

Field Work Equipment
For R. O. T. C. Arrives

Two machine guns and four automatic rifles of the Browning type have been authorized by the war department for use in all units of the senior division of the R.O.T.C. and these guns will put into use as soon as expedient, according to information secured from Major Boye Tuesday.

Equipment for field work in the R.O.T.C. has all arrived and distribution is practically over, it was learned. Delay in the shipment of uniforms was expected to be cleared away quickly and with 128 men enrolled, the practical work in military science will make progress it was learned. Pieces issued consisted of possible to be duplicated in field work the following: rifles with bayonets, haversacks, mess outfits, cartridge belts, and canteens.

Sand tables for the operation of miniature trench systems have been constructed and will be used to work out problems of military tactics impossible to duplicate in field work here. Many of the small designs which were used by Captain Allen will be employed in work on the tables and consist of small bridges, obstructions cheveaux de frises, revetments, road markers, fascines, gabions, and other small scale instruments all of which were constructed by prisoners at Fort Leavenworth.

Carolina meets the fast Davidson wildcats today on Price Albert Field in Winston-Salem, in a game that will practically decide championship honors of the State.

The Presbyterians have a strong, fast, and aggressive machine and from all reports Coach Crayton's men are in better condition than at any other time this season. There is little to choose between the two teams with respect to weight. Both are fast on offensive and defensive. The Presbyterians held the fast V. M. I. team to a 14-7 score, while the same aggregation defeated Carolina 29-7 last Saturday. However Davidson lost to A. and E. 30-6, while Carolina defeated State 13-12. Coach Campbell is expecting his men to come back after the defeat of last Saturday and show the wildcats something of how the gridiron game should be played, and to wipe out the defeat at the hands of Davidson last year. This game is looked forward to with considerable interest, not only because it decides the question of State Honors, but because it is the last game Carolina plays before the final contest here Thanksgiving with Virginia, and will be the last preliminary fight to the Major contest of the football season.

the middle of the field but was called back and the team penalized half the length of the distance to their goal or twenty five-yards. On the next play McDonald again carried the ball and ran seventy-five yards for a touchdown. The game was soon called on account of darkness.

The Freshmen were not held for downs a single time during the game.

The Freshman Debating Society which was organized several years ago by Prof. George McKie, met last week for the first time this year. The following men were elected as officers for the fall quarter: N. R. Strickland, President; L. M. Hamrick, Vice-President; A. R. King, Secretary; and C. C. Poindexter, Censor. The society plans to have open forum discussions on current topics besides the regular prepared debates. The enrollment is larger than in any previous year and the society is looking forward to a successful year.

The work of Murchison, for the Sophs, was perhaps the feature of the game, and it was largely through his line bucking and end running that his teammates finally emerged victors. Fleetwood, halfback for the third year men, did good work.

Several men were injured in the fray, and may be out the rest of the season. Ranson, quarter for the Sophs, and Ranson, half, received painful injuries. The former suffered a fractured arm and the latter broke his ankle.

Epsilon Phi Delta initiated the following men last Monday night: John Washburne, Ben Cone, T. S. Kittrell, Harvey Terry, Nat Mobley, L. W. Jarman.

Community Sing Held at School Tuesday Night

The community sing at the school auditorium Tuesday night was enthusiastically enjoyed by every one present. With "America" and "Dixie" to set the pace the interest did not lag during the whole program of patriotic and war songs. Though the towns people were in the majority, there were enough ex-soldiers present to put the zip into "Mr. Zip" and awake the doleful strains of "K-k-k-P." "She wears a yeller ribbon," was also sung with all the classical interpretations. Several "rounds" together with Mr. Weaver's witty comment helped develop a cheerful group spirit. It was announced that there would be other community sings from time to time and that rather definite plans were made for the organization of a community chorus. Those interested will watch for a more detailed announcement within a week or two. Mr. Weaver says he has observed already that there is enough talent to make the plan a success. The words to "taps" softly sung completed the program.

whom the Captain of the team must come.

The Sophomores have also come through to the final match, Williams and Bardin being left as the finalists. These were the Freshman team last year, so this final match should be one of the most interesting in the whole tournament. Among the Freshmen Jernigan advanced into the finals by winning out over Long in the upper bracket, while Matthews goes into the finals on a bye in the lower bracket. This match also promises interesting possibilities.

Arrangements are now being made for an inter-class tournament, to begin as soon as the class teams are settled. In this tournament each team will play every other team three matches, one of doubles and two of singles, the Captains being matched against each other in the singles and the runners-up against each other. This tournament, in conjunction with the class tournaments, should furnish some good practice for varsity material next spring and should throw some light on Varsity possibilities for the spring tournament.

Woman's Association
Now Fully Organized

The Woman's Association of the University, now fully organized, held its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday afternoon, November the fifth.

The officers of the Association are: President, Mary Cobb, Vice-President, Nell Pickard, Secretary, Rachael Freeman, Treasurer, Vera Pritchard. The chairmen of the three general committees appointed for the year are: Membership, Kathrine Robinson; Entertainment, Alin E. Hughes; Refreshment, Theo. Twitty.

Plans for the coming year were discussed at this meeting, and the report on the Halloween party was given by Kathrine Robinson, the general chairman for that entertainment.

A committee was appointed under Miss Norburn, who has had some experience as a Y. W. C. A. Secretary, to consider the question of organizing a "Y" chapter among the University women students. Basketball, or some other branch of athletics, it is hoped, may soon be possible for the co-eds, though as yet it is not all certain. A

Business Women of Chapel Hill Organize

The business and professional women of Chapel Hill have just organized a club known as the Chapel Hill Business and Professional Women's League. At its first organization meeting Miss Hattie Berry was elected president; Miss Nellie Roberson, vice-president; and Miss Mary Moses, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. P. H. Winston was elected as the delegate to represent the league at a State meeting to be held in Raleigh Nov. 28.

The club is composed of stenographers and business women connected with the University, telegraph and telephone operators, and the boarding house keepers and school teachers.

A comprehensive plan is now being made concerning the activities the club will take for the year. It is thought that its first work will be directed toward the improvement of conditions in Chapel Hill.

number of other plans for entertainment during the year have been discussed, but nothing definite has been decided as yet.
