

Weather Report:
Let's see the old
Peg, Kiddo

THE TAR HEEL

Weather Report:
That's the form,
old boy

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

VOL. 22

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, CHAPEL HILL, N. C., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1914

NO. 16

BLOODY NAT'S MEN ON THE WARPATH

Lose a Slow Game to Durham, Then Clean Up Elon and Guilford

GUILFORD'S FIRST LOSS ON OWN FLOOR

Carolina Now Has Won Five and Lost Two. Much Improvement Shown During Last Two Games. Meb Long Lands the Guilford Game. Tandy and Dowd Great Pair.

In a slow-fuse game of basketball on the Durham floor, just before examinations Durham Y. M. C. A. defeated Carolina by five points. This was the second of three games arranged between the two teams, and the third, to be played in Raleigh two weeks hence, will be the rubber. Durham was working well at home, while Carolina, at some disadvantage because of the small floor, played sluggishly and under seeming difficulties. Dowd and Long at forwards, Tandy, center and Tennent and Andrews at guards composed Carolina's lineup. The game ended 42 to 37 for Durham.

The University quintet completed a two days trip in a creditable and unusual manner by defeating Guilford on Friday, 23 to 22, and Elon on Saturday night, 29 to 16. This makes seven games played, five of which have been won, Elon beat us our first game on our own floor, and Durham beat us on their floor.

The game at Guilford was a fast game, and was won with difficulty. Guilford for the first time in its history was defeated on its own floor, and that by one point. Tennent and Johnson worked like fiends against two forwards of undisputed merit, and succeeded in checking their usually high scores. Dowd and Long though closely guarded, scored three field goals each, while Edwards played against his former teammates, as if playing on his home floor. Tandy relieved him in the 2nd half.

At the end of the game Carolina's scorer had it 23 to 22 for N. C.; Guilford's man had 22 to 22. After some short disturbance, at the referee's decision, an extra five minutes of stiff fighting ended in favor of Carolina. When a double foul was called by the Referee, Benbow for Guilford failed in his throw; Long threw successfully. In a few seconds the game ended with the final undisputed score 23 to 22, Carolina.

The first half of the Elon game was just as great an exhibition of good ball as the Guilford game. Both teams were fairly evenly matched and for several minutes no scoring ensued. Tandy broke from the rut and landed a field goal. He soon followed this with another, and by the end of the first half Carolina had scored about 13 points, leading Elon by about 7 points. Morette, the man who was mainly responsible for Carolina's defeat on the Hill some time ago, was playing a

Concluded on third page

THE MAGISTRATES REPORT

Don't Fail to Get in On The Opening Night.

A little first-hand information from the New York press concerning the play which the University Dramatic Club proposes to put on the boards tomorrow night is at present appropriate to better give an idea to the people of the University community how the big ringers in the theatrical world regard this masterful production of Sir Arthur W. Pinero.

The New York Times of Oct. 8, 1885 comments upon the first performance in this country as follows:

"The Magistrate, by Arthur W. Pinero is a play with a laugh in every line, we do not recall now, after sitting for three hours under the influence of this exceedingly comic piece, a single scene or incident in it that is not genuinely amusing. Its characters are excellently drawn, its incidents, though some of them are scarcely probable are so ingeniously devised as to appear perfectly natural for the time being and its dialogue is crisp and droll."

"The fun of the magistrate is of the sort frequently described as 'fast and furious', the piece is farce, pure and simple and it pretends to be nothing else; but it is a good farce, in the composition of which perfect knowledge of stagecraft and literary qualifications of no mean order have been employed in an intelligent and painstaking manner. There is very little sentiment in it, not a trace of pathos. Its main purpose is to cause laughter, and in accomplishing this purpose the author has provided congenial work for good comedians; that is to say he has written a good acting play in which characters are not mere puppets, as is frequently the case in pieces of the same order, but really flesh and blood people."

The New York World of the same date says:

"Mr. Daly's Theater opened last night with trumpets. The audience was a large and brilliant one, the play was The Magistrate, and the result a success."

This witty, ingenious and rattling farce comedy has achieved a notable triumph in London, and promises to be equally admired here. It is wrought so dexterously and so sparkling in its dialogue that the material is much like new stuff."

And so it is. If we had the space we could entertain you with comments from The New York Tribune, The New York Herald, The New York Sun and others. And the beauty of it all is that they are favorable. This unanimity of the New York press on this one play means something. The play which stands the test of such a thorough critical medium as the press of New York without a black mark is the play that will be staged in Gerrard Hall tomorrow night with the best scenery ever seen here and acted by the best talent the University of North Carolina has ever produced.

A Strong Team.

It will be of interest to University men that Dr. W. D. Weatherford and Mr. E. C. Mercer will be here to deliver addresses Tuesday night February 24th. Dr. Weatherford is well known here as one of the strongest and most vigorous speakers in the student movement. He is a Southern college man who knows the life and problems of the Southern student. At Vanderbilt University he was an expert in the gym, president of the Y. M. C. A., and a leader in general college life. Dr. Weatherford is now a member of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A. and traveling secretary for the Southern States.

Mr. E. C. Mercer is an alumnus of the University of Virginia who out of a life that went into the gutter is telling the story of the saving power found in the teachings and personality of Christ. Weatherford and Mercer make a strong team for talks to college men.

What Walter Camp Says.

"I wonder if many in the North know that 'Doggie' Trenchard, the old Princeton end and Captain, is head coach down there in North Carolina. Speaking of reminiscences, suggests that star, Hunter Carpenter, the North Carolina halfback, who, through that section of the country, cut such a wide swath along about 1903-04-05. Surely there have been some great players down there."—New York Herald.

Little, Chief Marshal.

The Junior class has elected the following Marshalls for commencement: R. E. Little won the position of chief over P. Woolcott and Billy Huske. The six assistants in the order of their election are B. L. Field, J. S. Bryan, P. Woolcott, C. E. Ervin, O. C. Nance and R. G. Fitzgerald.

Smack Oates Ball Manager.

The Senior class elected the following Commencement Ball Managers: Smack Oates, Chief Ball Manager, Lenoir Chambers, G. V. Strong, John Cansler, W. C. Lord. From the Junior class the two Assistants are Zack Whitaker and W. P. Fuller.

Rhodes Scholarship Awarded.

The Rhodes Scholarship for North Carolina has been awarded to Paul A. Hubbel, a Wake Forest graduate, now teaching at Mars Hill. The awarding committee was composed of State Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y. Joyner, Chief Justice Walter Clark, and President Graham. K. C. Royall, '14, passed his examinations, but lost out in the final award.

Tommy Hughes, '13 is spending a few days this week on the Hill giving an extensive exhibit of samples for men's clothing. Incidentally he has again visited the gymnasium where he made such an enviable record as an acrobat. Tommy is a wearer of the N. C.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION IS OVER SIX THOUSAND DOLLARS IN DEBT

Increase of About $1200 Over Last Years Deficit. Made Money on Games.

The athletic council has taken a decided step with regard to the managers of the Varsity teams. The managers are to receive monogrammed sweaters similar to those given the members of their respective teams, save that the managers' sweaters will have a small "m" on the left side near the monogram.

This is in accord with the custom at various other institutions and seems to give something for which a manager can work. It designates a man who has been manager and gives him a certain prestige, which it is only fair that he should have.

The meetings of the council have been frequent and stormy over the football subject. They seem righteously wrought up over the extravagances of the past season. Nothing definite has been done about the matter as yet.

Games	Loss	Gain
Wake Forest at Chapel Hill	$ 125.00
Va. Medical College at Chapel Hill	200.00
Davidson at Greensboro	75.00
U. S. C. at Columbia	65.00
V. P. I. at Winston-Salem	65.00
U. of Georgia at Athens
Washington & Lee at Lynchburg	24.00
Wake Forest at Durham		65.00
U. of Virginia at Richmond		2300.00
	$ 554.00	$2355.00

Indebtedness Sept. 1, 1913	$ 4650.00
Equipment of Team	1200.00
Training Table	577.00
Woolen, Salary from June	100.00
McLendon, Salary from June	150.00
Coach Wilson, expenses	95.00
Coach Wilson, Salary	900.00
Coach Pendleton, expenses	79.00
Coach Pendleton, Salary	900.00
Coach Bluethenthal, expenses	44.00
Coach Cartmel, 1/2 years Salary	1000.00
Expenses High School Teams	300.00
Total Expenditures and Indebtedness	$ 10,549.00
Received from Registration	1,955.00
	$ 4,420.00

Present Liabilities $ 6,320.00

The Athletic Association still has $974.00 credit with the Alumni committee over and above the $1000.00 which it promised to pay for coaches. This report does not include Spring registration fees.

BASE BALL SCHEDULE 1914.

- March 13.—Oak Ridge at Chapel Hill.
- " 23.—Wake Forest at Chapel Hill.
- " 26.—William & Mary at Chapel Hill (Pending).
- " 27.—West Va. Wesleyan College at Chapel Hill.
- " 28.—Univ. of Vermont at Chapel Hill.
- " 31.—Amherst at Chapel Hill.
- April 1.—Amherst at Chapel Hill.
- " 2.—Hampden-Sidney at Chapel Hill.
- " 7.—Wake Forest at Wake Forest.
- " 9.—Penn. State at Chapel Hill.
- " 11.—Wake Forest at Raleigh.
- " 13.—Guilford at Greensboro. (Easter Monday)
- " 14.—West Va. University at Chapel Hill.
- " 15.—Washington & Lee at Chapel Hill.
- " 18.—Virginia at Durham.
- " 20.—Virginia at Greensboro.
- " 21.—Davidson at Charlotte.
- " 25.—Virginia at Charlottesville.
- " 27.—V. M. I. at Lexington.
- " 28.—Catholic University at Washington.
- " 29.—Navy at Annapolis.
- " 30.—Princeton at Princeton.
- May 2.—University of Georgia at Chapel Hill.

UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

- September 26: Richmond College at Chapel Hill.
- October 3: Virginia Medical College at Chapel Hill
- October 12: University of South Carolina at Chapel Hill.
- October 17: University of Georgia at Atlanta.
- October 24: Vanderbilt University at Nashville.
- October 31: Wake Forest College at Raleigh.
- November 7: Virginia Military Institute at Charlotte.
- November 14: Davidson at Winston-Salem.
- November 26: University of Virginia at Richmond.