A HARD FOUGHT BATTLE.

In the Game Which Kentucky and Carolina Fought to a Finish on Saturday, Kentucky Makes 6 Points to Carolina's 5.

The crowd is only fair. The weather is slightly cloudy. There has been a light rain. Heisman, Clemson's coach, is watching the game and taking notes. Kentucky wins toss and Carolina kicks to Kentucky.

Carolina kicks 45 yards to Kentucky, who returns it 10 yards. Ball is on Kentucky's 20-yard line. Kentucky, on next play, is offside and loses 10 yards. Ball on Kentucky's 10-yard line. Kentucky goes over Albright for 5 yards. Kentucky kicks 40 yards. Roberson downed in his tracks. Donnelly goes around end for 3 yards.

Berkeley goes around end on next play for 2 yards. Carolina fumbles but regains the ball. Ball on Kentucky's 48-yard line. Carolina makes no gain and the ball goes over. Kentucky tries double pass, but Jones tackles runner for a loss of 8 yards. Kentucky goes around Cox for 15 yards. Kentucky goes around Foust for 3 yards. Ball is in the center of the field. Kentucky tries Cox for only one-half yard. Time is out. Kentucky's ball on Carolina's 50-yard line. Second down, with 4 1-2 yards to make.

Kentucky hikes around Foust for 10 yards. Kentucky fumbles but regains ball and gains 2 1-5 yards. Kentucky makes 2 1-2 yards. It's Kentucky's ball on Carolina's 35-yard line. Time is out. With only 1 foot to gain, Kentucky loses 3 yards around Cox, and it's Carolina's ball on her 30-yard line. Cox is hurt but continues. Kentucky has a way of passing the ball after being downed, which helps in making gains. Jones makes 2 yards and Foust 4. Donnelly makes 5 yards, but Jones makes no gain. Foust makes 5 yards. Time is out, the ball being Carolina's, on her 50 yard line. Roberson goes 7 yards around end and is hurt but continues in the game. The ball is on Kentucky's 50-yard line. Berkeley darts around end for 20 yards placing the ball on Kentucky's 30-yard line. Foust 3 yards. Pretty good punting. Jones makes 2 1-2 yards. Foust makes 3 yards—first down; Roberson makes 4 1-2 yards. The ball is now on Kentucky's 20-yard line. Berkeley in quick opening gets 5 yards. Jones makes 2 yards. Roberson loses by one of Kentucky's guards coming over Seagle for 4 yards. Jones tries place kick and fails, Kentucky returning the ball to her 25-yard line.

Kentucky goes through center for 1 yard. Jones is hurt. It's Kentucky's ball on her 26-yard line. Kentucky makes 2 yards over Seagle. Kentucky fails to gain over Seagle and Donnelly and Carolina gets the ball on Kentucky's 29-yard line. Jones makes 1-2 yard and Foust adds 6. Ball is on Kentucky's 22 yard line, first down; Roberson makes 2 yards, Donnelly 4, and the ball is Carolina's, first down on Kentucky's 16-yard line. Foust makes 4 yards.

Foust makes 1 yard over tackle. The ball is now on Kentucky's 8-yard line. But on an offside play the ball is advanced to Kentucky's 5-yard line. A foul is called here by Kentucky's quarter kicking ball as Stewart snaps it, and the ball is advanced to the 2 1-2 yard line. Jones makes 1 1-2 yards, placing the ball within one-half yard of the goal line. Jones goes over for a touch down. Jones misses goal. Roberson is put out of the game for scrapping on unfair ruling. Kentucky is playing dirty ball. Kentucky man is also put out but both men are allowed to continue in the game. A touch down is made in 18 minutes. 25 and 20 minute halves are being played.

Carolina kicks to Kentucky's 10-yard line and Kentucky returns it 15 yards, gains 2 yards and then 3 yards more. Seagle breaks through but fails to hold his man. Kentucky makes no gain and then makes 2 1-2 yards. She fumbles but regains the ball. Kentucky makes 2 yards and then hits centre for 1-2 yard. The ball is on Kentucky's 35-yard line. Kentucky makes 3 yards over Jones, and on double pass carries the ball to Carolina's 32-yard line, where Berkeley makes a beautiful tackle, getting his man through fine interference. Kentucky makes 2 yards and adds 5 more. The ball is on Carolina's 30-yard line. Kentucky makes 2 yards. Another gain of 2 yards is made, putting the ball on Carolina's 25-yard line. Kentucky makes 5 yards. Kentucky makes 2 yards over Jones. 15 seconds more to play, with the ball on Carolina's 18-yard line. Hester gets hurt. Kentucky tries place kick but misses. Berkeley catches the ball, steps behind the line and with but a few seconds to play, the ball is brought out to the 25-yard line and kicked by Berkeley for 40 yards. Kentucky catches it and returns 40 yards by a beautiful pass of the man who is tackled. Time is up; score, Carolina 5, Kentucky 0.

Carolina rooters fill in the intermission by marching around the field under the gallant leadership of Jack Frost, singing "We're Tar Heels born and we're Tar Heels bred."

SECOND HALF.

No changes are made in the lineup. Kentucky kicks off to Carolina's 10-yard line. Hester returns 10 yards and Foust makes 10 yards around end. This puts the ball on Carolina's 25-yard line. Hester through center makes 4 yards; Berkeley 3 yards; Donnelly 2 1-2 yards. Foust makes 5 yards around end. Time is out, with the ball in Carolina's possession on her 43-yard.

Roberson makes no gain. Foust makes 1-2 yard. On a fake kick Berkeley loses 10 yards, and the ball goes to Kentucky on Carolina's 35-yard line, with 14 1-2 minutes to play.

Kentucky tries centre for 2 yards and again for 3 yards, putting the ball on Carolina's 30 yard-line. Kentucky makes 4 3-4 yards. Seagle breaks through and tackles runner for a loss of one yard. Kentucky tries the line but fails to make a distance of 1 yard and the ball goes over to Carolina.

Donnelly makes 1 1-2 yards; Berkeley no gain; Berkeley kicks 40 yards. Kentucky returns 5 yards. The ball is in Kentucky's possession on Carolina's 40-yard line. Kentucky goes through line and on forward pass loses 5 yards. On try around end she loses 3 yards more; third down, with 12 1-2 yards to gain. Kentucky kicks to Carolina's 10 yard line and Berkeley returns it 15 yards. A long discussion here ensues, the place for the ball having been lost, as the foul did not count. The ball is finally put on Carolina's 18-yard line in her possession. Donnelly makes 4 yards. Donnelly hurdles the line for 3 yards more. The ball is on our 20-yard line.

[The report is here somewhat mixed but seems as follows:] At this point Carolina loses the ball on a fumble. H. Yancey gets 5 yards around right end. He again takes the ball and starts around the same place. Cox tackles him by the foot but fails to hold him, and dodging other tacklers he runs 25 yards for a touch down. Kentucky kicks goal. Score: Kentucky 6; Carolina 5.
