A Communication.

It's an old caution not to "tell tales out of school" but even such a time honored custom occasionally be violated if thereby abuses may be remedied through publicity. More than once in the recent past certain persons have endeavored to introduce kindergarten amusements into one of the senior recitations. Though University students who have passed beyond the sophomore stage should be and generally are sufficiently aware of the seriousness of life to have put away childish things it is evident that there are some who are not, and these try to amuse themselves and annoy their classmates on the recitation we have reference to: by such infantile devices as putting rubber on the stove or as was done last week by putting "stink" bottles on or near the recitation room. The students themselves should see to it that nothing of the kind is allowed to happen again. Within two months of graduation they should not allow themselves to be annoyed and their attention distracted for the pleasure of a few thoughtless individuals. They should rather make these individuals think.

A SENIOR-

State College Track Meet at Oxford.

Some time ago, as was announced in these columns and elsewhere, Prof. Horner offered a hundred dollar prize to the track team of that college in the State which made the best average of events.

This contest comes off at Oxford on Saturday of this week. The colleges to send teams are the University, Trinity and Davidson. Prof. Wilson of Guilford College will be referee.

Below we give a list of events and the names of those who will enter from this place. Some changes are likely to occur, but the list on the whole is correct.
