

Many Old Classes Now Planning for Reunions

In spite of the rumors that have been floating about the campus as to the improbability of there being any Commencement, the Faculty seems to be preparing for an unusually brilliant commencement, while a number of classes have signified their intention of holding their class reunions at this time. The classes of 1857, 1867, 1887, 1902, 1907, and 1912, have already elected chairmen to arrange for the reunion, while other classes are expected to hold their impromptu reunions at the same time. The class of 1857, sixty years out of college, has appointed as its chairman Colonel R. Bingham, of the Bingham School for Boys, and Major J. W. Graham, of Hillsboro.

The reunion of these old gentlemen at this time is felt to have a peculiar meaning for the college men of today, many of whom are facing the same problems these long graduated alumni faced years ago. Several social events have been planned, and beside the usual Alumni Banquet which will be held as usual, on June 5 the class of 1892 will give a banquet, and the class of 1907 will give a smoker on June 4.

Just what other plans the faculty has in mind have not been as yet divulged.

LOST AND FOUND BUREAU REPORT

The following articles in the Lost and Found Bureau will be returned to the men who turned them in, if they will call for them at the regular hours, 2:15 P. M.

Eagle Fountain Pen to Parks, Waterman Fountain Pen to A. H. Sawyer, Capitol Fountain Pen to F. R. Blaylock, Gold cuff link to W. S. Tatum. There are a number of knives turned in by people who did not leave their names that are yet on hand. If the men who turned them in will call for them, they may get them at the same hour as stated above. On this list there are overcoats and caps that may be returned as the above. Also some cuff links.

The recently found articles are 2 Merchantile fountain pens and one Capitol fountain pen, pair of ladies tanned gloves, two rain coats, one bearing the name of W. F. Allston, Charleston, S. C., a large number of caps and hats, and a great number of books of all kinds.

If these books are not called for by the end of the term, they will be deposited in the Book Exchange next year and sold, the proceeds of which will go to the use of the Y. M. C. A. The hats and caps will be turned over to some Orphanage.

The Irish sergeant had a squad of recruits on the rifle-range.

He tried them on the five-hundred-yard range, but none of them could hit the target. Then he tried them on the three-hundred-yard, the two-hundred-yard, and the one-hundred-yard ranges in turn, but with no better success. When they had all missed on the shortest range he looked around in despair. Then he straightened up.

"Squad, attention!" he commanded. "Fix bayonets! Charge!"

In the recent military manoeuvres under the personal direction of Commander-in-Chief Bullitt, the troops under the command of General C. Holding scored two signal successes and came out of two bloody engagements covered

English Professors Give Dance for Festival Cast

A dance, featured by high color effects, was given last Saturday night, at the Gimghoul House, from 8:30 till 12 o'clock, in honor of the cast of the Spring pageant. Prominent among those present were Duke Orsino, Viola, and the clown Feste. The color effect was gorgeous. The decorations were of crepe paper of pleasing hues, and blended beautifully with the multifarious costumes that flitted about the hall.

The promoters of the dance were the English Professors who had charge of the pageant. Music was furnished by the famous Chapel Hill negro orchestra.

A farewell dance was given last Monday night, at Doctor Bell's by Professor Henry Johnson who is going to Fort Oglethorpe. There were present 20 couples, consisting mostly of the faculty and their wives. The guest of honor was Miss Alice Rembert, of Spartanburg, S. C., who is a sister of Mrs. Steadman.

PEPSI-Cola

Just when you get home in the evening, after a long, hot, sticky day—and you're tired and thirsty—THAT'S the time to say "PEPSI-Cola" to "friend wife."

That long, thin, tinkly, "ice-berg" glass just seems to sharpen up appetites for dinner and gee! how it does drive thirsts away!

Just try it—any fountain serves it—and any grocer can leave a case at home.

saults, their ranks melting away before the terrific fire of the defenders like an ice cream cone in the hands of a hungry sophomore. It is the hope of the military authorities that more men will report for the daily hikes, as next week is the last week of the drill for this year.

Last election night the leading bon-rivant of a certain town proceeded joyously and faithfully to go in for strong drink on a larger scale than was for his own best interests. His travels then took him to the headquarters of the Republican County Committee, where he sat and listened to the election returns. All night long he heard the precinct figures counted off—so many for Hank Hicks and so many for Bill Jones for this or that office.

Then he started homeward, steering his course along a street that was rough, as it seemed to him, like a sea. As one great billow pushed him against the plate-glass front of a restaurant, he glanced in at the signs that gave the prices of various food dishes offered in that caravansary. He read:

"Pork and apple sauce, 25. Ham and eggs, 35."

"Hurrah for ham and eggs!" he shouted, as he continued on his way.

MEN WANTED—some for the army, but all for the country. Army, field or factory are the details—the great call is for MEN.

Whether you go to Fort Oglethorpe or remain in college is a personal matter to be decided by you alone.

It was at the movies. An old couple sat together through a picture that included many views of the Wild West. In one of these a cattle "round-up" appeared, in

They "Satisfy"—and yet they're mild

There's more to this cigarette than taste. A heap more. 'Most any cigarette can please the taste—somebody's taste.

But this Chesterfield cigarette, in addition to pleasing the taste, gives you a new kind of enjoyment in cigarette smoking—Chesterfields let you know you are smoking—they "SATISFY"! And yet, they're mild!

It's all due to the blend—and the blend can't be copied.

Words can only tell you these things—it takes the cigarette itself to prove them. You'll be glad you tried Chesterfields. Do it today. Liggett's Myers Tobacco Co.

which the dust rose in clouds from the parched ground.

The old lady began to cough, and finally, when the neighbors began to fidget, her husband nudged her with his elbow:

"Don't cough, Annie; can't you see you're disturbing the other folks?"

His wife looked at him apologetically over her handkerchief, smothering a spasm. "I can't help it, Ephraim. The dust tickles my throat!"
