GAME OF THE CAROLINAS.

The Rain Saves the South Carolina College Men from a Severe Defeat--9 to 0.

To the regret of the rooters, the students and the entire team a heavy downpour of rain at the beginning of the fifth inning saved the base ball team of South Carolina College from what would have been a crushing and disastrous defeat. We had earnestly determined, since the publication of certain "facts," not merely to win a victory over the South Carolinians, but to give them a sound and thorough drubbing, and if we are not greatly mistaken such would have been the result had the game been played to a finish.

In the short time played Varsity succeeded without difficulty in piling up a score of nine runs, and prevented the Palmetto boys from scoring the second base being as far as they were allowed to travel.

George Green, who has developed into a splendid twirler, was in great form and allowed the visitors only one hit, while the Palmetto lad was hit, pounded, and knocked on top of the fence, against the fence under the fence and in every conceivable place within the fence.

The features of the game were the pitching of Green, the proficient stick work of Carr, Holt, Donnelly, Smathers, Graham and Noble and the errors of the visitors.

The game in detail is as follows: First inning: Graham hits grounder to Belser and is thrown out at first. Carr hits ball for two bases and goes to third on Gilland's error. Donnelly hits safe and Carr scores. Donnelly steals second. Holt sacrifices and is thrown out by Smith to Gunter, advancing Donnelly to third. Donnelly scores on a wild pitch. Giles secures base on balls but is unable to advance, since Cheshire, the next man up, is thrown out by Aiken to Gunter.

Aiken hits to Green, who throws him out at first. Gunter hits to short and is safe on Holt's error. Smith hits safe in center but by beautiful throw Graham nabs Gunter at third. Belser out at first on short ball from Noble to first.

Second inning: Smathers hits to short and is out at first. Noble goes out from second to first. Green is hit by pitched ball. Graham hits safe. Green goes to third and thus allows Graham to go to second at the same time. Carr is out from pitcher to first.

Wilcox starts South Carolina's half of the second inning by striking out. Gilland barely connects and is thrown out by Noble to Holt. Malloy imitates Gilland and retires the side.

Score: N. C. 2, S. C. 0.

Third inning Donnelly again hits safe and steals second. Holt hits high fly to left field and is out. Giles sacrifices and Donnelly goes to third. Cheshire is put out from Belser to Gunter, retiring the side.

Davis hits fly to right field and is out. Martin hits to short and is out at first. Aiken flies out to Carr.

Score: N. C. 2, S. C. 0.

Fourth inning: Smathers gets a hit through short and steals second. Noble flies out to Davis, and Green sacrifices, Smathers going to third. Graham hits safely and Smathers scores. Carr makes two-base hit, Graham scoring. Donnelly hits long fly to center field and is out.

Gunter hits to second but is safe at first on Cheshire's wild throw. Smith hits a hot one to Carr, who makes a beautiful stop and cuts off Gunter at second, but barely fails to get Smith at first. Smith attempts to steal second, but is thrown out by Noble. Belser retires the side, being thrown out by Cheshire to Holt.

Score: N. C. 4; S. C. .

Clouds appear and a drizzle of rain begins.

Fifth inning: Holt gets a hit in center field, continuing to third on Nalloy's error. Giles hits safely by pitcher and Holt scores. Cheshire hits to short, who catches Giles at second. Smathers hits safely and Cheshire scores. Smathers goes to second on Gunter's error. Noble hits safe, advancing Smathers to third. Smathers scores on Martin's error. Green hits safe to right field, Noble going to third. Green steals second. Graham gets hit by pitched ball, filling the bases. Carr flies out to center. Donnelly hits safe to right field, scoring Noble and Green, while Graham goes to second.

At this point the game was called on account of rain which descended in torrents.

Inasmuch as five full innings had not been played the game does not count.

Final score N. C. 9; S. C. 0. Hits, N. C. 13; S. C. 1. Errors, N. C. 2; S. C. 4.

Exchanges.

Friend: "Your son, I understand, has literary aspirations. Does he write for money?"

Father (feelingly): "All the time."—Equitable Herald.

Father (visiting son at college): "Pretty good cigars you smoke, my boy."

Son: "Fill your case, dad, fill your case."—Ex.

The Cumberland Weekly was turned over to the co-eds of Cumberland University last week, who got out a special "co-ed edition" which does them credit, being in every way up to the usual high standard of that esteemed contemporary.

Wife: "Oh Doctor, Benjamin seems to be wandering in his mind."

Doctor (who knows Benjamin): "Don't trouble about that; he can't go far."—Ex.

SOUTH CAROLINA BEATEN.

The Palmetto Boys Become Victims to "Peck's" Curves. A Large Crowd Was Present.

On last Saturday in Durham at the George Lyon Park before a large number of spectators Carolina, in a fast and snappy game, wrested victory from South Carolina College by the narrow margin of four to three. The contest was intensely interesting and full of crises. Both teams, on account of the recent score at Columbia, S. C., were confident of victory and entered the game without fear and trembling. The Tar Heels, however, by superb team work succeeded in placing the "Rice Eaters" into a "crystal maze."

The features of the game were the batting of Cheshire for Carolina who welted the leather for two doubles and a single and the clever stick work of Smith for the visitors.

The game in detail is as follows: Graham hits a beautiful drive over short stop and is safe at first. Carr hits to short and reaches first, but Graham is thrown out at second. Donnelly is out at first, while Carr reaches second. Holt flies out to center.

Aiken by a beautiful throw of Smathers is out at first. Gunter hits safe over short. Smith hits to third and both Gunter and Smith are safe. Belser hits a hot one over second and Gunter scores. Martin fails to see the ball and is out. Wilcox flies out to right field.

Second Inning.

Giles is thrown out from second to first. Cheshire hits safe by short reaching first. Smathers hits to short and is safe, but Cheshire dies at second. Noble fans.

Davis flies out to pitcher. Gilland is out from short to first. Gilland, P. flies out to third.

Third Inning.

Hart walks. Graham dies at home plate. Carr secures his base and Hart advances to second. Donnelly hits safe to right field and Hart scores. Holt hits safe to center and Carr scores. Donnelly is put out while attempting to reach home. Giles is out from pitcher to first.

Aiken hits fly to short but is safe. Gunter bunts to third but is thrown out at first. Aiken by error of Holt reaches home. Smith is thrown out from second to first. Belser strikes out.

Fourth Inning.

Cheshire hits safe for two bases, Smathers walks. Noble sacrifices, while Cheshire and Smathers advance to third and second. Hart is out from short to first. Graham fans.

Martin flies out to center. Wilcox is out from second to first. Davis hits safe to center and steals second. Gilland is out from third to first.

Fifth Inning.

Carr fans. Donnelly hits to center for two bases. Holt follows with a long drive to right and Donnelly scores. Giles hits a long one to center for two bases and Holt scores. Cheshire flies out to second. Smathers fans.

Gilland fans. Aiken hits safe over second and steals second. Gunter reaches first. Smith flies out to center. Belser hits safe to right and Aiken scores. Hart by a phenomenal catch throws Gunter out at third.

Sixth Inning.

Noble gets base on balls. Hart hits to short and Noble is out at second. Graham hits to first and Hart is thrown out at second. Carr is out from third to first.

Wilcox is out from pitcher to first. Davis walks. Gilland sacrifices. Gilland, P. fans.

Seventh Inning.

Donnelly fans. Holt is out at first. Giles drives a long one to center but is out.

Aiken fans. Gunter and Smith are out on flies.

Neither side scored during the eight or ninth innings. The game closed with a victory for North Carolina by a score of 4 to 3.
