

THE BROWN-CAROLINA GAME.

The Rhode Island Boys Defeat Carolina in an Interesting Game —By a Score of 4 to 1.

It was an ideal day for the national game yesterday. The Brown boys from Providence, although a long way from home, put up one of the best games seen on Carolina's diamond this year. The game was full of exciting crises. The big fellow Lynch proved himself a puzzle which the Tar Heels were unable to solve. Four to one tells the story, woeful as it is.

After an exchange of yells by Carolina's rooters and the Brown men, Carolina took the field with "Peck" Hart in the box.

Pattee flies out to Green. Gray hits to Carr and is out at first. Clark out to Cheshire to first.

Graham strikes out. Oldham does likewise. Donnelly gets a base on balls. Holt up. Donnelly steals second, Holt put out by Short to first.

Second inning: Gray hits pop fly to Holt. Clark walks. Metcalf hit by pitched ball. Barry hits foul fly to left field, Donnelly making long running catch. Abbott beats the wind in vain.

Noble strikes the air three times in vain. Hart plays his own game, finding for the first time the big pitcher for a single to right field. Graham hits to pitcher. Hart caught at second. Oldham fans again.

Third inning: Metcalf is out from second to first. Barry flies out to Green. Abbott hits safely over second. Penly up. Abbott steals second. Penly out, Short to first.

Carr strikes out. Lynch seems to be a marvel. Green hits to third and is out at first.

Fourth inning: Belding out to Holt. Lynch, the big pitcher, up. He disappoints the spectators, being a victim to Hart's curves. Pattee hits to Graham and of course is out at first.

Donnelly out from second to first. Holt does likewise. The game is a pitcher's battle royal.

Fifth inning: Penlev hits fly to right center. Oldham makes a phenomenal run, saving a two-bagger. Belding hits a single over first, but Holt is equal to the occasion and robs him of it. Lynch hits safe down third base line. Pattee flies out to Green.

Green fans. Cheshire fans. Noble fans. This was a fanning inning.

Sixth inning: Gray gets first on bunt. Clark bunts a sacrifice out at first. Hart has wild pitch. Gray going to third. Metcalf singles, scoring Gray. Barr singles. Abbott bunts and is out at first. Penley out, Hart to Holt. The game is intensely interesting.

Hart fans. Graham fans. Oldham singles. Oldham steals second. Donnelly hits for two bags, scoring Oldham. Holt out short to first. Score, 1 to 1.

Seventh inning: Belding out to Holt. Lynch hits two-bagger, and tries to stretch into three but is thrown out at third. Pattee bunts and gets first on Hart's error. Pattee runs over second and is out between second and third.

Carr is out, second to first.

Green hits to third and is safe on Penley's error. Green out trying to steal second. Cheshire out, second to first.

Eighth inning: Gray gets first on Cheshire's error. Clark fans. Metcalf singles. Barry flies out to Donnelly. Abbott hits what seems to be an easy chance, but the ball makes an ugly bound over Carr's head, scoring Gray. Penley hits to Graham, who attempts to throw Abbott out at second, and Metcalf scores. Belding hits to Graham and is safe on bad throw. Abbott scores. Lynch out to Holt.

Noble is out from pitcher to first. Hart fans. Graham gets a base-hit. Oldham fans.

Ninth inning: Pattee flies out to Green. Gray singles over second. Clark walks. Metcalf flies out. Barry flies out to Green.

Donnelly is out from second to first. Holt is out from third to first. Carr is out from pitcher to first.

The Atlantic Educational Journal, of Richmond, Va., for March has reprinted Dr. Thomas Hume's article of four years ago on "The Literary Study of the Bible," and made it introductory to a special series on improved methods of dealing with the great Book in Church and School. We have from every side tributes to the value and influence of the plan of our University course in the Literary Study of the Bible.

Dr. C. Alphonso Smith, president of the western division of the Modern Language Association, who is widely known as one of the most delightful lecturers in the South, has accepted Miss McClintock's invitation to deliver the address before the graduating class in June. For several years he was professor of English at Louisiana State University, and when he recently left Louisiana to go to the University of Carolina his loss was much regretted. Last summer he lectured on Shakespeare and Tennyson at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville, and there his popularity was unprecedented. Altogether we feel that we are most fortunate in securing one so able and distinguished as is Dr. Smith.—Columbia [S. C.] Daily State, Correspondence from Presbyterian College for Women.
