U. N. C. DEFEATS WILLIAM AND MARY AND RICH. COLLEGE; LOSES TO BAPTISTS

Curry Pitches 1-Hit Game Against William and Mary; Carolina Slugs Richmond College Hard

Wilbur Curry's gilt edge pitching and Rudy Barnes' timely three-bagger in the seventh were the features of the game Wednesday in which Carolina defeated William and Mary 3 to 2. The game was one of the prettiest games staged in the local lot this season. Curry allowed only one hit and but for two or three bad bobbles by the infield would have held the visitors scoreless.

Garnett who did the twirling for William and Mary had Carolina guessing until the seventh when Barnes' three-bagger scored Zollicoffer who had gone to first on shortstop's error. Then Royster, batting for Love, drove a single into the right garden scoring Barnes.

The visitors scored first in the third. Zehnu singled and started to second; Lewis threw the ball to Patterson who dropped it and Zehnu kept going, scoring when Patterson threw the ball over Lewis' head. Again in the fifth Williams, who had reached first on Lewis' error, scored when Patterson let Hart's peg get by him, the ball going through Bailey in center field.

Carolina's third and last score came in the eighth when Patterson walked, advanced to second on Lewis' sacrifice, went to third when Hart was thrown out at first and scored on Zollicoffer's single.

Carolina 11, R. College 4

Carolina, by means of hard slugging, easily defeated Richmond college Tuesday on Emerson field by a score of 11 to 4. Patterson got a home run for Carolina, Barnes a triple, and Patterson, Hart, Zollicoffer, Massey, and Barnes secured doubles.

Ben Aycock twirled six innings for Carolina allowing only four hits and striking out seven; he was replaced in the seventh by Kinlaw. Barnes and Massey played star ball, each getting three runs. Liggan and Craven did excellent work for the Spiders.

Wake Forest 3; U. N. C. 0

Wake Forest won from Carolina 3 to 0, in Rocky Mount Thursday. The weather was cold and damp, but the game was warm and exciting. Carolina lost in the first two innings when the Baptists made three runs on six hits and a base on balls.

After the second inning both teams settled down and exceptional good pitching and fielding on both sides kept the home plate impregnable. The game was beautifully played, each team making only one error.

Ellis for Wake Forest allowed only four hits. Sams at short and Carlyle at second, with their sensational fielding, were two big factors in the Baptists' victory.

Captain Patterson secured two of Carolina's four hits. Barnes one and Massey one.

CAROLINA LOSES FIRST OF VIRGINIA SERIES

U. N. C. Nine Weakening in 8th, Loses 5-2

When Thurman, the big first baseman for Virginia, drove the ball high over the left field fence in the beginning of the eighth inning, Tar Heel supporters began to fear a Virginia victory in a game which had, up to this point, been decidedly Carolina's. For seven innings Carolina had held a lead of two runs allowing Virginia no score, but the eighth was fatal.

In the fourth inning Lewis, the first man up was passed by McCall and went to second on Hart's sacrifice. Zollicoffer smashed a hot drive through the pitcher and was safe at first, Lewis taking third. Zollie stole second while Strickley held the ball. Lewis scored on a perfectly executed squeeze play, Bailey being thrown out at first. On the second ball thrown, Zollie, who had taken third on the squeeze, electrified the crowd with a clean steal of home.

SPRING MUSICALE DELIGHTS

Miss Katherine Johnson's Singing Chief Feature of Program

Better than any star course of the kind the University audiences have been used to seeing and one of the most enjoyable programs rendered in Gerrard Hall this year was the spring musicale, last Monday night, featuring Miss Katherine Johnson of Raleigh. Miss Johnson, who will be remembered as having sung in "The Messiah," an oratorio sung at the Episcopal church last year, has a voice of excellent timber which never fails to win admiration. The combination of clear enunciation and a clearness of tone make hers a voice of a very beautiful quality. "The Angel's Serenade" by Braga, with violin obligato by Wm. Wright was excellently rendered. Miss Johnson's last number, a collection of four folk songs of different nations, was perhaps the most liked of all her numbers.

Miss Ferrell, of Raleigh also accompanied Miss Johnson. She was assisted in rendering the program by local talent. The audience was delighted with Mrs. P. H. Winston's rendition of "La

SHAKESPEREAN PAGEANT NEXT WEEK IS HIGH SCHOOL WEEK

Charlie Coggin to Play Falstaff. Other Roles Selected

The try-outs and rehearsals for the Shakespearean performance to be given May 8-9 have revealed some remarkable talent. Most of the principal roles have been selected, and it is expected that all the parts will be definitely settled on within the next week.

The Rural Merrymaking scene, based on the "Winter's Tale", with its shepherdesses, morris dancers and may poles promises from the picturesque standpoint to be one of the best parts of the program. Miss Mary Henderson will play Perdita, and Bruce Webb Prince Florizel. The Community Club and school children will take the part of the dancers and rural characters. Buck Wimberly promises to make a splendid Autolycus.

The casting of Charlie Coggin for the role of the merry old Falstaff was one of the happiest selections of the committee. Not that Charlie would be easily mistaken for the bluff old Knight companion of Prince Hal, but with the voice that he can assume and the costume for the part the audience may expect to see one of the best pieces of character acting ever done here by a student dramatic star. The part of Prince Hal, the royal friend of Jack Falstaff and who afterwards denounces his old companion of the tavern, will be played by Dr. J. M. Booker.

Rehearsals for the positions of "The Tempest" to be presented have also been held. Miss Gypsy Barton will appear as Miranda. Dr. Wm. Dey will be seen in the very difficult role of Prospero. Jim Capps has been cast for the role of Caliban.

PROF. WILLIAMS SPEAKS

Addresses Students Sunday on "The Philosophy of Jesus"

Sunday night, April 9th, at 7:30 Professor Horace Williams speaks in Gerrard Hall on "The Philosophy of Jesus". This is quite an event of the year and every thinking University man will avail himself of this real opportunity.

The addresses that Mr. Williams has made in the past have caused extensive comment and discussion, receiving popular approval. In these addresses Mr. Williams appeals to the scientist as well as the philosopher and puts his thoughts in terms equally intelligible to freshmen and seniors.
