All communications for this paper should be in the hands of the Editor-in-Chief by Wednesday at noon to insure publication the same week. We shall be glad to publish pertinent discussions of college topics. The Tar Heel will welcome news items, and hopes the whole college will aid it along this line.

At last we are able to announce that the University and the literary societies have succeeded in getting Mr. Sidney Lee to lecture before the student body this spring. Mr. Lee has accepted so many invitations from colleges, universities and learned societies that his time will be almost entirely taken up from now until the close of the college year. He will appear in Gerrard Hall on the evening of May 7.

We are giving our readers in this issue Coach Curran's criticism of the individual candidates for the Varsity. This criticism is made candidly and frankly, and is intended for the good of the players themselves as well as for the benefit of the students and others who wish to know what our men are doing. It is devoid of both flattery and harshness, and it is hoped that it will serve the purpose for which it has been written.

It gives us much pleasure to announce to the students and to the public generally, that Dr. Bruner, who is scheduled for the next faculty address, will lecture in Gerrard Hall next Thursday evening on "Literary Attractions of the Bible." Dr. Bruner's lectures on Biblical literature have been attracting considerable attention of late and we may be sure he will entertain us for the hour in an interesting and instructive manner. All the students and people of the town are cordially invited to come out and enjoy a pleasant evening.

Our first game of the season will be played on our diamond with the Bingham boys this afternoon. If you want to see how the Varsity has improved, come out and see this game. Don't regard this as a game of no importance and stay away on that account, but remember our team will be helped by your presence. You haven't had an opportunity to root any since last fall, and no doubt you are out of practice. Come out and begin practice this afternoon. Let's show our men in the very start that we are behind them. As a consequence they will play much better and no doubt it will do you good to exercise your lungs.

After the concert last week Dr. Venable very generously presented the Musical Club with a check of twenty-five dollars. The President has not failed to recognize the good work of Mr. Woollen and his associates, and as evidence of his appreciation he has voluntarily made this donation.

Mr. Woollen has indeed wrought a wonderful change in the Musical Club since his connection with the University, and we cannot speak in too highly of the earnest labor he has put forth in this direction and of the splendid results which have crowned his efforts.

On the evening of the 20th inst. our musicians will give a concert at the State Normal College in Greensboro. We can promise the young ladies of our sister institution that there is a rare treat in store for them.

Instead of presenting its Alma Mater with some piece of classic statuary as has been the custom of several former classes, the present Senior class has decided to offer her, as its token of esteem and affection, a chandelier for the library. This is to cost one hundred and fifty dollars, and is to be given on condition that the library shall be kept open a short while each night.

This seems to us a wise move and one that should meet the approval of students and faculty alike.

Medley.

"She was bread in old Kentucky"
"In the good old summer time," and was returning from "Aunt Dina's quilting party" with "Bill Bailey" "just as the sun went down." "On a Sunday afternoon accompanied by "Mr. Doolie" they sailed down the "Sewanee river" with the "Stars and Stripes" over head to attend the "Georgia camp meeting," at the wedding of "Reuben and the maid" from "Hindoostan" "on the banks of the Wabash" far away. "Just one girl" "My little Georgia Rose," "the girl I left behind" was having "a hot time in the old town that night." She went to the phone and said, "Hello central give me heaven" for if you don't I will have "to telegraph my baby" "in sunny Tennessee." The operator said "If there are any more at home like you" "I'd like to change your name" "So just break the news to mother" and be my "Lady Lou." She hung up the receiver and made those "Goo Goo eyes" at a "coon, coon, coon" who "had laid away the suit of gray to don the union blue." About this time "Mr. Johnson" who had a good excuse, "Turned loose" and broke up the congregation of the "Georgia camp meeting" when he cried "I'm going to live anyhow until I die" the congregation shouted "I don't care if you never come back" and the band played "the world is upside down." Then "Georgia Rose" accompanied by "Whistling Rufus" the operator left the "baggage coach ahead" via "Dixie land" on their "Honey moon to see "The old folks at home."
