BINGHAM vs. CAROLINA.

The First Game of the Season Easily Won by Carolina. Score 6 to 0.

The outcome of our game with the William Bingham School of Mebane last Saturday, although we won, as indeed was confidently expected by all, is not at all encouraging and not a little dissatisfaction has been plainly expressed by the supporters of the white and blue. The prevalent opinion is, it seems, that Carolina should have worsted the visitors something like 10 or 15 to 0. And in our judgement this is not an extravagant estimate. We do not wish to be understood however as advocating the principle that we expect impossibilities of our team, and it is trusted that this impression will not be created and given credence; but every one knows, and will not contend for one moment, that Carolina played the ball that she was capable of doing. It is true that the visitors had a fairly good team and played splendid ball, but when it is remembered that they are not in our class and that two of our runs were made by costly errors, the reasonableness of our criticism, harsh though it may seem, is clearly justified. If we are to sustain our former base ball records we must play better and ball, of this there can be no doubt.

The reason for our failure to run up a large score against Bingham is, not that our boys failed to do neat fielding, for as it is known the infield work, especially that of Holt at first and Graham at third, was simply made to order, but because they had not been accustomed to batting left hand pitchers and consequently they could not get their eye on the ball. There is no doubting the fact that the Bingham twirler, though of mediocre ability, struck Carolina like a "steam engine in trousers."

The rooting at the game, including the sonorous voices of Jack Roundtree and Ham Irwin, is deserving of the greatest praise possible. During the whole game, we believe, only three yells were given and then with no life and enthusiasm. We must awake to the realization of our position. College spirit must not be dormant. We have a game to play that must be won and if we don't have the proper spirit behind our team, defeat, rather than victory, will surely be ours.

The game in detail was as follows:

Weatherly for Bingham hits the sphere hard to Cheshire who throws him out at first. Crawford makes a beautiful drive which seems good for a single but the earthly tabernacle of "Billy" Carr moved high in the air and Crawford sighs. Van Esten hit three times at the curves dispensed by Green and when the last strike had been made Noble had the ball. Graham was presented with four balls but was out trying to steal second. Oldham fans. Donnelly walks. Holt laces out the leathers to deep left, which would have been a hit, had the fielder been in his proper place.

Chandler could not for some reason make connection with Green's curves and Stovall could not reach the initial cushion. Chandler, R. was easy. Carr is out from pitcher to first and Cheshire fans and Noble decides to do likewise.

Jenkins is out from pitcher to first and Breggs and Nisser failed to see the ball. Faison hits the ball to right fielder who fumbles and plays ping pong with it. George Green singled in center and went to second, but Faison was out at third. Graham lined out a beautiful single in right field and Green scored. Oldham is out from second base to first and Graham goes to third on passed ball, by a good slide, added one more for Carolina. Donnelly is out from second to first.

In this inning the visitors had their only chance to score but this was spoiled by lack of head work. Weatherly singled in right and went to second on a drive by Crawford to short stop who fumbles. Crawford steals second, and Weatherly who was on third tries to come home as Noble throws to cut Crawford off, but—Billy Carr catches the ball and the Bingham lad dies fluttering around the home plate. Van Esten hit to Graham who fumbled but caught Crawford napping at third. Van Esten was out trying to steal second.

Holt leads off with a beautiful two bagger. Carr hit to short stop who fumbled and every body is safe. Cheshire bites the air. Noble hits to short stop and Holt is out at home.

Chandler, J., Stovall and Chandler, R. were easy numbers. Green thinks walking is better than running. Graham makes a wonderful bunt but is out, Green advanced to third. Oldham welted the hide for two cushions and Green scored. Donnelly makes a hot drive to short who knows it is hot and everybody is safe. Earle Holt took the wil- low and smashed out a two bagger and Oldham and Donnelly scored. Carr, Cheshire and Noble retire in fast order.

Jenkins, Breggs and Nissen could not find Green and of course Green couldn't help it. Faison, Green and Graham do not promote the spirit of run getting.

Weatherly, Van Esten and Chandler do not reach first. Oldham bunts to third and is safe at first on error and steals second. Donnelly flies out to Jenkins, and Holt and Carr are out from second to first.

Stovall is out from third to first and Chandler, R. and Jenkins look in vain for sight of the ball. Noble finally shows it to them. Cheshire is out on a deep drive to left field. Noble keeps a good eye and is presented with four balls and steals second. Faison had some trouble in locating the leather. Green singled in center but was out trying to steal second, but Noble scored.

Briggs hit to right field in a bucket and Nisser and Weatherly are troubled exceedingly at their inability to see Green.

Resolutions of Respect.

By request we publish the following resolutions of respect, drawn up by the teachers of Davie County in memory of Miss Elva May Abernethy whose death was announced in The Tar Heel some weeks ago:

Be it resolved:

1st. That we, the teachers of Davie County, North Carolina, do hereby express our heartfelt sympathy for the bereaved family and friends of our deceased friend and co-worker in the schools of our county, Miss Elva May Abernethy, of Chapel Hill, N. C.

2nd. That in Miss Abernethy's untimely end we lose one of our best teachers and most interested and energetic workers for the cause of education in our county. She was not only a worker in her own school but took an active part in our Teachers' Association, shirking no duty and using her best influence for the advancement of the profession she had given her life to.

3rd. During her short stay among us, Miss Abernethy has left a lasting impression upon all who knew her, as a lady of excellent ability and exemplary Christian character.

4th. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon a page of the Minutes of our Teacher's Association. That they be published in our county papers and the "Chapel Hill News." Finally: That a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.

OAK RIDGE vs. CAROLINA.

Second Game of the Season. Won Easily by Carolina. Score 13 to 3.

The second game played by Carolina this season took place on the University diamond Wednesday afternoon, the visitors this time coming from Oak Ridge. The game was interesting from start to finish, and was enjoyed by a large crowd.

First Inning: Warren hits to Cheshire and is out at first. Bennett hits to Carr fumbles and the batter reaches first. Cook repeats the performance. Ross hits to pitcher who retires Bennett at third. Markham gets his base on balls. Matthews retires the side on a pop fly to short.

Graham strikes out. Oldham hits to second and reaches first on second's error. Donnelly hits to left field for three bases scoring Oldham. Holt hits fly to pitcher. Carr is out on a pop-fly to short stop.

Second Inning: Holhouser out on a pop-fly to pitcher. Holt hits safe to center. Lyon strikes out and Noble throws Holhouser out at first on the same play.

Green hits a slow one to second and beats it out. Cheshire sacrifices. Noble hits to left for two bases and scores Green. Hart is out on a pop-fly to second. Graham gets hit by pitched ball and takes his base. Noble scores and Graham goes to second on Oldham's hit to to left which is handled slowly. Donnelly hits to second who fumbles, and Graham scores and Oldham goes to third. Holt is out on a fly to catcher.

Third Inning: Warren hits to third who throws wild and the runner is safe. Bennett sacrifices him to second. Cook hits safely to center. Warren scores on Noble's wild throw to third and Cook goes to third. Ross hits to left for two bases scoring Cook. Markham hits to second and is thrown out at first. Ross goes to third on the same play. Matthews is out on fly to center.

Carr is out on a fly to center. Green hits safe to right and Cheshire hits safe over third placing Green on second. Noble reaches first on on second's error filling all the bases. Hart hits through short stop, scoring Green and Cheshire. Hart steals second. Graham on fielder's choice reaches first but Noble dies at the home plate. Oldham hits safely scoring Hart and Graham goes to third. Oldham goes to second on a passed ball. Donnelly hits heavily for three bases scoring Graham and Oldham. Hart hits to short stop who throws him out at first.

Fourth Inning: Holhouser hits to Cheshire who covers his ground fast and throws the runner out at first. Holt strikes out, Noble fumbles the ball but throws him out at first.
