

INDIA IS DESCRIBED BY MR. A. C. HARTE

Y. M. A. C. Worker Tells of Religious Conditions in India.

PLEA OF INDIA'S MILLIONS

India and her challenge to the western world was the subject on which A. C. Harte, leader of the Student Movement in India, spoke to the students of Carolina in Gerrard Hall last Friday night.

Mr. Harte is a pleasing speaker and holds his audience with him at all times. His talk was a revelation to all who heard it. Few, if anyone, here had ever thought of India as she is—one of the greatest undeveloped countries in the world. The natural beauty of the country, the resources, the people, the condition in which the country is today—all were discussed in a most interesting way.

Mr. Harte told his hearers of India's needs, of the avidity with which her people seize upon everything "European". These people cry for aid, they want light. The question raised was: "Are we to allow the student movement now on foot in India to die on account of a lack of funds caused by the great struggle in Europe?"

Too much cannot be said of Mr. Harte and his appeal. It was the general conclusion that he should have been a poet, since few poets surpass him in his choice of words and in the beauty of his descriptions.

Mr. Stacy Talks at Y. M. C. A.

Dean Stacy led the Tuesday night meeting at the Y. M. C. A. on the subject of "The Upward Climb". He made the statement that the thing we all admired is the skill with which a hard task is performed, and that the Upward Climb consists in always making an effort to perform that task more skillfully than anyone else. This Upward Climb lies right in front of our door and we have only to take advantage of it. There are two roads in life, one characterized by despondency and a dmittance of defeat, while the other is characterized by using of failure as a stepping stone to success. The latter is the road of the real Upward Climb. He illustrated the difficulties one must overcome along the road of the Upward Climb by recounting the adventures of David Lowry Swain and Charles D. McIver along that road and showed by telling of the fame they had acquired in that manner to what heights one may rise.

Easy for Vanderbilt.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 20—Vanderbilt had little trouble in defeating the light Central of Kentucky football team here today, 59 to 0. Fullback Coleman, of the visiting team, suffered concussion of the brain and tonight his condition is regarded as serious. —Raleigh News and Observer.

CAROLINA BOYS MARCH THROUGH GEORGIA

The Tune is 41 to 6—The Tar Heels Secure a Touchdown in the First Seventy-Five Seconds of the Play

GEORGIANS SAY THAT CAROLINA HAS BEST TEAM IN THE SOUTH

TAYLOE AND TANDY STAR

College Watches and Cheers as Report of Game Comes in.

About fifty years ago one General Sherman with an army of blue coated men marched through Georgia. Last Saturday a squad of men led by Head Coach Trenchard and Capt. Tayloe, both marched and ran through Georgia. In the sixties the march was attended by slaughter and devastation of human life; last Saturday the march was also accompanied by slaughter and devastation—the object being this time the destruction of Georgia's hopes for a Southern championship in football. The score was Carolina 41, Georgia 6.

In the words of Dick Jemison, Dope artist of the Atlanta Constitution, "what it takes to possess a real football machine the University of North Carolina seems to have it." From the sound of Referee Brooks' whistle until it sounded after sixty minutes of hard play, Carolina outplayed the Georgia eleven. At no time did Georgia have a show.

Note the following, also from Jemison:

"Saturday Carolina steam rolled over the University of Georgia football eleven at Grant Field, piling up point after point and showing an attack that was bewildering, and a defense that was well nigh impregnable.

The Tar Heels have a real football team. There is no getting away from that fact. They have a machine that looks far superior to any football team that has performed in Atlanta in the past six or seven years.

The forwards are heavy, strong, experienced, and knows how to charge. Their backs are fleet footed, can side step, stiff arm, dodge, and have plenty of drive when they hammer into the line. Their tackling was fierce and deadly. When they fastened their lunch hooks on a Georgia player, he stopped."

The work of Capt. Tayloe at left half and of Tandy at center stood head and shoulders above all other men on the field.

The Atlanta Constitution further says:

"We nominate here and now, both of these men for all-Southern places at left half and center respectively.

Tandy is a wonderfully developed man, strong as a bull and knows football. He opened up yawning holes in the Georgia line for his backs to drive through and on the defensive he ploughed through time after time and nail his man. His work is clean cut and playing right in the middle of twenty-one men he showed them all up by his wonderful work."

And further:

"No better back has ever performed on a local field than this fellow Tayloe. He can side step as well as Lewie Hardage ever did. He is as fleet footed as Kirk Newell, he can stiff arm like Owlesy, and can hammer the line like the latter.

Tayloe picks his opening, keeps his feet well and plunges through a space as big as a mouse, literally hammering his way along. He shook off tackler after tackler all through the game.

Several times he got away for long gains, dodging, side stepping, and stiff arming and giving local fans the best exhibition of backfield work it has ever been their pleasure to witness, until even the most loyal partisan supporter climbed to his hind legs, doffed his kelly, and gave the fleet footed back his due in applause."

Winston's tackling was superb. Homewood played his usual smashing game. Parker and Reid did well while Fuller gained consistently. Ramsay was in almost every play. In short, the whole team played great ball; and Carolina is behind them.

For Georgia Paddock and Logan played great ball. Paddock made nearly all the gains Ga. made. Between the two, they got every tackle that was made by Georgia.

Prof. Noble's Rally Day came off last Friday here in Chapel Hill in spite of the threatening weather which materially decreased the expected attendance. The program was to have started with an address by Dean Stacy but because there were so few present at the opening of the exercises it was postponed until after dinner when Mr. Stacy made his delayed speech of welcome. From 10:30 to 12:30 two stereopticon lectures on the "Public Schools of the West" and on "How Other People Keep up their Public Roads" were given in Gerrard Hall. At 12:30 there were free moving pictures at the Pickwick on "Farming With Dynamite." From 10:30 on there was a domestic science demonstration in the Peabody Building. After dinner there was a joint meeting of the Sunday schools in Gerrard Hall where five minute speeches were heard from Dr. Pratt, Prof. Branson, Mrs. Pegram, and Mrs. Hentley. The Sunday schools closed the exercise with a singing contest; Clark Chapel, Antioch, and Demas tied for first place.
