negative teams were Pleasant Garden, Waynesville, Mt. Olive, Charlotte, Sylvan, Laurinburg, East Durham, Wendell, East Bend and Troy. Pleasant Garden Mt. Olive and Wawnesville won both sides. Fro these twenty teams, ten affirmative and ten negative, the two teams for the final debates on Friday night are being selected now (3:30 P. M. Friday.) On Friday afternoon at 2:30 P. M. a group picture of all the visitors was taken in front of the library, followed at 3:00 o'clock by the inter-scholastic track meet, which has been won by Friendsihp High School for the last three years.

At 3:00 P. M. the final debate for the Aycock Memorial Cup will be held in Memorial Hall, followed by a reception at 10:00 o'clock for all the visitors in the Library. The Aycock Cup has been won by the Pleasant Garden, Winston-Salem, Wilson, and Graham High Schools respectively during the last four years.

The interscholastic Tennis Tournament has been partly completed already. Fremont, Normal, Greensboro, Raleigh, Asheville, Wilmington, Mooresville, Oak Ridge, Cleveland and Warrenton entered for the doubles, and the same teams, with the exception of Mooresville entered for the singles. The Wilmington and Oak Ridge teams won out for the finals in odubles to be held today. orNormal, Wilmington, Oak Ridge and Greensboro seem to have the best chance in the singles, while Asheville and Normal showed up well in the doubles. The doubles finals promise some good fast tennis. Wilmington won both the doubles and singles last year, and so far stand a god chance for repeating the achievement. The various county clubs have given great aid in entertaining the visitors, many of them giving "Smokers" and "Feeds" in addition to housing the delegates.

ed several weeks ago its all. Every resource of equipment, means and men; it organized voluntary military training, under competent instruction, and complied with the requirements for a Reserve Officers' Training Corps."

President Graham next explained how daily drills are now held, with over 500 students enlisted. This instruction will be steadily developed with the purpose in mind of making it better and more complete training than the government under presen tconditions can give elsewhere. Proper action has been taken in regard to academic credits, curriculum emphasis on military courses, a special faculty committee on Military Affairs, appointed for giving students necessary advice.

President Graham closed with a brief statement of the need for a deep and genuine realization of the personal sacrifice implied in so great a cause as the one at issue, and the immediate summons to a higher level of individual life and energy during the coming years of struggle.

"Ours," he emphasized, "is a larger task than that of the French Revolution, the American Revolution or the American Union. It is the continuation of the supreme issue for which those great causes were fought,—the structure of steps toward a permanent peace that all nations 'under God shall

The Balance Wheel of Life

Prices of all necessities of life are now uncertain—yet certainly high.

Everything is uncertain and unbalanced—except life insurance. It is the only safe investment. It protects life and creditors; creates wealth; makes you feel safe and well balanced.

have a new birth of freedom,' and toward a world unity in the great common cause of living together for all mankind.

"Our larger task is peace; our immediate task is war! There is now no alternative for a Christian democracy. There will be no peace till the world is politically organized and it will not be politically organized till the people truly rule. To this great common good we once again pledge our lives and our sacred honor."

Second Young Thing—"Isn't it! I think it is Victor Herbert's masterpiece."—Boston Transcript.

Editha was admiring her new summer frock.

"Isn't it wonderful," she said, "that all this silk comes from an insignificant worm!"

"Editha, is it necessary to refer to your father in that way?" her mother inquired reproachfully.—New York Times.

"I like to have vacation," said Tony. "We can't get along very well without you," said the boss. "You don't need a vacation. You'll only blow your money and come back broke."

"I like to have vacation," persisted Tony. "I get married, and I kinda like to be there."

Miss Wrights: "I should like to see the man that I'd promise to love, honor, and obey!"

Miss Perty: "I am sure you would, dear."
