FACULTY DECIDES TO RESCIND STRICT RULE AFTER LONG SESSION

By a Vote of 42 to 31, the Athletic Committee's Summer Baseball Regulation is Suspended.

STUDENTS OPPOSE RULE

Professor Patterson, in chapel Tuesday morning, announced that the faculty, by a vote of 42 to 31, had decided to rescind the ruling recently passed in regard to summer baseball playing, after a session lasting over two hours Monday afternoon. The decision to repeal the rule came after a thorough discussion on the part of the faculty, in which the point of view of the student body was brought out by the student committee appointed by President Sweetman, of the Athletic Association, last week.

Professor Patterson brought out the fact that the Southern Inter-collegiate Conference was founded for the immediate purpose of stamping out professionalism in collegiate sports. He stated that he was present at the organization of the conference. At a meeting of the colleges of the South at Atlanta in the 90's, a motion was brought up providing for a one-year rule and a ruling in regard to summer baseball. The smaller colleges defeated the motion by a vote of 15 to 13, and that night the colleges that are now members of the Southern Conference met and formed the present conference with a very strict ruling against summer baseball, and adopted the one-year rule. No ruling has proven successful in checking summer baseball. He stated that in the existing ruling only four words are noticed by the players—"seven dollars a day." At the last meeting of the conference the rule just rescinded was defeated, although several of the important colleges voted in favor of it.

However, Dr. Patterson stated, the faculty was in favor of amateur standards, and a resolution was passed by a substantial majority, that at the next meeting of the conference our representation should endeavor to get this body to pass such a ruling. However, until the conference adopts this rule, it was

BRILLIANT CARNIVAL IN SWAIN HALL AT ELEVEN

Fun Begins Just After Playmaker Performance at Playhouse. Many Girls Here.

The Satyr Carnival will open at eleven o'clock tonight after the Playmaker performance at the Playhouse when the doors of Swain Hall allow the many types of masqueraders to file through and start the fun.

All preparations have been completed and old Swain is a glaring scene of brilliancy for the biggest social event of the year. Every one is trying to outdress the others, to get a more fetching costume, a more bewitching mask, and an all round superiority in originality of masquerade dress.

The funny clown will be there with many spots, his dunce cap, and his jolly face. The chorus girl type will be there to flirt with the clown, and the tired business man and worn college professor will be there to enjoy a little gaiety himself. And their wives will be there too, perhaps because they are afraid not to go.

Eight vaudeville stunts will appear on the regular program and dancing will go between. The Croziers, the Browns, Wood Williams and his partner—all will be special dancing features of the evening.

"Spotting" of new Satyrs will attract most of the attention of the program, and the campus awaits announcement of the new members with interest.

Refreshments can be had for the price of a song or a gold mine, that is, if a person is lucky enough to have got a ticket for the carnival. There were only a few seats left at the larger tables on Thursday, and they were going fast. There may be a few left for the late comer.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The public is invited to attend the annual tap day ceremonies of the Senior Order of the Golden Fleece, Tuesday evening, May 16, at 8:30 o'clock, in Memorial Hall. Governor Cameron Morrison will deliver the address. Inasmuch as no invitations for membership are given out, juniors or seniors who are willing to accept membership will be present—the juniors occupying their regular chapel seats. The Golden Fleece.

MAGAZINE COVER IS MORE PLEASING THAN CONTENTS

Reviewer Likes Front and Back Pages; Also Praises Several Articles.

The May issue of the Carolina Magazine appeared on the campus Saturday night introduced by a pleasing cover design and finished off with R. W. Foister's well-done advertisement but having between these two extremes not a great deal of note, though there are several worth-while articles. Especially noticeable is the paucity of editorials, the copy containing but three and one of these an apology for statements made in the previous issue. The other two are typical.

The lead-off article is a clear-cut, concrete discussion of "the greater university" which deals with facts and not with will-o'-the-wisp idealism. It shows in President Chase a mastery of the situation and one who is, as the introduction to his article says, "thinking of education in the practical terms of courses and buildings."

As a writer of polished magazine articles, we would say that Mr. Poindexter is a wonderfully good football player. His article is a rather long-drawn-out and hackneyed analogy between the game football and the game life. However, there is some good stuff in it and it shows good stuff in the man who is to guide the destinies of the

Fifteen High School Teams Remain in Championship Race

The elimination of the High Schools from the race for State championship has been proceeding slower than was expected.

There are at the present time fifteen teams left in the race, which are as follows: In the east—Durham, Burgaw, Fayetteville, Selma, Clayton, and Seaboard; in the west—Gastonia, Shelby, Hickory, Badin, Trinity, Winston-Salem, Reidsville, Ruffin, and Mebane.

The elimination will have to be hastened, because the final championship game will be played here Saturday, May 20th.

KENTUCKY DEBATE HERE TOMORROW NIGHT 8:30

W. E. Horner and B. C. Brown Represent Carolina in First Annual Forensic Contest.

The first annual debate between Carolina and the University of Kentucky will be held in Gerrard Hall Saturday evening, May 13th, at 8:30 o'clock. The query is:

"Resolved, That the present Diligence Law should be retained as a permanent measure; namely, that three per cent. of each nationality that was in this country in 1910 shall be the only annual quota of immigrants allowed from that country."

Kentucky will be represented by R. T. Johnson and S. P. Neal on the affirmative side of the query, while W. E. Horner and B. C. Brown will represent Carolina on the negative.

The Debating Committee especially requests that a large number of students attend this debate and back the team, a thing which most of them have failed to do in the past.

HOME PERFORMANCE OF PLAYMAKER STATE TOUR PROGRAM HERE TONIGHT

Popular Prices With Seats Only Fifty Cents Each All Over Playhouse for Three Plays.

BIG AUDIENCE EXPECTED

Returning from an unusually successful trip through the western part of the state the Carolina Playmakers will present their home performance of the state tour program here tonight. The first curtain at the Playhouse will go up promptly at 8:30.

The three one-act plays to be presented are "The Lord's Will," a tragedy of a country preacher, by Paul Greene; "Dogwood Bushes," a comedy of the farm, by Wilbur Stout; and "Trista," a play of folk-superstition, by Elizabeth Lay.

The first and third of these are the ones which called forth such harsh criticism from the "Burlington Daily News" on their performance there, and which drew so much applause from the other towns where the Playmakers appeared while away.

"The Lord's Will" made a distinct hit here on its initial presentation last quarter. It has been called the best of all Playmaker productions.

"Dogwood Bushes," by the author of "In Dixon's Kitchen," is perhaps not so universally popular as Stout's first hit, but it is full of charm and fresh humor that keeps its audience in a constant roar of laughter.

"Trista" is a play hard to understand but with a great deal of technical beauty. And the acting in this play, and in "The Lord's Will" is perhaps the best ever seen done by the Playmaker group.

Dramatic critics throughout the state have been universal in their praise of the acting in all the plays, and in this home performance Chapel Hill will perhaps see the best group of players ever brought together for a local production.

Popular prices, fifty cents all over the house, have been arranged for tonight, and many students and townspeople who have not had the opportunity to see the three plays on the program are expected to hear them.

FETZER'S TRACK SQUAD IN SOUTH ATLANTIC MEET

Team, Composed of Nine Men, Represents Carolina in Annual Event at Charlottesville.

The last track-contest in which Carolina will participate this season will be the South Atlantic meet which comes off today in Charlottesville.

The semi-finals were held yesterday and the finals will be staged today. Carolina is hoping to make an excellent showing as the team has been practicing consistently for the whole year and is now in the best of condition. Coach Fetzer seems to be very optimistic as to the outcome, despite the fact that this is the first year that Carolina has shown any great interest in track athletics.

This will be the third year that Carolina has attended the South Atlantic event. Last year Georgetown won first place in this meet and V. M. I. second. Carolina piled up 15 points, winning two seconds, and four third places. Abernathy won second place in the javelin, and Yates came out second in the high hurdles.

Robert Le Gendre, the Pentathlon Champion of America, will be one of Georgetown University's representatives in the meet this year. Another star for Georgetown will be Connally, who won the one-mile in the Olympic meet last year in Belgium. Many other nationally-famous athletes will be at this meet.

Carolina's team will be composed of the following men: Murchison, Poindexter, Sinclair, M. D., and R. L. Ransom, Abernathy, Purser, Woodard, and Giersch.

BASEBALL TEAM ENDS SUCCESSFUL TRIP WITH VICTORY OVER N. Y. U.

Has Lost Only One Game—Plays State Here Today; Trinity Tomorrow.

SEASON ENDS SATURDAY

Captain Llewellyn's hard hitting Tar Heels won from New York University Tuesday, 12 to 8, in the final game of their northern trip. The game was hard fought to the finish, when Carolina scored four times in the tenth inning.

Coach Fetzer's outfit tallied once in the first inning on McDonald's triple to right, followed by McLean's sacrifice fly. Two more runs were added in the fourth. Fred Morris singled and scored on Wilson's triple, while the latter crossed the plate on Bonner's infield out.

Carolina tied the count in their half of the sixth. Shirley doubled, but was tagged a moment later when Bonner hit to short; the latter scored on Johnson's double. Casey Morris drew a base on balls, and he and Johnson both scored on Coffey's hit that went through second. Johnson also slapped out a homer in the eighth.

The Tar Heels tied the score in the ninth on Wilson's single and Shirley's triple to left. After that came the fatal tenth when Carolina sewed up the game by pushing four markers across.

Bryson started on the slab but lasted only three innings, when Coffey relieved him. He in turn was supplanted by "Lefty" Wilson in the ninth. N. Y. University also used three pitchers in the fray.

By winning from New York University Coach Fetzer's team completed a most successful trip. They have annexed three victories and lost only one contest. In four games the Tar Heels have succeeded in scoring forty times to fourteen for their opponents.

Today Carolina and State play the deciding game for the state championship. Coach Fetzer's choice for mound duty is unknown, although he is sure to start one of his aces. It is thought that Curtis will be given another opportunity to stop the Carolina batsmen from connecting for safeties in this afternoon's fray. There will be a good crowd of State supporters over from Raleigh to view the contest between the rival institutions, which promises to be a hard fought battle.

The final game of the season will be played tomorrow, when Coach Fetzer's outfit will oppose Trinity on Emerson Field. The Methodists have been going like a house afire for the last two weeks, having defeated both State and Washington and Lee. The Trinity players are determined to get revenge for their former defeat at the hands of Carolina.

SOPHS TO HOLD SMOKER AND ELECT BOOLOO MEN

Annual Joy-Spreading Event to Be Celebrated By Class of '24 Wednesday Night.

The sophomore class will make its debut into campus society next Wednesday night when it will pull its first and last smoker of the year, featured by eats, talks, smokes, and Booloo elections. President John Ambler of the "bloody boys" of '24, has appointed a committee consisting of J. R. Purser, Jr., J. A. Bradley, Bret Smith, H. D. Duls and others to look the situation over and find out the prospects of collecting sufficient class dues for the feed.

Freshman aspirants for Booloo honors will hear of the announcement of this feast with a feeling of relief, for many of the innocent ones who have considered themselves "Booloo-bound" had about come to the conclusion that no such thing as the above named honorary fraternity existed. The committee for the selection of the favored ones from '25's rank is composed of the men upon whom this honor was bestowed last spring.

MAJORITY OF 35 VOTES ELECTS J. O. HARMON OVER TOM TURNER ON SECOND DAY OF HOT CONTEST

Governor Morrison, who is to speak at the Golden Fleece Tapping Tuesday night.

NEXT TUESDAY DATE OF ANNUAL TAPPING FOR GOLDEN FLEECE

Ceremony Will Take Place in Memorial Hall at 8:30; Governor Morrison Will Speak.

NO INVITATIONS ISSUED

The Senior Order of Golden Fleece will stage its annual tap-day ceremonies on Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock in Memorial Hall, according to announcement made by Fleece members yesterday. It was also stated that Governor Cameron Morrison will deliver the principal address. The ceremony will be presided over by B. B. Lippert, one of the men received into the Order last year.

Every year, the campus watches the election of men into the Golden Fleece with the keenest sort of interest. The election to membership is looked on as the highest honor and recognition of leadership and achievement on the campus that may come to any man at the hand of the students; and it is because of this, because of the fact the Fleece is as big as campus endeavor and achievement, that the elections are looked forward to with such interest.

Although it could not be learned exactly how many members would be tapped, it is expected that nine or ten will be the number. Of these, probably not over three will be seniors; the remainder being, of course, juniors.

The presence of Governor Morrison will lend color to the tapping. It will be remembered by old men here that one of the most successful tappings of recent years was that of year before last when Thos. W. Bickett, then Governor of the State, was the speaker. Professor Horace Williams, one of the men largely instrumental in founding the Golden Fleece, spoke at the tap-day ceremonies last year.

Governor Morrison will be introduced by Professor Williams, while Mr. Lippert will very briefly present to the student body the aims, purposes, and ideals of the Golden Fleece. At the conclusion of the speeches, the usual robed figures will enter, will search out in the crowd the men that are to be tapped, and will announce the election of each by a blow on the shoulder. It was stated yesterday that no invitations to membership would be given out; and in order to see that all seniors and juniors are accessible, the juniors have been requested to occupy their chapel seats, while it is expected that the seniors will sit in accessible places.

"Dope sheets" or lists being made up by men on the campus containing the names of the possibilities for election show a variation of opinion as to the men who will be elected. It is known, however, that men earn their places in the Fleece by being the leader of a particular

President of the Student Body Elected After Much Wrangling and Politics.

CANDIDATES MAKE TALKS

First Estimate Favored Turner, But After 60 Ballots Were Ruled Out Harmon Had Majority.

After the smoke and roar of the most spectacular and desperate political battle ever waged on the campus had cleared away, J. O. Harmon, of Pittsboro, who has been prominent in student activities for the last two years, defeated Thomas Turner, president of the junior class, by the extremely narrow margin of 35 votes. The total number of votes cast, the largest in the history of campus elections here, was 1257, of which Harmon received 646 and Turner 611.

The issue of the struggle was ever in doubt until the last vote had been counted. Conflicting rumors circulated about the campus Tuesday afternoon and night, now predicting a lead for one side and now for another, but the ultimate result was not ascertained until late in the night after every vote had been carefully checked over in the Registrar's office by a committee of eight men. During the count, approximately 60 illegitimate votes were ruled out, the majority of these cast by Turner men.

For the past few weeks the political cauldron has been seething, gradually reaching the "bubbling over" stage. Many possible candidates were mentioned, but the outstanding three were Harmon, Jim Kerr, and Tommy Turner. A surprise was sprung when Victor Young resigned from the editorship of the Yackety Yack to enter the race at a late hour, causing concern to the adherents of the three leaders. Up to the time of the preliminary vote, all manner of political moves were resorted to, the candidate of the astute Joe Ervin being the most sensational, which set the politicians agog with excitement.

GRAHAM MEMORIAL PLANS ARE NEARING COMPLETION

T. C. Atwood Organization is Speeding Construction Work—Dormitories Will Be Ready by Fall.

As examination time draws near, some students will begin to wake up and go to work, but the T. C. Atwood organization has been working all the time. The organization has been working on plans for the Graham Memorial building, and at the same time great progress has been made on the new quadrangle dormitories and the class-room building behind the gymnasium. Work has also been done on the tennis courts and class athletic fields.

The plans for the Graham Memorial building, the future gathering place of the campus are being perfected every day. The building will be situated on the site of the old Inn, and, although this will be some distance from the center of the campus, the boys are expected to "hang out" there a great deal, both because of the attractiveness of the building and the entertainment that will be offered there.

The first dormitory of the quadrangle will be completed by commencement, and there is no doubt but that all of them will be ready for occupation by next fall. Each building will house 120 students, with two in a room, and will have a shower on each floor. The new class-room building behind the gymnasium is progressing very rapidly, and will be ready for use some time next year.

The authorities tell us that at last the tennis courts and class athletic field are practically ready for use. The tennis courts will probably be put into use this week, but they will not be in perfect condition before next year. The class athletic field is completed, but on account of so much blasting having to be done beside it, it cannot be used at once.
