A TIE GAME.

Carolina Plays a Weakened Team and meets an Unexpectedly Strong one from the A. & M.—Some Good Playing—Frequent Fumbling.

SIX TO SIX.

There are just about three parts to the story: Carolina did not have Carpenter; A. & M. had Wilson; Carolina had conceded too much for the sake of getting the game; both teams played good ball. The game started with a rush, and before it had fairly begun Carolina had scored. This seemed to throw the Carolinians off and make them too eager. At any rate when A. & M. started toward the goal line, their rushes were not met and stopped. Roberson made a fine play in one of these rushes; from the side line it looked as if he was holding a half-dozen men. It seemed impossible for the team, however, to hold the visitors. The A. & M. made a touchdown and kicked a clear goal, and there was no more scoring. The remainder of the half showed better playing by Carolina.

In the second half the game was pretty evenly divided. Carolina had the best of it except for some costly fumbles. A. & M. did not hold back much better. Neither side played a steady game. The features of the game were a double pass by A. & M. and a great run by Winborne. Near the close Captain Stewart rallied his men with wonderful effect. It was then that Winborne's run was made. There was determination in Carolina that meant business, but time was called. An A. & M. substitute was heard to remark, coming off the field, "I was so God—glad when time was up, I didn't know what to do."

Captain Stewart said after the game, "I am perfectly satisfied with the work of the team except during about five minutes when the defense was poor." Jacocks was not up to his average on kicking. Townsend, Webber, Roberson and Barry played a splendid game. The A. & M. stars were Wilson and Abernethy. The A. & M. made a series of gains on a tandem play that gave her a touchdown.

The crowd was good and the cheering enthusiastic. A large number of A. & M. rooters came on a special train from Raleigh. The treatment of the players by the crowd was perfect. The officials knew their business, and there was no squabbling.
