AGENCY NORRIS CANDY THE REXALL STORE

Mrs. J.—Oh, John! That college boy found out why we couldn't get enough heat last year.

John—Well.

Mrs. J.—Yes, he started to burn some papers this morning, and discovered that there was no furnace in the building.—Old Egg.

Several Freshmen tried to evade the catalogue examination this year by appealing to Dr. Sullivan.

—Millsaps, Miss.

Gentleman (to inebriated one at dance): "Say, quit running into me. What do you think I am, a saloon?"

GREATER COUNCIL PLANS NEW PROGRAM OF WORK

The Greater Council met last Tuesday night and plans for that body's larger activity in student affairs were discussed. The chief business of the first meeting was to pass a resolution providing for a meeting of the council every second Tuesday in every month one half hour after supper. Two committees were appointed: The first, consisting of Messrs. Oettinger, Holton, and Coates, was authorized to ascertain if the council can be of use to the University in any constructive way. The second committee, composed of Messrs. Hackler, Capps, and Bryant, was appointed to formulate class athletic rules.

The Greater Council invites all students who have any ideas for the good of University life which they want advanced to meet the council at the Y. M. C. A. on a regular business meeting night and present them. The aim of the council is to better University life and ideals with the assistance of those thoughtful students who have the good of the University at heart.

ELISHA MITCHELL SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

The Elisha Mitchell Scientific Society at its regular business meeting elected the following officers for the coming year: Mr. T. F. Hickerson, president; Mr. J. G. Beard, vice-president; Mr. J. W. Lasley, Jr., recording secretary. Profs. W. C. Coker, M. H. Stacy, and Collier Cobb were elected board of editors for the Mitchell Journal. The following from the student body were elected associate members of the Society: R. P. Brooks, J. W. Hale, J. W. Scott, C. W. Higgins, A. C. Forney, W. T. Harper, Geo. Slover, and M. M. Williams.

At the 225th meeting held in Chemistry Hall Tuesday night for discussion and presentation of papers two papers were presented to the Society: "The Second International Chemical Exposition" by Dr. A. S. Wheeler and "Some Elementary Vector Equations" by J. W. Lasley, Jr. At this meeting Mr. S. H. Hobbs, Jr. was elected an associate member of the Society.

HE WANTS TRADITIONS

Editor of the Daily Kansan:

For the love of Mike let's start some school traditions that are novel and that will last. The older schools have scads of them and old ones at that. If we don't ever

Locals and Exchanges

Judging from the time it takes for people to get on his geology classes, Mr. Cobb thinks President Graham has succeeded already in his plan to "make the campus statewide."

Victor Bryant has been elected captain of the Junior football team this year. Capt. Bryant issues a call for more men on the field—which means more men behind the South building.

Dr. J. H. Hanford delivered an illustrated lecture Wednesday night on the Elizabethan era. Many slides illustrating the time of Shakespeare, notables of the Elizabethan court, and scenes around Stratford-on-Avon familiar to Shakespeare were shown. Other similar lectures will follow up this one.

In the third annual series of exchange lectures between the Universities of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Vanderbilt, Dr. H. C. Tolman, dean of the College, will go to North Carolina and Vanderbilt will in turn receive a lecturer from North Carolina.—Vanderbilt.

At a meeting of the Senior Class held Wednesday the following additional officers were elected: S. J. Ervin, Historian; A. M. Lindan, Poet; E. S. Harshorn, Last Will and Testament; and W. T. Polk, Prophet. These offices were not filled at the regular election of officers last spring. The assessment for the fall term was voted.

The query for the annual Soph-Junior Debate between the Di and Phi Societies has been selected. It is: "Resolved, That a system of compulsory social insurance similar to that of France, Germany, and England should be adopted in the United States." The final debate comes off about the middle of December.

The following query was debated in the Phi Society Saturday night: "Resolved, That the Government should own and operate the railroads." The affirmative side won, and C. B. Sternberger made the best speech.

In Moot Court Saturday night a case of first degree burglary will be tried. Representing the State will be Frank Hackler, H. D.

Cooley, and A. B. Corey. For the defense, E. S. Harshorn, C. R. Daniel, and E. B. Denney will appear.

Mr. Moss will lead a discussion in the S. A. E. House Sunday at 12:30 o'clock on the subject, "When is a Man Religious?"

In Chapel this week Prof. A. H. Patterson delivered a series of very interesting talks on the shrapnel shell, its manufacture, and its use on the battlefields of Europe. He displayed one of the 18 pound shells and explained its makeup. It looks like too fine a mechanism to be subjected to the indignity of being fired from a gun.

Secretary Rankin of the High School Debating Union announces that the following schools have already entered the Union: Pleasant Garden, Chapel Hill, Marion, Carthage, Winston-Salem, Lumberton, Stony Point, Raleigh, Belmont, Sanford, Durham, Stovall, South Buffalo, Rocky Mount, Grassy Creek, New London, Greenville, Plymouth, Stedman, Aulander.

McDaniel Lewis, of last year's graduating class spent Saturday and Sunday on the Hill and witnessed the game between the Freshmen and the Charlotte High. The Raleigh team, of which he is coach, is in the race again for the state championship.

The Tar Heel wishes to acknowledge the receipt of copies of the Forest City Chanticleer and the Belmont Clarion (N. C. High School papers) and to give them hearty encouragement for their future success.

PAYING THE PUTTER

"Is golf an expensive game?"
"It must be. I heard my husband telling a friend the other day that he had to replace about eighteen divots on the first nine holes."—Ex.

An Elizabeth, N. J., woman found a gold ring in a carrot. Nothing strange about that. A Salt Lake girl found a gold ring with eighteen carats in it.—Deseret News (Salt Lake City).

"I saw your wife and daughter the other day, but they didn't see me."

"So they said."—Boston Transcript.
