A Carolina Cottage at Black Mountain.
Our Sister College, the State Normal, has challenged the University to unite with it and make up enough money to build a Carolina cottage at Black Mountain. At Black Mountain is situated the Robt. E. Lee Hall and other buildings, comprising the Capitol, so to speak, of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. organizations of the South. Each year representatives of these organizations in the various colleges of the South gather together and with able instructors, study the problems of these organizations. Last year eleven states sent representatives amounting to a total number of 2100 students.

The great difficulty now at Black Mountain is the lack of sufficient buildings to accommodate the representatives that each year go there. To remedy this condition the Southern Colleges have taken it upon themselves to unite two together and build cottages. Washington and Lee has united with Randolph-Macon, Queen's with Davidson and so on. The Normal has asked the University to unite with it and build a Carolina Cottage to be used by these two colleges at their respective conventions. The University Y. M. C. A. immediately accepted the invitation and a successful campaign is now being waged to raise $550, half the cost of the cottage.

Law Classes Elect Officers.

For the first time the two law classes of the law school have organized and elected officers separately. The senior class officers are as follows:

- J. M. Turbyfill, President.
- M. T. Ham, Vice-President
- M. T. Spears, Secretary and Treasurer.
- B. C. Trotter, Member of Student Council.
- Doggie Trenchard, Member of Greater Council.

There are 35 in the senior law class with 15 candidates for LL. B. degrees, the largest number that has ever been candidates for law degrees.

The junior law class officers are:

- Oscar Leach President.
- B. F. Aycock, Vice-President.
- C. L. Coggin, Secretary and Treasurer.
- "Ninety Six", Orator.

There are 41 members in the class, which is a material increase over last year.

Address by Dean Cranford.

Dean W. I. Cranford of Trinity College will deliver an address in Gerrard Hall Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock. The occasion of this address is the annual Bible Study Rally of the Young Men's Christian Association. Dr Cranford is a speaker of reputation and power. His theme will be The College Man and the Bible. He has a strong message for college men.

Hugh Hester, Manager Junior Football Team.

The Juniors met Tuesday and elected Hugh Hester manager for the class football team. Work in earnest on the class teams will be begun Monday after the coaches will have decided on which men to retain on the varsity field. A considerable number of class men are now on the varsity field and are doing excellent work.

Richmond College here Saturday.

Concluded from first page

Tandy will likely hold his position at centre, but in case he should be removed during the game Pritchett or Higgins will be there ready with the goods also. Tandy shows up well and will very likely make even a greater record than he did last year. With his left hoof he kicks the best drop kicks and field goals of any man on the field. He can punt very well too and in an emergency can be shifted for the service of kicking. He will likely be depended on for the goal kicking, for he is accurate in his shots and makes better distance than any other kicker. Tandy is always there on the defense and can break up plays better than any other linesman.

Foust will likely start the game at right guard but is not expected to stay in long. Big Jones is one of the steadiest workers on the field and the play that gets by him will certainly be some play. He will take the position at guard in the absence of Foust. He is one of the biggest men on the field and has the strength of any of them.

At left guard Cowell will be found working in his usual steady style. Last year Cowell gave his opponent a hot time all during his stay in the game and is counted on for better work this year. Fatty has full control of all his two hundred pounds and is a mainstay there next to Tandy. Price, Proctor, Nelson, and Burgess are out for this position, and will likely be given a trial if the score of the game will permit a new man going in this important position.

Right tackle is still a question to be decided. Johnnie Jones is showing up very well, and so are Gay, Hambly, and Tennant. This is one of the positions open for a new man and the coaches are undecided yet. Jones will likely start.

Ramsay at left tackle may be counted a fixture. Last year Ramsay's record was sensational and this year with more experience he will tear up things.

Homewood has played two years at right end with a remarkable record and will be there with his hard tackle again this year. Greater things are expected of him. Love is a substitute for right end.

There are many fighting for the position at left end vacant because of the absence of Huske. Grimsley of last year's scrubs will most likely start, but there is a possibility that Nicholson who played two years ago will be started. Bourne and Williamson are also showing up well.

At quarter Allen will most likely start with the team. Bridges is doing better work though and will surely get a chance. He drew the first applause from the spectators in Tuesday's scrimmage by making a long end run through a broken field. Both Allen and Bridges pass well but Bridges is much the better. Valley is also out for the position.

Captain Tayloe will start at left half. Tayloe has not been working so hard lately but in the little fight Tuesday afternoon he made some very good runs. Bob Burnette is back with the old pep and will serve as a good substitute if Capt. Dave is taken out.

Meb Long will likely get in the game at half also. Pope and Black are working hard for this position.

Walter Fuller, famous for his long run against Virginia last year, will be the hardest man to beat out for his position. He is faster than ever and is remarkable in his handling of the ball in making and receiving passes. As an open field runner he is about our best. He will start at half. Hines and Reid will be likely substitutes. Hines is fast and has made some dashing long runs with the ball and in Tuesday's scrimmage scored a touchdown on the varsity by a long run around left end. Ed Reid plunges the line in fine style. It is a question yet whether to play him at full back or half when he is needed.

Ervin will be the probable starter at full back. Parker will undoubtedly get in the game at this position too. Both are good men from last year's team.

There are other players yet in reserve who may be called to action. The squad has not been thinned out yet. Head Coach Trenchard says that absolute fairness in all cases will be shown and that as soon as a new man shows better ability than the old one he will get the job.

The Satyrs Initiate.

John Calhoun Busby '13, now of the Harvard Law School was Monday night initiated into the Dramatic Order of Satyrs. Busby was Manager of the Dramatic Club during his senior year here and carried the Club through a successful year with "What Happened to Jones." He left Tuesday night for Harvard.

Earn $500

for next year's expenses

The man who earns his own way through college has accomplished something to be proud of. He has built strength into his character and added something to his experience that must be of value to him in after life. We want to help one of these energetic, self-reliant fellows to earn his own way next year. So we are going to pay $500 in gold to the student who prepares and sends to us the best original ad for Fatima Cigarettes before June 1, 1915.

Any student of any college may compete for this $500

There are no restrictions, whatever, no strings of any kind on this offer, other than this—every contestant must be a regularly enrolled student in an American College. We want a student—not a professional ad writer—to benefit from this offer.

Three prominent business men, whose names will be announced later, will act as judges.

$5 for every ad published

$500 for the best one submitted

The $500 will be awarded June 1, 1915. In the meantime, some of the ads submitted will be published each month in college publications, together with the name and photograph of the writer—provided the writer will give permission for such publication.

For each ad so published we will pay the writer $5. But, the publication of any ad must not be taken to signify that it stands any better chance to win the $500 than the ads that are not published.

Those who try to earn this $500 should remember that the supreme test of any advertisement is its selling power. Whether your ad consists of only ten words or runs to a thousand—it should be interesting, truthful, convincing—it should give to the reader the buying impulse. To write such advertisements that will pass the test of performance, the writer must believe in the product he is writing about.
