

THE TAR HEEL

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

VOL. 23

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, CHAPEL HILL, N. C., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1914

NO. 14

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

Asheville Loses To Raleigh By a Decisive Score

The Raleigh Highs came, played, and won. Thanks to the untiring efforts of Mr. E. R. Rankin and Coach Trenchard the State High School Championship game was played here last Saturday. The result that Raleigh won from Asheville by the score of 117 to 0.

Asheville, by virtue of clean cut victories over the High School elevens of western North Carolina and eastern Tennessee High Schools, won the championship of western North Carolina and came here to play with Raleigh, the champions of eastern North Carolina.

Raleigh had defeated every High School eleven of any importance in the east and also the John Marshall eleven at Richmond.

Raleigh outweighed her opponents 12 pounds to the man and as a result, the champions of 1913 ploughed through the Asheville line at will. Raleigh showed good team work, and did not lack the drive. Johnson ran his team well, was in every play, and whenever his turn came to carry the ball, he usually got away for long gains. He is undoubtedly the best High School quarterback that has played football in the state since the days of Bill Coffin, formerly of Greensboro, now one of the stars of the United States Military Academy. Nor does that retract, in any way, from the prowess of his teammates. Champin, Mills, and Boven are all stars. Each man runs well with the ball and hits the line like a triphammer. Another feature of the work of this backfield is its interference for the man carrying the ball. Every player hits his man and does it effectively.

Supporting, or rather aiding, this backfield is a heavy, strong, line which always opens up a hole for the backs, and on the offensive, seldom allows an opponent to slip through. As a whole, the team is experienced and shows the result of good coaching. Guy Phillips, '13, certainly has produced one of the best high school football teams ever seen in the state.

On the other hand, the Asheville team, though beaten decisively, fought to the last. They were outweighed and outgeneraled, but not outfought. Randolph, Asheville's quarter-back, was the star of his team. He played hard at all times, tackled well, and showed real football ability. It was evident that the Asheville team lacked both experience and training.

Notwithstanding the decisive score, the game was a success both financially and otherwise. According to Mr. Rankin, the proceeds were sufficient to pay expenses and to start a fund towards the State High School Basketball Championship.

In his efforts to sell tickets, Mr. Rankin was assisted by the

GREAT BARGAINS OFFERED

Would Be Buyers of Books Have Opportunity

"A complete edition of Shakespeare, silk binding, gold leaf, the only unpurged edition sold in the State, no notes, just as Shakespeare wrote it. Shakespeare said, 'To thine own self be true, and then it follows like the night the day, thou canst not to any man be false.' What am I offered? Fifty cents. Only fifty cents for a book costing three dollars. Who'll give me seventy-five? Sixty I'm offered, seventy-five. Who'll make it a dollar? Eighty I'm offered, a dollar, a dollar ten. Going for a dollar ten. Am I offered a dollar twenty? Going for a dollar ten, once; going for a dollar ten, twice; a dollar ten gets this valuable book."

Yesterday afternoon just as the mail was put up, a vender of books was to be seen standing on his goodsboxes near Pendergraph's stand, disposing of his wares to the highest bidder. His stock, which was diversified, to say the least, varied from "Les Miserables" to "Hell's Commerce or What I Know About Rum" and back again through "A Favorite Cook Book". A considerable crowd had gathered around the purveyor of literature to hear him laud his wares, and possibly invest a stray "two bits" in some bargain, when the village Constable approached.

"You will have to pay ten dollars tax if you sell those books."

"Well, I'll close up shop, Chief, there's not that much in it."

So Apple Jack is again the village autocrat.

A Community Christmas Tree.

Chapel Hill is to celebrate Christmas this year by having a community Christmas tree. This plan has been tried in many towns of the South and West in the last year or two and has proved a decided innovation. The exercises will be held on Christmas Eve on the campus between the Battle Dormitory and the University Inn.

Greater Council and it is due in large measure to the untiring efforts of Coach Trenchard and the members of the Greater Council that a surplus now exists instead of deficit.

BASKETBALL IS BEGUN

First Game Is Played Against Durham Y. M. C. A.

With only one week of practice and with only one regular player in the line up, Carolina's basketball team lost the first game of the season Saturday night. Carolina did not play in anything like her proper form, and many times easy chances at goals were missed.

The absence of Johnson from the line up was felt keenly. Tandy, at center, was out of the game on account of sickness; Tennant and Andrews, guards, were away with the Glee Club. With the regular team, Durham would have had less show, and as it was, they had to fight for their victory.

The first half started off with a goal for the Y. M. C. A. Carolina evened up and each team then had a chance at goal on foul. Durham then took the lead and kept it during the entire game. The first half ended with the score 12 to 7 in favor of Durham.

In the second half, Homewood, of football fame, was substituted for Davis at guard, and immediately began to liven things up. Homewood seemed to put new spirit in the team and the game was much livelier toward the end. But the lead secured by Durham was too great, and the game ended with the final score of 22 to 14.

Capt. Long showed his old time form in passing, but was weak in shooting goals. Practice is all he needs. Lochran at the other forward and Holding at center played well for new men. Fuller, Davis, and Homewood at guards did some good work but were unable to hold the fast Y. M. C. A. forwards in check. For the visitors, Carrington and Clay did the best work.

The line up of the teams Saturday night was:

Carolina	Durham Y. M. C. A.
Long (Capt.)	Clay
	Right forward
Lochran	Holcomb
	Left Forward
Holding	Reed (Capt.)
	Center
Fuller	Carrington
	Right Guard
Davis-Homewood	Murray
	Left Guard

Substitutes: Homewood for Davis; Mangum for Murray.

Field goals: Long 2, Holding 3, Clay 3, Holcomb 2, Mangum 2.

Foul goals: Long 4, Holcomb 4.

THE HIGH SCHOOL DEBATE

Question of Ship Subsidy to Be Discussed.

It will be especially gratifying to all those interested in debating to know that an even larger number of High Schools have entered the High School Debating Union this year than did last year. Last year 150 schools entered, with approximately 1,100 contestants. It will be remembered that some 200 of these contestants came up here to Chapel Hill to compete in the finals. This year 225 schools have entered with approximately 1,600 contestants. That will make some 300 who will come up here in the spring to enliven campus life. Out of the hundred counties in this debate.

The Debating Union has arranged so that about 50,000 will hear the debate on this pertinent question, which is as follows: Resolved, that the United States should adopt the policy of subsidizing its Merchant Marine engaged in foreign trade. Last year about 30,000 people heard the debate on the question of the initiative and referendum.

Since the query for the Sophomore debate is also that of subsidy, the debate will be heard by quite a number of students from the neighboring High Schools who wish to get points for their debate. Mr. A. H. Wolfe and Mr. P. H. Gwyn of '10 and '12 respectively, teachers in the Durham High School, will bring the contestants from that place over to hear the debate. Among the contestants are several girls.

The Chapel Hill High School has entered the debate this year for the first time. Among the contestants is one Oley Gooch. The two other High Schools with which Chapel Hill has to debate are Graham and Burlington.

Let Your Wit Be Unconfined

The Yackety Yack Editors invite every student to contribute to the humor department of the annual. A box will be posted in the Alumni Building for the reception of jokes, limericks, and other things of a humorous nature which might do for publication. Boxes have already been posted in the Alumni Building into which every student is requested to put his statistics as soon as possible.

DURHAM IS AGAIN VICTOR

Carolina Loses Second Basketball Game.

The Tar Heel basketball squad journeyed over to Durham last night to meet the Y. M. C. A. team, and were defeated 44 to 25. Although the team was strengthened by the presence of Andrews at forward, they were outclassed. The team did not play in anything like the form they are capable of. Holding at center has not yet developed as it was hoped he would. Andrews was the only man on the team who featured for Carolina. Holcomb was the star for the Y. M. C. A., having thrown seven field goals and eight fouls.

Line-up:
Carolina Durham Y. M. C. A.
Long (Capt.) Clay
Right forward
Andrews Holcomb
Left forward
Holding Reed (Capt.)
Center
Tennent Carrington
Right guard
Fuller and Homewood Murray
and Mangum
Left guard

Summary: Field goals; Clay 5, Holcomb 7, Reed 3, Carrington 1, Murray 2, Andrews 3, Long 1, Holding 2, Tennent 2, Homewood 1.

Fouls: Holcomb 8, Long 3.

SOPHS WIN FROM FRESHMEN

Class Basketball Season Inaugurated Tuesday by Sophomore Victory.

Class basketball began Tuesday night when the Sophomores won from the Freshmen 15 to 14. The game was close and hotly contested all the time. Although the 1917 team showed several flashes of form, they were weak in team work. The Freshmen played well and threatened to capture the game several times. Tennent at forward was one of the fastest men on the floor. For the Sophomores, Cowell and Watkins excelled, the former scoring most of the points for his team.

Line-up:
Sophs Freshmen
Cowell r. f. Tennent
Squires l. f. McClamrock
Watkins center Perry
Kendrick r. g. Williams
Harrell, Hoover l. g. Holding

MANAGERS ARE ELECTED

Men Chosen Who Are to Run Financial Side of Different Sports

Frank W. Norris, of Jacksonville, Florida, was elected Student Manager of the 1915 Varsity Football Team.

J. M. Coleman, of Asheville, and E. L. Mackie, of Yadkinville, were elected Assistant Managers.

John H. Jones, of New Bern, and J. F. Hackler, of Sparta, were elected Assistant Managers of the Varsity Track Team. Both are Juniors this year.

J. M. Parker, of Bradentown, Florida, a Junior was elected Vice-President of the Athletic Association.

NEW YEAR THOUGHTS

- I will not drink (too much.)
- I will not smoke (all the time.)
- I will not lose my temper (too often.)
- I will not owe my tailor (too long.)
- I will not speak ill of others (too strongly.)
- I will not break any of these resolutions (too soon.)

—Eddie Lyons in Photoplay Magazine.