CAROLINA TAKES
THE FIRST*Defeats Swarthmore in an Interesting Game by a Score of 3 to 0*WOODS HOLDS SWARTHMORE TO ONE HIT*Victory Due to Schaefer's Wildness Combined With the Effective Use of the Squeeze Play by the Members of the Varsity

Carolina 3, Swarthmore 0 was the result of a unsensational but interesting game last Wednesday. The absolute inability of the Northerners to hit Woods was chiefly responsible for their defeat. From the time he struck out three men in succession in the first round of the mix-up until he fanned the last man in the ninth, Woods had Swarthmore completely at his mercy. One little single in the seventh after two men were down was everything in the way of hits which the visitors were able to secure.

The big boy made Swarthmore look funny at the plate. Eleven times his curves and drops caused the Swarthmore batters to die gently but firmly at the plate. In the ninth with a man on and no one out he fanned Geig, whose chief title to fame is his ability to hit home runs.

Carolina, likewise, seemed unable to find what appeared to be Schaefer's rather easy offerings until the eighth. Only one hit had been gathered in up to that time. But in the eighth Irby and Page got singles apiece, and Swink landed on one for three bases. The victory was due not to Carolina's hitting but to Schaefer's wildness and the effective use of the squeeze play.

Both teams fielded well. The infield work of the visitors was superb. Every man of the infield handled what came to him perfectly. Weaver at second, and Gilchrist, at third, worked especially well. For Carolina, Edward's work at third was the feature of the game. Three times he handled balls from Geig's stick without erring. Geig's terrific drive in the sixth dropped from his glove, but he recovered in time to catch the runner at first. Young made a pretty catch of a difficult fly in left.

The first score came in the second inning. Young walked, stole second and third, and scored on Whitaker's sacrifice. In the sixth Swink walked, and scored on two perfect bunts by Page and Young. In the eighth Edwards, first up, walked but was thrown out on an attempted steal. Irby singled. Swink drove one between left and center for three bases. Irby was called out for cutting second, but Swink, without stopping, came home on a bad throw in. Page singled; Young got his third base on balls; Whitaker filled the bases with another base on balls; but Bailey fouled out to the catcher.

In the third for Swarthmore Gilchrist walked, Thomas was safe on Woods' error; Gilchrist

COLLEGE PAPERS UNITED HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEETSSouthern College Newspapers and Magazines to Form an Association

The initial convention of a newly projected Southern College Press Association will be held in Columbia, S. C. April 23-25. This announcement is made by the committee on formation, Broadus Mitchell and Sam Latimer, Jr. of the University of South Carolina. Those institutions that will be represented as charter members at the first convention are: University of Virginia, V. P. I. William and Mary College, North Carolina A. and M. College, University of North Carolina, University of South Carolina, University of Georgia, Clemson College. Other schools will have delegates present.

While charter membership was limited to the Atlantic coast states, any male college of the South with a weekly and a monthly publication is eligible to membership in the association. The initial convention will perfect a constitution for the new organization and so place it definitely among the intercollegiate activities of the country, of which it will be one of the most comprehensive. The convention will have a full programme, details of which will be made public later.

Winston-Salem Leaguers Defeat Carolina

In a slow and rather uninteresting practice game played last Saturday while the track meet was going on Winston-Salem team, of the Carolina Association, defeated the Varsity by the score of 4 to 3.

Jim Leak played it right in place of "Monk" Hanes, and Winstead played center for Page. Scarcely any of the professionals played in their regular positions; and after the fourth inning O'Halaran, in charge of them, made so many lightening changes the scorer could hardly keep pace.

The game was a work out pure and simple for both sides. Both sides took things easy, and although all the pitchers Clancy has signed worked for an inning or two, none of them exerted themselves very much. Lee worked for six innings, but at no time did he turn loose. He held the professionals to two doubles and two singles, all scattered. Lanier, who followed, did not fare so well. He was bumped for four in a row in the eighth, and for a triple, single, and double in the ninth. Hits by Leak, Irby, and Swink, followed by a sacrifice fly by Winstead scored two for the Varsity in the first. Young's hit followed by two errors in the sixth scored the third tally for Carolina.

SWARTHMORE TAKES ONEDurability of Varsity Batters to Hit Combined With Errors Give Swarthmore the Record Game of the Series.

Errors at inopportune times were the main reasons why Swarthmore was able to turn the tables on Carolina in the second game of the series by the score of 3 to 2. Errors helped Swarthmore to win, and the inability of Carolina's batters to land safely on Greist, kept Carolina from winning. From the bleachers Greist's offerings appeared easy, but the bleachers are a good deal different from the batter's box.

Not until the last half of the sixth, when Leak went in to bat for Woods, did the team get the ghost of a hit. Young and Whitaker due to Greist's kindness in giving them free passes, got on. Bailey flied out to left who muffed the ball, and as a result was able to catch Young at third. Then Jim Leak, sent in as pinch hitter, set the rooters wild with a perfect single between center and right. This was the only real chance Carolina had to cheer.

The game started with Woods again on the mound. He seemed not to have warmed up enough, or at least was unable to keep his offerings out of the groove. At any rate Darbow, who fanned once the day before, and Tarble who went and did likewise twice, landed on him for a double and a triple respectively. Naturally one run was marked up on the wrong side. This was the only earned run of the game. The other two were pure gifts.

Errors by Geig and Lucas gave Carolina one in the third. The game dragged along until the fifth with only Page's splendid running catch in center to relieve the monotony. In the fifth Darbow got on by a hit of the scratchest kind, stole second, went to third on Baker's out, and scored on Young's muff of Tarble's easy fly. Carolina scored again in the sixth on passes followed by Leak's hit. Swarthmore came back with the evening run in the same inning. Lucas was on by Irby's wild throw, Weaver sacrificed, and Gilchrist drove Lucas in with a single.

Carolina threatened to rally in the eighth and ninth. Greist began to lose his control. He issued a pass in the eighth after two were down. With three balls on Bailey, Greist was substituted by Tarble. The latter promptly finished passing Bailey. All Lanier could do, however, was to go out on a fly to right. In the ninth Hanes fanned, Edwards went out short to first, Irby singled, Swink walked, Page-fanned, and the agony was ended.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Swarthmore 100 011 000—3 6 6 Carolina 001 001 000—2 2 5

SOPHOMORES TAKE TRACK MEETEnter More Men in the Events and Present a Better Balanced Team*WOOLCOTT, '15, SCORES 20 1-2 POINTS*The Meet a Great Success. Strong Breaks Pole Vault Record. Cobb, Patterson and Cartmell Win in an Exciting Relay.

The Sophomore class had things its own way in the inter-class track meet held Saturday—the final score standing: Sophs 45, Freshmen 32, Juniors 21, Seniors 10. The meet was an all-round success, particularly from the point of view of the work done. One University record was broken. George Strong, '14, pole vaulted 10 feet 4, which is 4 inches better than Parsley's old record. Considering the fact that no Varsity men were entered, the other times and distances were very promising.

The individual star of the meet was undoubtedly Philip Woolcott of the Freshman class. The quality and versatility of his work mark him as one of the most promising track athletes Carolina has had in a long time. He scored 20½ out of the 32 points made by the freshmen, capturing both jumps and both hurdles and tying for third place in the pole vault. In neither the jumps nor the hurdles did he have to extend himself to win. Had he been pushed, it is probable several records would have fallen. Woolcott will be heard from later.

B. C. Parker's shot put of 36 feet 6 inches and Mason's 100 in 10 1-5 second stand out as sterling performances. Parker's work is already much better than any done here last year, and in view of the short practice he has had, great things may be expected of him. Mason took both the sprints, closely followed in each case by Sears.

The Sophs scored heavily in the half mile and the mile, winning all places in both these events. The former furnished an exciting finish, Ransom and Whiting fighting it out all down the straight-away, Ranson finally winning. The Sophs had more men entered in the meet and presented a better balanced team. They scored in every event save the shot put.

The climax of the meet was the relay race between teams made up of Varsity stars and Coach Cartmell. It was the first time Cartmell had raced on the local track, and consequently the interest was keen. The teams were: Collier Cobb, Jr., E. V. Patterson, Nat J. Cartmell; and M. E. Blalock, Jr., R. C. Spence, W. E. Wakeley. Cobb and Blalock ran one lap with Blalock leading by about 12 yards. Patterson and Spence ran two laps, and at the end the distance between them had been shortened to 6 yards. Wakeley and Cart-
