UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, CHAPEL HILL, N. C., THURSDAY, JANUARY 14,

CAROLINA AGAINST ELON HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL

Game Results in Victory for the University

In a spirited contest, made rough by both teams, Carolina's fast quintette defeated Elon College Monday night by the score of 15 to 9. The game was valiantly contested throughout and was featured by rough playing. The score would have been much larger, perhaps, if so much time had not been taken up in the throwing of fouls and toss ups.

Carolina's team was greatly strengthened by the addition of Tandy and Johnson. With these two men added, Carolina ought to have the best team in the State.

The Elon team fought hard for a victory, but was outplayed.

An interesting feature of the game was the fact that the two teams are being coached by brothers, Bob Doak performing for Elon, and Chick being Carolina's coach.

The University team goes to Raleigh Saturday night where it is to meet the Wake Forest aggregation. Needless to say, they expect to come back with a victory.

Lineup:
 CAROLINA Elon
 Andrews Moorefield
 R F
 Long (Capt) Massey
 L F
 Tandy McCauley
 C
 Tennent Bradford
 R G
 Johnson Morgan
 L G

Summary: Field goals, Long 3, Tandy 2, Moorefield 2, Bradford 1. Fouls, Long 5 out of 9, McCauley 3 out of 19 chances.

Referee, Kluttz.

The University News Letter

Although The University News Letter is not circulated so widely around the University as the other college publications, and for that reason is not familiar to the students, its effect throughout the State is surprising. It is published weekly by the Bureau of Extension and on the editorial board are Messrs. E. C. Branson, J. G. deR. Hamilton, L. R. Wilson, Z. V. Judd, and S. R. Winiers. The most recent issue, which is a fair sample, contains Carolina Club Notes, an outline for a debate on child labor, a letter from the University School of Education, notes about the State, and about the University. It is a single sheet, printed on one side, thirteen by twenty inches. In that small space, however is contained some valuable information.

The Juniors will meet in chapel tomorrow afternoon at 2:10 to elect commencement marshals.

Henry G. Harper Jr., of Charlotte N. C., has recently been initiated into the Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity.

The Final Game Will Be Played Here in March

In addition to the high school football, baseball, track, and debating contests, a high school basketball contest has been instituted this year. The rules governing the contest are practically the same as those under which the other series were held. The governing committee suggests that the games be played under the Y. M. C. A. rules, but if the contending teams agree upon the inter-collegiate rules, the committee has no objection. Any basketball team representing a high school, city or rural, that shall have played and won up to and including Feb. 20th, 1915, as many as three games from teams representing schools of similar rank and shall have lost none, shall be eligible to enter the preliminary contest, provided the manager shall by Feb. 23d notify the committee of his desire to enter the contest and shall send a record of games played. The committee at the University is composed of N. W. Walker, Chairman; E. R. Rankin, Secretary; T. G. Trenchard; C. E. Ervin, and G. W. Eutsler.

Some of the teams that have already signified their intention to enter the contest are: in the East, Raleigh, Durham, Goldsboro, Kinston, Newbern, Wilmington, Enfield, Jonesboro, Fayetteville, Wakelon, Selma, and Wilson; in the West, Chapel Hill, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, Salisbury, Lexington, Belmont, Asheville, Statesville, Charlotte, Lenoir, Monroe, and Jamestown. The final game will be played in Chapel Hill, probably sometime during the first week of March.

It is difficult to estimate the good results that are being accomplished by these high school contests. They constitute a powerful agency for the upbuilding of debating and sportsmanship in the high schools throughout the state.

Mt Mitchell Memorial

The latest word in the Mt. Mitchell discussions seems to be to the effect that the spoiling of the memorial was due to the wind and not to dynamite, as was first suggested. The matter is of interest to the University since the monument was erected by Carolina Alumni to Elisha Mitchell, a member of the University faculty and the explorer of the mountain. The memorial is to be replaced.

In Rank With The First

The University News Letter says that despite the fact that the University of North Carolina received for support less than any southern University last year, it was ranked by the Federal Bureau of Education in 1912 in the first rank of American universities as a whole—along with Vanderbilt, Virginia, and Texas in the South.

WALTER FULLER MARRIED STATE HIGH SCHOOL TEAM

Prominent College Man Weds Miss Fredda Burden.

No greater surprise has come recently to the students of the University than the news that Miss Fredda Burden, of Aulander, North Carolina, had been married to Mr. Walter P. Fuller, Jr. The rumor to this effect, which began sit course here the first day of registration, persisted doubtfully until substantiated the following day by a Bradentown, Florida, paper. The statement of that publication was to the effect that Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Fuller, Jr., who had been quietly married on December 22 at Aulander, North Carolina, had arrived at Bradentown and were being congratulated. Details of the ceremony are not to be obtained.

To recite the story of Walter Fuller's college career is unnecessary. To say that he has always taken part in every college activity and succeeded in each one, is likewise superfluous. Nor is it necessary to add that he is everywhere being congratulated upon his latest good fortune.

MR. MOTT IS COMING

President Wilson thinks an Introduction Unnecessary for so Noted a Man.

The following signed, self explanatory letter was received today by Francis Clarkson.

The White House
 Washington
 January 13, 1915

My dear Mr. Clarkson:

I did not know that Doctor Mott needed introduction anywhere. There is no man of greater force or influence now living in the great field in which the spiritual forces of the world are organized. Those that do not hear him miss coming into contact with one of the great influences of our time.

Cordially and sincerely yours,
 WOODROW WILSON

Mr. Francis O. Clarkson,
 Young Men's Christian Association,
 Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

Query for Debate Decided.

Resolved, that the policy of Colonial Expansion is desirable for the modern state, is the query decided upon for the triangular debate between Johns Hopkins, Virginia and North Carolina. This query was proposed by Johns Hopkins and is especially timely on account of the present conditions in Europe. The query submitted by Carolina received second place among the three queries submitted.

The final debate will be held April 24, one week later than that of last year. It has not yet been determined which sides Carolina will debate against Virginia and Hopkins.

Didn't somebody say that Chapel Hill was to have a new postoffice?

Coach Kluttz Selects Season's Best Players

This All State Scholastic Football team is picked from the men seen in action in a few games and from information furnished by coaches of other teams and witnesses of games in different parts of the state. The Raleigh team was in a class above all others in eastern Carolina, and in the final championship game with Asheville demonstrated that the football in this section was of a higher grade than that in the West this last season. Wilmington is the only other team in the State deserving mention, and in every game except that with Raleigh outclassed their opponents. One would not be far wrong in selecting the eleven members of the Raleigh team for the Mythical Eleven, but there were a few men from the other teams who would put more strength into this combination.

For center—Tyree of Raleigh was best. He was the strength of his team in the middle of the line, opening holes for his backs, and playing a strong defense.

Guards—Jones of Washington and Rhodes of Wilmington are given the places.

Tackles—The Raleigh tackles, Whitaker and Weathers, were the strongest men in their defense, and over them most of the offensive work was done. Handy of Wilmington, Nutler of Charlotte, and Johnston of Huntersville were all good tackles.

Ends—Silverman, Wilmington, was the strongest end this season. His forward pass work was of a high order. The other end is given to Shepherd of Wilmington, who played quarterback most of the season, but his tackling and defensive work in general, together with his ability in the forward pass game and broken field running gives him the place.

Quarterback—Johnston of Raleigh was a good field general, an excellent broken field runner, and sure with the forward pass. Shepherd, Wilmington, ran him a close second, and he cannot be kept off the team.

Captain—Johnston gets the place.

Fullback—Asheville showed only one man on their team. This was Randolph. He was the best defensive back seen this year, and he was a powerful line plunger.

Halfbacks—Bowen, Raleigh, is moved from Full to Half, and Champion of the same team is selected as his running mate. This pair, on running interference, skirting the ends, and going through the line had no equals. Gurley of Goldsboro, Bagby of Wilmington, E Weston and Causey of Greensboro deserve honorable mention in the backfield.

The winning short story in the Magazine Short Story Contest has not as yet been decided upon. The announcement will be made in the next issue of the magazine.
