

Remarks.

Brownie Gilmer spent Saturday and Sunday in Raleigh.

Mr. Preston Cotton has been appointed librarian of the Law School.

Dr. C. Alphonso Smith delivered an address in Greensboro last Friday night.

W. S. O'B. Robinson, Jr., spent a few days in Charlotte and Greensboro last week.

E. D. Broadhurst went to Raleigh last week to act as best man at the marriage of Dr. Betts, of Greensboro.

Livery stable men met their match Tuesday night. The mud between here and Durham varied in depth from one to three feet, and they refused to let out any teams to those who wanted to go to the show. Four men showed their independence by walking.

How's this for a full week? Star Course Monday night, Washington and Lee contest Tuesday night, holiday and Washington's birthday exercises Wednesday, Gimghoul dance Thursday, February German Friday, Concert by Musical Association Friday, and Georgia contest in the Di Saturday.

In Other Colleges.

A Georgia student at the University of Chicago recently threw up his job as a waiter in the University commons and left the University rather than wait on a negro.

The new athletic field at Stanford will comprise 10 acres and will be the finest in America.—Ex.

Among the Southern teams that will have Western coaches next fall are Virginia, Kentucky, Clemson, Alabama, and A. & M. The last season showed that the West can play football.

The largest university in the world, in point of number of students, is that of Tokio, Japan. Forty-eight thousand Japanese are studying there, the favorite courses being law and civil and mechanical engineering.—Athenaeum.

The University of Japan will send a baseball team across the Pacific to play Leland Stanford in San Francisco this Spring.

Virginia has apologized for the language that angered Georgetown some years ago, and athletic relations between the two will be restored.

At Columbia all Freshmen who have not already learned to swim are required to take lessons of a trainer in swimming, and gain a passing mark before the Freshman course in physical training is complete.—Ex.

Hereafter every student in the academic and scientific departments of the University of Vermont will be taxed five dollars for athletic purposes.

Commencement Sermons.

Both the baccalaureate sermon and the night sermon before the Young Men's Christian Association for the coming Commencement will be preached by Richmond men. The Rev. Dr. Gardner will preach the baccalaureate sermon; and the Rev. Dr. William Meade Clark will preach the night sermon.

Dr. Gardner is originally from South Carolina and is now rector of Grace Street Baptist Church, Richmond, Va. He is recognized as one of Virginia's most able preachers, a man of culture and scholarship, and we may expect a masterful sermon from him.

Dr. Clark is now editor of the Southern Churchman, which stands at the head of Episcopal publications in the South. The people of the village will be especially glad to know that he is to be back in Chapel Hill again, where he was once rector of the Episcopal church for some years. Mr. Clark is an Episcopal of the Virginia type and we may also expect an excellent sermon from him.

In the Societies.

Di question: Resolved, That North Carolina should have a child labor law which prevents children under fourteen years of age from working in factories. The affirmative won and Mr. Andrews, W. made the best speech.

Phi question: Resolved, That the national government should aid in the construction of roads. The affirmative won and Mr. Wright made the best speech.

To Play Pennsylvania and Navy.

The football schedule for next year has been nearly all arranged. One game has not been fixed finally, and so the schedule is not ready for publication. Of the games that are certainties, there are two of very great importance and interest, one with Pennsylvania and one with the Navy. The first of these will be played at Philadelphia and the latter at Annapolis. The management is to be congratulated on securing these games, for it has been difficult to do so before. Southern teams play too little in the North. Manager Carr set the pace in arranging the baseball schedule for this Spring, and it is a pleasure to know that the football team is holding up to it.

College Statistics.

Official statistics exhibit the college enrollment for the current year as follows, taking in order the 15 Universities that head the list in point of numerical importance: Harvard, 6,013; Columbia, 4,547; Chicago, 4,147; Northwestern, 4,007; Michigan, 3,726; California, 3,690; Illinois, 3,661; Minnesota, 3,550; Cornell, 3,338; Wisconsin, 3,221; Yale, 2,990; Pennsylvania, 2,664; Syracuse, 2,207; Princeton, 1,383; Leland Stanford, Jr., 1,370 total, 50,624. A significant feature of this list is the surprisingly large representation of the Western colleges. Out of the total of 15 Universities, with an aggregate enrollment of 50,624 students, 8, with 27,372 students, are in Western States. Harvard, the oldest, is the only University with more than 5,000 students, and only three others pass the 4,000 mark. Between 3,000 and 4,000 there are six, and between 2,000 and 3,000 there three. That prestige and importance are not determined by size alone is shown by the fact that Yale ranks eleventh, while Princeton stands fourteenth, smaller than Syracuse, and with only Leland Stanford, Jr., below.—New York Sun.
