Number 16

Volume XXXI.

BISHOP PENICK HERE SUNDAY

The second University sermon of the year will be delivered in Gerrard Hall next Sunday night by the Right Reverend Edwin A. Penick, Bishop Coadjutor of the Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina. No announcement of the subject of the sermon has yet been made.

"SCRUBBY" RIVES WEDS MISS MARY TANKERSLEY

Popular Chapel Hill Girl Becomes Bride of Former Carolina Cheer Leader and Campus Personality.

The marriage of Miss Mary Wheaton Tankersley to Edwin Earle Rives, far better known to Carolina students as "Scrubby," was solemnized in the local Presbyterian church Wednesday night. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Tankersley, of Chapel Hill, and is very popular, numbering a host of friends. The groom is too well known and universally admired on the campus to need charac-

The church was beautifully decorated presentation of "The Flapper's Op- physical trim. Faison, McMaster and scraps. The Yellow Jackets will prob-The church was beautifully decorated dal candles, large white chrysanthemums, palms and autumn leaves giving it a softened tone so effective with the beautiful ring ceremony.

The wedding began at seven and the bride and groom approached the altar while the soft strains of the "Wedding March 17 from Lohengrin whispered into the evening twilight. The bride was beautiful in her dress of lovely brocaded chiffon, with a train of white chiffon with beads and pearls caught up with orange blossoms, and with a corsage of lilies of the valley and or-

The bride's father, Mr. W. L. Tankersley, gave her to the groom. While the ceremony was in progress Miss Margaret Eubanks sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," and "By the Waters of Minnetonka."

The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Toms Stewart, of Washington, N. C., large crowd with its Hawaiian songs Geology Professor Reads Two Papers Home Ownership and Co-operative Marcharmingly dressed in green lace over and other musical selections accompangreen chiffon; Miss Margaret Jenkins, ied by the fantastic interpretation of of Shelby, in pink taffeta; Miss Margaret Scott, of Sanford, wearing a by Princess Junia and Flores. Throughdress of green lace over green chiffon, out the entire performance the enterand Miss Frances Glascock, of Greens- tainers held their audience with quaint boro, wearing pink chiffon. All had native selections, rendered with deep handsome corsages of pink rose buds expression and feeling characteristic of and orchids.

trude Tankersley, sister of the bride, hearty applause from their hearers. ley was lovely in a dress of green lace the grotesque recklessness of the dance, over green chiffon.

Greensboro; Lawrence Phillips, of agility of contortionists, they evoked Chapel Hill, and Minton Fetter, of a riot of applause. Greensboro.

The flower girls were Misses Dorothy Clendenin and Annie Turner made him famous, sang the selection. Knight. The ring bearer was Master George Kaabiki, Hawaiian guitar solo-James Van Hecky. Reverend Walter ist, and Mark Galvin, violinist, render-Patton performed the ceremony.

was given in honor of the bride at the who has the distinction of being the Kappa Pi fraternity house. Mrs. R. B. only lady steel guitar player in the coun-Lawson headed the receiving line, try, played a few numbers which fully Punch, ice cream and cake and other refreshments were served.

Bridal Party Given

Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Lawson enter-"Scrubby" Rives and his bride-to-be, club. Miss Mary W. Tankersley, Tuesday night at their home, the wedding taking place Wednesday night in the Methodist church of Chapel Hill.

tending the enjoyable entertainment ture room in Peabody building. Cours PATTERSON SEEKS DATA The members of the bridal party atwere the following: Dr. and Mrs. Law. es in shorthand and typewriting are son, Misses Mary Tankersley, Mary Stewart, Estelle Lawson, Gertrude Tankersley, Margaret Jenkins, Frances Glasscock, Margaret Scott, and Messrs. "Scrubby" Rives, John McCauley, Jr., Lawrance Phillips, Arnold Schiffman and Ben Cone.

SECRETARY GRANT LEAVES FOR EASTERN CAROLINA

Daniel L. Grant, secretary of the alumni association, left Sunday night for a two weeks trip to the eastern part of the state where he is visiting the chapters of the alumni association.

The executive committee of the University trustees will hold a meeting here Wednesday, November 22.

MUSIC CLUB TO BEGIN WESTERN TRIP MONDAY

First Concert Will Be Given in Winston-Salem-Seven Towns To Be Visited.

The Glee Club, with the orchestra

lows: First tenor, Stauber, Brown, Te-Kendrick, Vaught; baritone, Siewers, Baker, Murphy, Reynolds, Monroe, Kemp; bass, Mendenhall, Wheeler, Cor-Hamilton.

the mandolin club, one number by the Coach Gray has a good team in spite ball. era," and in conclusion, the rendering Clark are dependable players, but the ably run through Coach Hartsell's team, of the University Hymn by all.

opera of the trials of a fat girl. She drix has been showing up well at quar- may find it rougher sailing tomorrow. shows her girl friends that being fat ter. does not affect her prestige with men.

Concerts will be given at Winston-Salem, Hickory, Hendersonville, Asheville, Morganton, Charlotte and Greens-

Chapel Hill Enjoys The Hawaiian Revue

Junia's Hawaiian Musical Revue, which played at the high school auditorium Monday evening for the benefit of the city fire department, delighted a The maid of honor was Miss Ger- bursts of popular pieces, which brought which embraced every form of terpsi-The groomsmen were Ben Cone, of chorean art imaginable from shimmy Greensboro; Arnold Schiffman, of to scandal walk. Performing with the Charles Opuni, Victor's late record maker whose song, "Some Sunny Day," ed skilfully several popular selections Following the wedding a reception and Hawaiian melodies. "Queenie," equalled those rendered by the rest of the company.

MONTGOMERY CO. CLUB MEETS first smoker of the year Monday night small, catlike animal. Dance At Lawson's in the Co-ed Room. There was plenty of eats and smokes on hand, and every one present had a pleasant evening. Dyes," in which he explained the chem-Short lively talks on different subjects ical action involved in the production For North Carolina, Scarborough rec-> advertised early this fall but apparently dropped out of existence, has at last colors might be produced. begun its classes in Dr. Walker's lecinclined to fit themselves for positions as stenographers.

TOMORROW'S GAMES

CAROLINA VS. DAVIDSON. Virginia vs. West Virginia. V. P. I. vs. Washington and Lee. V. M. I. vs. George Washington. N. C. State vs. Georgia Tech. Maryland vs. Johns Hopkins. Yale vs. Princeton. Georgia vs. Vanderbilt. Tulane vs. Florida. Centre vs. Auburn.

Carolina Fresh vs. Georgia Fresh.

ONLY DAVIDSON AND VIRGINIA LEFT AND ONE GOES TOMORROW

Carolina Meets Davidson on Wearn Field, Charlotte, Tomorrow Afternoon in Next to Last Game of Season-Not Expected To Be Difficult Game But Over-Confidence May Be Disastrous.

Only two more barriers,-Davidson

Tomorrow Captain Pritchard and his Spratt Moore, the pride of that town.

None of the Carolina players received severe injuries in the Armistice Day battle, so the first string will be in condition to start against the Wildcats. Coach Fetzer will probably play Merritt, Sparrow, and Randolph during most of the game, using forward passes only occasionally.

A large crowd is expected to attend and Virginia-stand between Carolina the game at Wearn Field. Many Charand the mandolin club, will leave Chap- and the South Atlantic championship, lottle people will be there to see Cochel Hill Monday night for Winston-Sa- but the last ounce of Tar Heel skill and ran, McDonald and Johnston, natives lem, where they will give the first con- stamina will be needed to destroy those of that city, perform against the Wildcert of their western tour that evening. obstacles and carry the Blue and White cats. "Casey" and Fred Morris hail The final list of those making the to the crest of triumph. If either Wash- from Gastonia, which is only a few trip, which was undecided until very ington and Lee or V. M. I. defeat miles from the "Queen City," and recently, has been announced as fol- Virginia Poly, and Coach Fetzer's team many Gaston folks will be at the game. wins its remaining games, the Univer- Nearly all of the Davidson student body vepaugh, Floyd, Sinclair; second tenor, sity will have a clear-cut title to South will be on hand to watch their team in Coxe, McGlaughon, Cain, Carpenter, Atlantic honors as the only team un- action, and a large crowd will come men will meet Davidson on Wearn Virginia succeeded in tying Georgia one time hung in space, he traced the house assistants. This will be the first don, Madison, Whitener, Cheeseborough. Field, Charlotte. Carolina should not 6-6 Saturday. Campbell's team will evolution of the heavenly bodies, illus dance and will be given in the gym-In addition to these, the following are experience any great difficulty in down- journey up to Morgantown, W. Va., to- trating with photographic slides the nasium. also making the trip: Shaw, Welhe, ing the Presbyterians, but too much morrow to give battle to West Virginia stages of development through which Saturday morning the Sophomore Whittaker, Ross, Mr. Sheldon and Mr. confidence might prove disastrous. The University, a team that was tied by the nebulae went in the process of form- Order of the Shieks will give its prom Wildcats held V. P. I., reputed to be Washington and Lee but beat Pitts-The program rendered on the trip the most powerful machine in the state burgh and Rutgers. Arnold is still the day. He explained how the mass, Gimghoul will have its dance in the will consist of three appearances of the of Virginia, to a hard-fought tie, but outstanding Orange and Blue backfield which rotated according to mathemati- Junior order lodge. "Preacher" Wright glee club, two of the orchestra, two of later lost to Trinity and N. C. State. man, being a jack-of-all-trades in foot-

Davidson line is not equal to the back- but the Bull Dog and Tiger will wage bers of the glee club, is a humorous time for substantial gains, and Hen- cago and Harvard but Roper's men Davidson's record follows: Davidson, 24; Elon, 0. Davidson, 7; Presbyterian College, 8 Davidson, 0; Georgia Tech, 19. Davidson, 6; Wake Forest, 6. Davidson, 7; V. P. I., 7. Davidson, 0; Trinity, 12. Davidson, 0; State, 15. Davidson, 34; Wofford, 0.

COLLIER COBB TALKS OF FOSSILS TO SCIENTISTS

Before Elisha Mitchell Society-Dr. Wheeler Discusses Dyes.

Carolina Newark." The fossils dis- operative Marketing." preceding period. He also exhibited a extent in Buncombe County. great number of them thereabouts.

The second paper read by Dr. Cobb partially remedied this problem. dealt with the evolution of the horse, Some years ago when California be-

FOR TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY

Professor A. H. Patterson, president of the North Carolina Association of SAM CATHEY ELECTED Physics teachers, has sent out blanks to all colleges and schools in the state to obtain data for a report to be made at the meeting of the physics teachers in Raleigh November 30.

ies teachers in each school.

SCARBOROUGH AND HERRON

keting Discussed at Regular Meeting North Carolina Club.

instructive discussion on "Permian on "State Aid to Home Ownership," ing the animal and plant life of the co-operative system in use to a certain copal church.

explaining that the horse family ap- gan a movement to aid farm owner- ham and Miss Rena Henry. Montgomery County club held its prove that the horse evolved from a buys up large tracts of land, lays them J. Grover Beard, are convalescent. off in small farms and sells them in Dr. A. S. Wheeler read the last paper long term leases. This has not only on the program entitled, "Some New relieved conditions, but has also proved YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION with an informal supper and dance for were offered by many members of the loan associations.

number of class-room and laboratory the law classes now have their officers. the prize box of candy. for a successful year.

STORY OF CREATION TOLD BY NOTED ASTRONOMER

Garrett P. Serviss Lectures in Gerrard Hall, Picturing Heavenly Phenomena.

Garrett P. Serviss, a graduate of Cornell University and one of the foremost astronomers of the day, gave the first University lecture of the year en- MANY FROM A DISTANCE titled, "The Astronomical Story of Creation," before a large audience in Gerrard Hall Wednesday evening.

account of what men have learned and day night. The Gorgon's Head dance defeated by another Southern eleven. from Rock Hill, S. C., to look over guessed in their observation." Begin- will be led by Howard Holderness, with cause of its rotary motion, becoming assisting. string quartet, a vocal solo, a violin of several reverses. His proteges romp. Two other important games that are more dense as it centracted, and form. The last dance will be the fall Gersolo, one appearance of the saxophone ed on Wofford Saturday, 34 to 0, and scheduled for tomorrow are the N. C. ing a crust or ring on the outside. The it contracted, formed rings within rings Hill assistant leaders. "The Flapper's Opera," written by field. Captain Spratt Moore and "Gig" a battle that will test the mettle of each of the universe. These bodies, which back to the Hill for the Friday night Mr. Hamilton and presented by mem- Shepherd are liable to break loose any to the limit. Princeton has beaten Chi- were at first molten masses, gradually dance on the special. The dances will comprehensive discussion of the Milky- $3.50 from those attending. Way and the bodies of which it con-

READ PAPERS TO CLUB Miss Anne McGehee Weds J. W. Cheshire

With one of the simplest yet withal beautiful marriage ceremonies, Miss is practicing almost every day and will Anne Ludlow McGehee was united to At the regular meeting of the Elisha At the meeting of the North Caro- Mr. James Webb Cheshire in the holy of their recent popularity in the state Mitchell Scientific Society, Professor lina Club Monday night, an excellent bonds of matrimony, Tuesday evening as well as on the Hill the announce-Collier Cobb gave an entertaining and paper was read by D. E. Scarborough just at sunset. The Chapel of the Cross, ment of their engagement is expected quiet and restful in the evening twi-Fossils From the Base of the Norta and also one by F. J. Herron on "Co- light, was decorated with large white chrysanthemums. The bride's uncle, cussed by Professor Cobb were formed Herron's paper was only one phase Dr. C. P. McGehee, gave the bride i nthe geological period immediately of the subject, Country Community Life away and the groom's father, Bishop and the best man was Mr. John MeAuley, of Rockingham. Miss Tankers.

In a fund fund dancers, Flores and preceding the present one. The study and Co-operative Farm Enterprise. He Cheshire of Raleigh, performed the cerlodge Saturday afternoon. vealed many interesting facts concern- ive marketing system and told of the rance, rector of the Chapel Hill Epis-

The bride is a resident of Chapel Hill whale bone found on the north bank of Scarborough told how the land mono and the groom of Raleigh. The best Fishing Creek in the region of the poly came about in the United States man was Mr. Winder Webb, of Hillsmarshes, in North Carolina, which was as a result of the government making boro, and Miss Elizabeth Winston of uncovered by excavators at a depth of large grants to individuals and corpora- Chapel Hill was the maid of honor. The about 12 feet. Other bones of whales tions. This resulted in the great num- following young couples took part in have been found in that vicinity, show- ber of farm tenants and homeless slaves. the ceremony: George G. McGchee and ing that in times past there were a He outlined the systems by which Den- Miss Elizabeth Henderson; John G. mark, Ireland, Scotland and Australia Beard, Jr., and Miss Barbara Gray Henderson; Charles T. Woolen, Jr., and Carolina Winston; Edward Kidder Gra-at about the same time, and later died England, Ireland, Scotland, and Aus- wedding solo and the bride and groom night, over the question whether the that the Yale collection and others in to farm ownership. California adopted ville where the bride's mother, Mrs the freshmen wearing special caps. The the colleges of the country suffice to the Australian plan, in which the state George B. McGehee, and her aunt, Mrs. question was argued pro and con for ant of which is a brilliant scarlet ob is, a minimum tax on the number of carried off the title of Queen of the society meets next Monday night at 7 tained from alpha-naphtholene. He acres required to make a living, and Evening by winning the most points in the Di Hall. The subject for dis-The Carolina Business School, well showed that by varying the chemical a heavy tax increasing in proportion to in the games and contests of the social cussion is: "Resolved-That there elements involved different shades and the number of acres owned for all of the Inter-denominational Young Peo should be a pardoning power to aid above this amount. This would put a ple's Union, Tuesday night. Over a the governor in matters pertaining to premium on intensive cultivation of hundred young people enjoyed the hap- pardoning criminals. small farms. He also recommends the py affair engineered by President John Australian system, and building and Purser and his able assistants in the three social rooms of the Presbyterian BUNCOMBE COUNTY CLUB MEETS exercises; general description of labo- The Ruffin, Clark, and Manning Law The city union is composed of all the and students of the county in the pubratory and demonstration equipment: clubs, which take the place of the old young people's organizations of all the lication of Buncombe's civic, industrivalue in dollars; number in course this time Moot Court, held their elections churches in Chapel Hill. One union al and agricultural bulletin. The meetyear; names and addresses of all phys- last week, and have bright prospects school and one devotional meeting are ing closed with the initiation of new held each quarter.

FALL FOOT-SHAKING WILL BEGIN ON FRIDAY AFTER THE THANKSGIVING GAME

LOOK OUT

WILD CATS!

Carolina Club Orchestra Will Furnish Music-Large Number of Pretty Girls Expected.

At a meeting of the fall dance lead ers it was decided that the Carolina He began his lecture by raising the Club Orchestra would furnish the music question, "What is the story of creatfor the dances which are to begin Frition?" which he defined as being "an day after Thanksgiving and end Saturning with the nebulous mass which at R. Z. Linney and Charlie Laughing-ing the planets as we know them to- in the gym. Saturday afternoon the cal laws, was caused to contract be- will lead with Cartwright Carmichael man and will be led by "Johnnie" quintet, one of the male quartet, the will enter the Charlotte fray in good State-Georgia Tech and Yale-Princeton interior mass, which turned faster as Johnston, leader, Icey Little and Watts which finally broke up into separate | Those attending the game at Charbodies, forming the stars and planets lottesville will have no trouble getting cooled, and water collected on them, be as good, according to the early dope, forming oceans. As the cooling pro- as any in Virginia and only one will gressed, the crusts of the planets be- be script. Every student is eligible for came irregular and formed continents. the dances and invited to attend, ex-By comparison with other planets, cept freshmen. Sophomores will not be Mr. Serviss showed that the earth was allowed to attend the Friday night destined to become a barren, lifeless prom but are eligible to all the others. body as the moon is now, and that According to Jonnie Bonner, secretary Mars has almost reached that stage, and treasurer of the German Club, the Mr. Serviss concluded his lecture by a German Club dance will extract about

The usual number of girls are expected; also quite a few debutantes plan to make their first appearance on the Hill. There will be an unusual number of out-of-state girls present.

Manager Martin Carmichael, of the Carolina Club Orchestra, has just returned with his group of musicians from Tarboro, where their success was the talk of the town. The orchestra have the very latest in music. Because

All the dances will be given under the pledge system. They will be given in the gymnasium with the exception of the Gimghoul dance at the Junior

Sunday morning this old bit of poetry may run through the minds of those who have rushed back the 200 or so miles from Charlottesville:

"This old world we're livin' in Is mighty hard to beat; We get a thorn with every rose, But ain't the roses sweet?"

FRESH DEBATING SOCIETY OPPOSES FRESHMAN CAPS

A heated argument was held in the peared in Europe and North America ship a delegation was sent to Italy, Miss Learned sang an appropriate Freshman Debating Society Monday out in Europe. He mentioned the fact tralia to study their plans of state aid left for a two weeks' stay in Ashe. society should go on record favoring over an hour. The society voted, by a small majority, to go on record as against the issue.

The society is planning to have a HAS ENJOYABLE SOCIAL smoker some time before the quarter is over. Each member is to invite his Miss Edith Moose, of Russell Inn, faculty-counselor to the smoker. The

The Buncombe County Club, ranking In order to carry out successfully the with its 80-odd members as one of the games which clever wits and ingenuity largest county clubs on the campus, met PRESIDENT LAW CLASS had contrived, the company was divided last Tuesday night. Dr. Branson, the into three groups-one for each room. speaker of the evening, interestingly Every time a "queen" or one of her and instructively pictured the possibili-Sam Cathey was chosen president by "knights" won any contest, the queen ties in agriculture and industry in the of the state at the Teachers' Assembly the first year law class last Tuesday received a punch on her card. Punches county, only awaiting the touch of morning, in an election attended by the were sometimes given to every "queen" trained men to appreciate their value. The blanks ask for the following in- usual amount of politics. Watts Hill, on a winning side. When the laughable Several committees were appointed to formation: Name of school or college; his nearest competitor, became vice- fun-making was over and the delicious serve for the smoker to be given by the number and nature of physics courses president, P. C. Froneberger treasurer, refreshments were caten, Miss Moose, club December 7. Fred Herron gave a offered; text-books used; length and and C. C. Poindexter secretary. All with nine punches on her card, received short to the point talk, emphasizing the need of co-operation between alumni