BELONGS TO UNIVERSITY

Commons Hall Given to University By Owners

Old Commons Hall, built primarily for a ball room in 1885 and later used as a gymnasium and dining hall, will soon be deeded to the University, according to the decision of the stockholders of the University Gymnasium Association in session here last week. The papers have not been signed yet but that is a mere matter of form that will be carried out later.

Back in 1885 a number of young men, students of the University, desired to have dancing at the college. The then "modern dancing" was however prohibited by the faculty regulations. Consequently they formed an association and purchased the building now known as Commons Hall. As Commons was rented to the University for a gymnasium except when the dances were going on, these students called their organization the gymnasium association. The building has been in the unbroken possession of the association ever since.

At a meeting held last week in the office of Dr. R. H. Lewis, President of the Association, there were present besides Dr. Lewis, Dr. K. P. Battle, Dr. F. P. Venable and Mr. Jos. P. Cheshire, Jr. Votes from those present and from the absent stockholders by proxy carried the motion to convey the building to the University.

QUERY FOR HIGH SCHOOLS

"The U. S. Should Greatly Enlarge Its Navy

The query which will be discussed this year by the schools having membership in the High School Debating Union of North Carolinians: "Resolved, That the United States should adopt the policy of greatly enlarging its Navy."

Every secondary and high school in the state is invited to become a member of the Union and participate in the contest of 1916. Every school that enters will, as in the past, be grouped with two others for a triangular debate, each school putting out two teams, one on the affirmative and the other on the negative. The schools winning both debates will be entitled to send their teams to the University to compete for the state championship and the Aycock Memorial Cup. The triangular debates will be held throughout the State the latter part of March and the final contest at the University early in April. The exact dates for these contests will be decided

IN MEMORIAM AD BUSTER

Official Dog of the University Taken Away By Owner

Buster has left the University. Every upper classman knows and feels the effects which his unfortunate departure will have upon the campus life of Carolina.

Last Friday at noon Mr. Dixon, the original owner of the dog decided to take him to the country. Every inch of the way to depot was rigorously contested by the unwilling dog.

It is supposed that Buster first made his appearance on the campus about 1907, but no one really knows when he became a factor in the life of this campus. At least eight classes have graduated from the University during his stay here and to each class he has become a pleasant memory. Twice he has been honored with his portrait in the Yackety-Yack, and hundreds of individuals have entered his picture in their memory books. He loved to mingle with the crowds at the post office, at chapel, on the sidelines, around the well. At every mass meeting he was present. At every football and baseball game his cheering voice was heard whether Carolina was winner or loser—only his hair was yellow. Buster was an institution on this campus.

A movement is on foot to petition the owner to return him either as a gift or as a purchase. The student body feels that the old faithful Buster belongs to the campus by ties that supersede the mere claims of personal ownership.

Since its inauguration three years ago by the literary societies and the Bureau of Extension of the University, the High School Debating Union has met with splendid success. Three comprehensive State-wide debates have been held and schools and communities alike have been benefited by them. Last spring the State-wide contest was participated in by 250 schools and 1000 student debaters, and it is a safe estimate that fully 50,000 people from first to last heard the discussions over the State on the question of subsidies for the merchant marine. The committee hopes that this year every school of secondary nature in the State will enroll in the Union for the discussion of the question of the enlargement of the United States Navy.

FIRE!!!

Soph's Cigarette Will Burn Tomorrow Night

On Friday night the Sophomore class of the University of North Carolina will have a "puncture"—beg pardon! a "blow out." For the past few days shipments of bananas from Alaska and tobacco from Germany have been mobilizing at Carrboro. Also that "sparkling stuf" from Richmond—you know, that W. J. Bryan Grape Juice—has been flowing into storage reservoirs, which will overflow Friday night. The silver chord will be loosed from around the cigarette bag, and the William Jennings ooze bottles will be "busted" at the punch bowl.

Come all ye Sophs who are weary and empty bel—(oh!) and thirsty and you will get unto yourselves hot air, dampness, and your money's worth.

Who? Sophs

Where? Y. M. C. A.

When? Friday, 9:30 P. M.
HOW MUCH??? $0.25 or 25 pennies.

Every week 7000 copies of the University News Letters are printed at the University Press and sent out all over the State.

CAROLINA WINS FROM CITADEL 14-7;

SHOWS LACK OF FORM AND "PEP"

Black and Townsend Were Carolina's Only Ground Gainers. Citadel Puts Up Spirited Fight.

Carolina's 14-7 victory over Citadel Saturday was a severe shock to Carolina supporters who had expected the University to win by at least six touchdowns. The hot weather, which seemed to give the South Carolinians "pep", made Carolina listless.

After a 40 yard run Townsend made Carolina's first touchdown in one minute and 45 seconds of play. Black made possible Carolina's other touchdown when he gained 17 yards on successive runs. Sheppard made Citadel's only touchdown on a forward pass five minutes after Carolina's first score.

Tandy began the game by booting the ball to Bolton, of Citadel, who was unable to hold it. Citadel gained 3 yards in the first rush but failed to advance in two succeeding attempts. Citadel kicked 25 yards to Long, who returned the ball 5 yards. Reid gained 4, following which Townsend, in a spectacular broken field run made the first touchdown of the season. The tally was made in 1 min. 45 sec. of play. Tandy kicked goal.

Tandy kicked off behind goal, and ball was brought out to 20 yard line. Citadel gained 4, 3, and 3 more for first down. Citadel advanced 5 and N. C. was penalized 5 for offside, making another first down. Bolton went 3 yards around left end, which was followed by 2 yards through center and 5 through tackle for first down. By steady small gains two more first downs were made. Tandy being hurt and Jones, J. substituted in the process. With the ball 12 yards from her goal, the Carolina line showed her first signs of life, as a result, the following two attempts netted only 1 yard each. At that moment the game cadets pulled off a successful pass from Weeks to Sheppard, making their touchdown within 5 minutes of Carolina's. Weeks kicked goal and tied the score.

Citadel kicked off to Ramsay who returned 2 yards. When Carolina gained only two yards in two attempts, it was decided to take the defensive, and Long made a beautiful punt of 70 yards to Weeks, who was downed in his tracks by Wright. Citadel gained 9 yards, was penalized 10, and kicked 10. Carolina made first down in two 5 yard rushes. Time up.

Second Quarter:

Reid made 5 through center. Tayloe made 3, and after two failures N. C. had to give up the pigskin only 5 yards from goal. Citadel kicked 30 yards and Long returned 20. Long went 8, Reid gained 1; Citadel recovered the ball when Dave Tayloe fumbled. Citadel kicked 30, Long returned 5, and Citadel was penalized 5. Long gained 4, Tayloe gained 1, and a successful pass, Long to Homewood netted 15 yards. Here such Carolina braves as were not already asleep dozed off, and Townsend lost 2 yards, Tayloe fumbled a pass from Long, Townsend failed to gain and Citadel took possession of the ball. Citadel kicked 30 yards, Townsend failed to advance, forward pass failed, and Long punted behind goal. Citadel took ball on
