to the end.

Davidson wins the toss and takes kick-off with Carolina defending the northern goal. Referee's whistle sounds at 3:30 and Fitzpatrick kicks the ball off for Davidson 10 yards to Koehler who advances 10 yards before being tackled. Graves hits the line for 3 yards, Koehler rushes 12 yards on a quick opening and Bellamy follows with 10 yards more. Bellamy gains 3 yards around end, Koehler rushes 8 yards, Bellamy 5 yards around left end and Koehler circles right end for 25 yards. Ball fumbled losing 1 yard. Bellamy hits line for 5 yards, Koehler follows with 2 yards, Bellamy 2 yards and Koehler 5 yards. Graves goes thru for 10 yards and then 2 yards. Bellamy fumbles, Davidson man gets it.

The Maryland Game.

The announcement that the game with the University of Maryland has been cancelled will be received with a sharp feeling of disappointment. But not the slightest blame can attach itself to the management. As a result of the limited time that our team is allowed to be absent from the Hill, but two games could be played on the Northern trip. The Princeton game could not be given up and as the Naval cadets offered a much more satisfactory guarantee than did the University of Maryland, a game was taken with them. Maryland would not give us a game here unless one was played in Baltimore as well. This was not feasible for the reason stated above and consequently they have cancelled the game which was to have been played here on the 20th.

Society Work.

Both Societies received more new members Saturday night. Neither has at any time in its history been in a more flourishing condition. A new era, in which more time is to be given to mind-culture through the work of these societies, is setting in for the University. The coming of this new day means increased usefulness and power for the University, and all the friends of the institution hail its advent with joy.

In the Philanthropic society the question last discussed was the woman suffrage question,—would the much mooted reform purify politics? The committee thought not. Mr. Cowper's speech was best. In the Di the interesting question of compulsory membership in the literary societies was well argued pro and con. The decision was against compulsion. Mr. Atkinson made the best speech.
