FLOWERS for the DANCES

LEAVE ORDERS AT

FOISTER'S

AGENCY FOR J. J. FALLON DURHAM, N. C.
 Leading Florist

Gus Travis intends to burn the midnight oil next week. He's going joy-riding. He will also put on a shredded wheat skirt and do the Hula for Lula—(that's his girl.)

Francis Bradshaw, C. B. Holding, Holmes Herty, and W. T. Steele have been initiated into the Junior order of Gimhools.

Bill Snider says he's going to spill egg on his shirt front next week and thereby delude the girls into thinking he's got lots of kale.

Dance Dope

Wright announces that he and his musicians are in perfect tune.

Tickets for the German Club Dance are on sale Thursday afternoon at Patterson's. Be sure to secure your tickets before the night of the dance.

German Club dues must be paid before attendance at the dance will be possible.

Out of town boys must have dress suits at the night dances.

Adam Thorpe will give an exhibition of "The Paradise Dip" on Thursday morning. Have your lady arrive early and learn this new glide, invented by Prof. Thorpe.

Mr. "Peck" Norris expects to take an extensive "skiffing" tour on the proceeds of the dance.

If you haven't enough dates, see Stan Travis, Allen Martin (bless his little heart-) or "Doggie" Ogburn.

"Beanie" Kinlaw announces with regret that only eight out of the seventeen girls he asked, will be present.

Special sale of "Tiz" begins Tuesday.

It is unfortunate that Mr. Worth Daniels will not be allowed to "cut in" nor Mr. Tom Pace to "intercept."

Hal Cooley coolly announces that he has a supply of massage cream and pink powder for the fall hops.

Anyone wishing to part with his fair dame, just "knock her down" to Capt. Allen.

Raby Tennant expects to attend the dances. He may raise a mustache on Wednesday so he can tickle the girls.

"Ray" Tayloe can do the "reverse" backwards.

Harry Barbee will make his debut Thursday afternoon at 2:15 (before the girls arrive).

Dr. Froggy Wilson will give his annual "dance quiz" on Friday afternoon.

All boys are asked to convey their ladies to the gym via the "ankle excursion" and donate the extra two-bits to "Red" Norris and "Red" Cooper for the Red Cross.

Freshmen! Get the tickets which entitle you to be Balcony Buddies. Warning: It is a Booloo offense to look down on the girls or to whistle with the orchestra. Tuxedo or full dress must be worn by Freshmen in the balcony.

Don Daniels says he will kiss a certain girl until she loses count of 'em. (We don't see how she can with the thing going on right under her nose.)

Wanted! a pair of new pumps by James Fieklen, who will volunteer two cows?

It has been suggested that Bill Poindexter replace the sour pickle in his mouth with an all-day sucker during the latter part of next week.
