V. P. I.	23½
Washington and Lee	15
Georgetown	13

"Nat" J. Cartmell's bunch sprang a slight surprise on certain other colleges of Maryland, Virginia, and North Carolina, when in last Saturday's big meet Carolina finished second. The meet was the largest event of its nature that has taken place between the colleges of these three States. Every college of importance, save the University of Virginia, entered a team of men. Carolina sent eleven men to Baltimore none of whom entered for the hammer throw, shot put, discus throw, or one-mile relay. Considering this fact together with the standing of the colleges represented, the importance of second place in the contest is seen to be great.

Johns Hopkins won the meet as was expected. The meet was held on her home grounds, and, as a result, she was able to enter about three times as many men as the other colleges. More than to anything else, however, is her victory due to Horrax, who by himself captured 20½ points. A. and M., because of her exceptional strength in the weights and discus, was able to take third place. She was closely pressed by V. P. I. The two Legges and Hughes did remarkable work for the Institute. Washington and Lee, due chiefly to Captain Glass; secured fifth place. Georgetown ended sixth, the great Eller failing to place in the 100 yard dash and the 120 yard hurdles.

Carolina's victory was due chiefly to her strength in the distance races. Patterson won ten points in the mile and two mile. Spence added three by finishing a close second in the half mile. Cobb took third in the two mile, Ransom fourth in the half. Wakeley got third in the quarter mile. Sears and Mason got second and third in the 100 yard dash. Strong took second in the pole vault and Black look third in the broad jump.

220-yard dash—Won by Wagner, Johns Hopkins; second, Glass, Washington and Lee; third, Hunter, Johns Hopkins. Time, 23 2-5 seconds.

Hammer throw—Won by Floyd, Agriculture and Mechanical; second, Hurtt, Agriculture

Saturday night in one of the debates in the pentangular series between the Universities of Tulane, Virginia, Georgia, Vanderbilt, and North Carolina, North Carolina won from Tulane. The debate was pulled off on the Hill in Gerrard Hall before a good crowd of students, faculty, and townspeople. The query upon which the representatives of the two institutions held forth was:

"Resolved: That all corporations doing an interstate commerce business should be chartered and regulated by a Federal Commission." Carolina had the affirmative and was ably represented by Messrs. C. K. Burgess, and L. P. McLeadon. For Tulane Messrs. Wm. T. Guste and Nicholas Callan defended the negative; and though they lost, it was only by a two to one vote. They put up a good argument and made a hard fight for their side and their University. And then, when they lost, they lost gamely.

The judges were Dr. Dred Peacock, a former president of the Greensboro Female College; President W. A. Harper, of Elon; and Dr. T. McConnell of Davidson. Dr. C. L. Raper presided at the debate, and Mr. M. T. Spears acted as secretary.

The affirmative, after showing that the present method of regulating corporations doing an interstate business is ineffective, and after showing that there is a need for a change in that method, offered as the solution of the present evils that exist in these concerns doing an interstate commerce business—the chartering and regulating of those concerns by a Federal Commission. The first speaker showed that the commercial life of the nation has undergone such marvelous development and has grown to such dimensions, that the regulation of interstate commerce corporations is a natural and necessary function of the Federal government. He then showed that a

CAROLINA WINS FROM TRINITY

In a fast and interesting match with the Trinity College tennis team last Saturday, Carolina defeated the visitors by a decisive score. In doubles Carolina won three straight sets: 6-4; 6-4; 6-1.

In the singles Oates played White of Trinity and won two out of three—4-6; 6-4; 6-1. Chambers won two straight from McClees—6-4; 6-3. Score: Carolina 100; Trinity 0.

The visitors, though beaten, put up a hard, game fight in every set. The Varsity was lucky to beat them.

Carolina 66—V. P. I. 51—was the result of a dual meet at Blacksburg Tuesday.

Part of a letter from J. T. England, president of the South-Atlantic Intercollegiate Athletic Association, to the Graduate Manager.

"The first meet of the Intercollegiate Association was an unqualified success. It could not have been the success that it was had it not been for the University of North Carolina men. I speak with knowledge when I say, no one has ever visited Baltimore that made the impression that your men did. The papers are full of comments upon their gentlemanly and sportsman-like conduct as well as in praise of their ability in the events in which they competed. Johns Hopking considers itself lucky to have had an opportunity of entertaining such a team."

The meet next year will be held on Friday and Saturday, May 2nd and 3rd. The place has not yet been decided upon, Graduate Manager Manning was elected second vice-president of the association.

E. V. Patterson has been elected captain of the track team in place of A. M. Atkinson, who has left college.

Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Wilson entertained the members of the baseball team at a supper Saturday night.

Dean E. K. Graham delivered the address at the closing exercises of the Asheboro High School.

Dr. F. P. Venable delivered an address at Mooresville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George MacNider of Raleigh spent several days last week in Chapel Hill as the guest of Dr. W. DeB. MacNider.

A. M. Burch of Greensboro, a former athlete at the University of Georgia, was on the Hill to see the Georgia games.

DEDICATION OF CALDWELL HALL TAKES PLACE

Appropriate Exercises Held Wednesday Night in Gerrard Hall

The exercises connected with the opening of Caldwell Hall, the new medical building, took place in Gerrard Hall Wednesday night before a large audience of students, members of the faculty, townspeople, and distinguished visitors.

The order of exercises was opened with the invocation by Dr. W. R. L. Smith, pastor of the Baptist church of Chapel Hill. Directly after this Dr. R. H. Lewis, chairman of the building committee, presented the building to the University on behalf of the Trustees and the State of North Carolina. President Francis P. Venable accepted the building on the part of the University, and Dr. I. H. Manning, Dean of the Medical School, on the part of the Medical Faculty.

Following the presentation and acceptance of the building the first formal address of the evening was delivered by Dr. A. A. Kent, president of the State Medical Society. The subject of the address was "The New Era Demands Educated Physicians." It was an exposition of the fact that the present age of scientific medicine demands accuracy and thoroughness in medical training.

Dr. R. H. Whitehead, Dean of the Medical School of the University of Virginia, next spoke on "Medical Education in the South." With the spirit of one keenly alive to the condition and status of medical education in the South, the speaker reviewed the advantages, the defects, the progress, and the hopes of medical education in the Southern States.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by Dr. Edgar F. Smith, Provost of the University of Pennsylvania. His subject was "Medical Education." The address dealt in a large way with the demands that the profession makes on the training period of the young physician.

Three honorary degrees were conferred at the opening—on Dr. Smith, Dr. C. W. Stiles, and Dr. R. H. Lewis. At the conclusion of Dr. Smith's address, Dr. Chas. Lee Raper, Dean of the Graduate School, presented Dr. Smith to the president for the degree of Doctor of Laws. His presentation was as follows:

"Mr. President:

I have the honor to present for the degree of Dr. of Laws Edgar Fahs Smith: professor of Chemistry in the University of Pennsylvania since 1888; president of the American Chemical Society in 1898; president of the American Philosophical Society in 1902; provost of the University

BASEBALL SEASON IS ENDED

With Two Victories Over V. P. I. Swink Elected Captain

In a rather slow and lifeless game, Carolina defeated the Virginia Polytechnic Institute last Thursday by the score of 8 to 2. The features of the game were the hitting of Swink and Bailey, and a fast double play to Bailey to Winstead to Leak.

Bailey and Swink both got a single and a three-base hit. Bailey's single came with two men on.

V. P. I. was presented with two runs in the second, when Hanes let Stewart's single roll to the fence.

Carolina had one given her in the first, when Stewart muffed Leak's fly. The score was tied in Carolina's half of the second by Bailey's triple, followed by Page's single. The tie was not broken until the sixth.

Swink tripled, after Edwards fanned; Leak popped a foul; Irby singled, scoring Swink. Winstead doubled and Baily singled, scoring Irby and Winstead.

Again in the seventh Carolina got next to V. P. I.'s crack pitcher saved especially for her, and by bunting four singles, scored three more runs. After the second inning V. P. I. never threatened. Lanier being master at all times.

In the closing game of the season Carolina defeated V. P. I. 9 to 6. Lee started the game for Carolina and held the Virginian's hitters until two men were down in the fourth. Jones and Vawter singled in succession and Jones scored when Leak failed to handle Dear's grounder. By bunting hits Carolina had scored four. Lee was relieved at the beginning of the sixth by Wood. The latter was badly off. In the four innings he pitched he allowed eight hits, two of which were
