A Kicker.

ercises," but the "abundant supply of improved gymnastic apparatus" mentioned in the catalogue is conspicuous only by its absence. And yet we are forced to go out five afternoons in a week to this wretched apology for a gymnasium, and have the importance of regular exercise impressed on us by warnings of being "put on probation" and other direful things. And when we do go! Well we prance around like a lot of escaped lunatics and go away with the consciousness of duty done. And that is exercise.

There is not a prep school in the State with any claim to prominence which has not a gymnasium incomparably better than our own, and yet we claim to be the head of education, mental and physical, in the State. How we ever maintain it is a mystery.

While we have on our heavy shoes we would also like to register a kick against the lights or rather the absence of lights under the library. Then there is the lack of any bathing facilities, we have baths and shower baths, rusting and being ruined but no water. When a fellow comes off the field from baseball and football practice he must either remain dirty or spend a half hour carrying water and getting ready a bath. By this time, the reaction has come, he is cold, tired and out of spirits and has lost his desire for a bath. We know the reason why we have not yet a complete system of waterworks but with all the wetness of the past six weeks we see no excuse for the lack of an abundant supply of water in the bath-rooms.

are many men far above the average in skill, and all that is necessary to bring them out at their best is some form of general competition, such as a tournament best furnishes. We wish to offer as a suggestion that the present officers of the Tennis Association take the necessary steps toward perfecting such an organization as will ensure the carrying out the ends for which the Association was formed. If for any reason they will not or can not do so, those interested in the matter should get together and take the necessary steps. If anything is to be done it should be done immediately.
