In Memoriam:

Mr. Samuel May, Entered in Rest Tuesday, March 20th, 1900.

The Rector and Vestry of the Chapel of the Cross, desiring to put on record a Minute of regard and remembrance, do not find it easy to express their sense of loss and bereavement in the sudden taking away of this faithful colleague and co-laborer.

Coming among us an utter stranger he at once cordially identified himself with the people and the interests of his adopted home. Of a singular purity of character, and a gracious gentleness and courtesy of bearing he soon won, and kept to the end, the affectionate esteem of all classes. Not the least notable was the unobtrusive yet winsome influence for good exerted by him upon his young associates among the University men, who spontaneously recognized in him an elder brother in sympathy, a leader in thought and example. As Vestryman and Junior Warden, his tactful energy, and ready resourcefulness, and ever willing helpfulness have been invaluable; the which, now that he is gone, leaves a void but hardly to be filled.

We thank God that so much of his companionship and co-operation have been granted us. And to those who stood to him in yet tenderer relations, we would respectfully offer our heartfelt sympathy, in as much as we do truly mourn an honored friend and a brother beloved.

Signed:

W. H. Meade, Rector,
Kemp P. Battle, Senior Warden,

Chas. Baskerville, Sec.,
R. S. McRae,
T. J. Wilson, Jr.,
Archibald Henderson,
M. C. S. Noble,
Jas. C. McRae.

Coach Reynolds Leaves.

Mr. William A. Reynolds left yesterday afternoon for his home in Philadelphia. After spending some time there to fully recuperate from his serious attack of fever, he will go to Wilkesbarre, Pa., which will be his future home. Here, he and Mr. Jayne, who coached our football team for some time last fall, intend forming a co-partnership for the practice of law.

"Billy" Reynolds has coached our football teams for the past three years, including the unbeaten team of '98, which won the undisputed title of Southern Champions. As a coach he has been of the greatest value, training light and green teams and bringing them to championship form. As a man he proved himself a proper gentleman and has endeared himself to us all by his never-failing courtesy and geniality, and this coupled with his knowledge of the game, is the secret of his success as a coach. He will ever have a warm place in the regard of us all who greatly regret seeing him leave us. We know that the entire college join us in best wishes for the success of the legal firm of Jayne and Reynolds.

The University of California is to have a new gymnasium costing $2,000,000.

Our New Instructor.

Mr. Jacob Warshaw who has been chosen to fill the position made vacant by the death of Prof. May, has arrived on the Hill and has taken charge of his classes. Mr. Warshaw is a Harvard magna cum laude man who comes with the highest recommendations from the authorities of his alma mater. He has made a special study of French and German and as he has had considerable experience in teaching, he is extremely well qualified to fill his present position. We welcome him most heartily.

The Athletic Association of the University of Georgia, after an investigation, has found that Finnegan, Goff, Hamilton, Simcox and Young of the last fall's football team received pay for their services and has so reported to the President of the S. I. A. A.

Yale has accepted the gift of $150,000 to found a School of Forestry. Harvard will found a similar school.
