

The Tar Heel

TODAY
EDITORIAL BOARD MEETING
TAR HEEL OFFICE 8:30 P. M.

TODAY
PHILOLOGICAL CLUB
PARISH HOUSE 7:30 P. M.

VOLUME XXXVI

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., TUESDAY NOVEMBER 1, 1927

NUMBER 17

AMERICAN POET TO SPEAK HERE THURSDAY NIGHT

Bliss Carman to Read Poems and Lecture in Gerrard Hall.

Bliss Carman, celebrated American poet who will read from his poems and talk informally in Gerrard Hall Thursday evening at 8:30, is best known for his co-authorship with Richard Hovey of "The Songs from Vagabondia," a series of three volumes of lyrics. Although he is one of the modern poets, he really belongs to the school of a generation ago.

"The Songs from Vagabondia" are among the most popular lyrics published in the present generation. Weirick in his "From Whitman to Sanberg in American Poetry" says of these works "Theirs is the poetry of college youth, American college youth, off together on a vacation, roughing it some, seeking adventure in action or amours, enamoured of nature's mystery and beauty, holding conventions, except fraternity conventions, in abeyance if not in contempt, and united in friendship that is more varied and enduring than love. It is gay, boisterous, youthful poetry."

Mr. Carman is brought here by the University lecture committee, and his reading and talk will be the second event of the regular schedule of University lectures for the year. Will Durant delivered the first University lecture of the year when he spoke on "Is Progress a Delusion?" in Memorial Hall two weeks ago.

There will be no admission charge.

CHEERIOS WORK FROM SIDELINES

Organization Affords Entertainment for Spectators and Support for Team.

Nearly three hundred Cheerios invaded Raleigh Saturday for the State game and were applauded frequently by State College students and spectators.

The Cheerios, dressed in uniforms of blue and white caps, marched on Riddick field led by the University band, saluted the State college student body, and then gave the State yell and song. When the Cheerios had taken their seats in the reserved section on the fifty yard line, the University band marched to the center of the field to meet the State college band and join with them in the playing of North Carolina's song, "The Old North State." For the moment all rivalry between the two institutions who would soon meet in bitter combat was forgotten, and two rival student bodies sang the song which makes a state stand to attention.

During the half the Cheerios again showed excellent spirit when they followed Petty Waddell onto the field and from the confused mass of boys quickly formed N. C. S., and afterwards, U. N. C., giving a yell for each institution respectively. After they left the field this time they left their imprint, U. N. C., in confetti, which remained throughout the game.

After the game the Cheerios followed the defeated team to the dressing room and gave a yell for each member of the team and for each substitute who saw service in the game.

The Cheerios were given transportation on the special train and were admitted to the game free. From the time they led the parade from the train until they were sleepily returning to Chapel Hill, the Cheerios and the band afforded the University alumni from far and near something to talk about, and the student body something to be proud of.

Frosh Class To Nominate Officers Thursday Morning

Nominations for Freshman Class officers will take place Thursday morning at the regular Chapel period, according to an announcement sent out by Chas. Jonas, president of the student body yesterday. The class elections will be held on the 11th of this month.

All men who are candidates for officers will be given an opportunity to address the members of the Freshman Class on Monday and Tuesday mornings at chapel period.

Tar Heels to Play Davidson In Kenan Memorial Stadium

Last of North Carolina Opponents Will be Met in New $300,000
Concrete Memorial November 12; Will Be Formally Dedicated at Turkey Day Game with Virginia.

The new 300,000 dollar stadium given to the University by William Rand Kenan, Jr., will be used for the first time for the Davidson game which will be played November 12, according to information from the office of C. T. Woolen, graduate manager of athletics yesterday.

Davidson will be the last North Carolina team to be played at Chapel Hill this season. While the attendance will hardly equal that of the Virginia game, advance sale of tickets indicates that a large crowd will be present.

The board of directors of the Alumni Association, which will be in session here at that time, will be present at the game.

The stadium will not be dedicated until the annual Virginia game which is set for Thanksgiving.

Work has been nearly completed on the field house, and the seats are almost all numbered, which, when done, will finish the construction, which has been under way since last Thanksgiving, and has caused considerable worry at times when it appeared that it could not be finished in time for the final game of the season.

DANIELS SPEAKS TO N. C. C. P. A.

Session of College Journalists
Closes With Addresses by Noted Newspapermen.

The fall meeting of the North Carolina Collegiate Press Association, which was in session at State and Meredith Colleges the last three days of the past week, was brought to a close Saturday with a brief speech by Jonathan Daniels, Washington correspondent of the Raleigh News and Observer, upon the problems which the college editor faces.

Mr. Daniels spoke in favor of freedom of opinion and protection of the rights of the minority by the college press. "Faculty censorship of college publications is absolutely indefensible," he stated, "because it develops a slave psychology in the student editor, and tends to make him accept the dictation of the same ignorant censoring elements in after life."

H. L. Hester, editor of the Duke Chronicle, presided over the sessions of the meeting of the Association. He was elected president at the session held at N. C. C. W. last spring. Dave Carroll, associate editor of the Tar Heel, is first vice-president of the Association.

Features of the convention were speeches by Dr. E. C. Brooks, president of State College, W. T. Bost, Raleigh correspondent of the Greensboro Daily News, J. C. Baskerville, manager of the Raleigh Bureau of the North Carolina Association of Evening Newspapers, the showing of the Associated Press' moving picture of the newspaper business, and two banquets.

"Good will should be the touchstone that will guide the newspaper man in approximating the truth in his work," Dr. Brooks said in addressing the delegates at the luncheon given them by State College and the Raleigh News and Observer. Dr. Brooks stated that he realized the benefits derived from a critical spirit in both the professional and collegiate press, but emphasized the fact that criticism should be tempered with good will.

(Continued on page four)

WALKER FILLS MOSS'S PULPIT

Minister Decries Thoughtless-ness Noticeable on Campuses of Today.

The pulpit at the Presbyterian church was filled Sunday night by Rev. J. W. Walker who is to take up his work at State College right away. "Parson" Moss presented the visitor who could have well passed as an upper classman in college here, explaining that there was a hard task ahead of him, as he is entering a new field, and has his church to build at State. His sermon here was his first in North Carolina.

Reverend Walker made a distinct impression on the congregation, which consisted mostly of students. Just out of college, he knows the college man and his problems, and can talk to students in a way that is peculiarly successful.

In a short address, he decried the great amount of thoughtlessness so noticeable on any campus today, stating his belief that most of the many so-called vices, sins, and faults of the present day college man can be attributed directly to that habit.

ALUMNI BOARD TO MEET THIS MONTH

Andrews Acting in Presidential Capacity Because of Illness of President Scales.

Vice president A. B. Andrews, of Raleigh, who is acting as president due to the poor health of President A. M. Scales, has a call for a meeting of the Alumni Board for November 12, J. M. Saunders, alumni secretary, announced yesterday.

This meeting is to prepare for the general assembly which is to meet beginning November 23. Reports for the year which ended October 1 will be drawn up at this meeting.

Members of the board are: LeRoy Springs, Lancaster, S. C.; C. O'H. Laughinghouse, Raleigh; H. M. London, Raleigh; T. Holt Haywood, New York; E. B. Jeffress, Greensboro; and Kenneth Hoyal, Goldsboro. Class directors are: F. L. Carr, '95, Wilson; W. T. Shore, '05, Charlotte; Benjamin Cone, '20, Greensboro. Directors for the several districts are: first, J. S. Massenbun, Hendersonville, second, L. T. Hartsell, Concord; third, R. A. Spauld, Jr., Winston-Salem; fourth, Leo Carr, Burlington; fifth, T. A. DeVane, Fayetteville; sixth, L. P. McLendon, Durham; seventh, Kenneth Gant, Raleigh, eighth, J. A. Pritchett, Windsor; ninth, J. F. Patterson, New Bern; tenth, L. W. Parker, Charles- ton, S. C.; eleventh, Wade H. Atkinson, Washington, D. C.; twelfth, St. Clair Hester, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The finance committee is composed of George Watts Hill, treasurer and chairman, of Durham; S. W. Cramer, Jr., Cameron; and Herman Cone, Greensboro.

PLAYMAKER TOUR INCLUDES MANY NORTHERN CITIES

Group of Fifteen to Make Annual Fall Trip With Dramatic Organization.

The itinerary and the personnel of the northern tour of the Carolina Playmakers has been completed. The group of students and professors will be on tour from November 12 to 25. While gone the Playmakers will play in New York on November 18 and 19 and they have also been asked by Yale University to give a special Sunday performance on the 20th in their theatre at the college.

The plays taken on tour will be "Scuffletown Outlaws," "Lighted Candles," "Fixin's" and "On Dixon's Porch." "Lighted Candles" will be played in all the towns where a performance of "Fixin's" has been previously given.

Those making the northern tour are Misses Josephine Sharkey, Helen Dortch, and Katharine Batts; Messrs. Hubert Heffner, Luke Wallace, John Harden, Shepard Strudwick, Charles Graham, Howard W. Bailey, William Cox, C. E. Graham, electrician, David Avner, carpenter, Dougald Cox, properties, Samuel Seldon, stage manager, and F. H. Koch, director.

Starting with Roxboro, N. C. on November 11 the Playmakers will play at Hollins, Va.; Williamsburg, Va.; Frederick, Maryland; Reading, Penn.; New York City, N. Y.; Philadelphia, Penn.; Baltimore, Maryland; Richmond, Va.; and Norfolk, Va.; returning to Chapel Hill on the 26 of November.

WAGER SEES NO PROSPECTS FOR LOWER BUDGETS

Proposes to Tax "Spenders" for Additional Revenues; Will Be Necessary by 1930.

"I see no prospects for reduced budgets—in fact, they are more likely to be larger than smaller, and we might as well plan to raise twenty millions annually for the state general fund, as we will need it by 1930," Paul M. Wager, of the Sociology department of the University, asserted last night in the second of the series of tax studies that the North Carolina Club is undertaking this year.

Mr. Wager, who is secretary of the club, stated that the only hope of relief for the taxpayer, as he sees it, lies in more efficient administration, more thoroughgoing and more equitable assessments, the building up of taxable resources, sound fiscal operations, and a gradual reduction of the interest charges through the liquidation of the debt. Stating that it would be presumptuous for him to make any definite proposals in the interest of an improved tax system, he said that he would conclude his remarks, however, by a few more or less obvious observations.

"The additional revenues which will be necessary for the state should be sought from such sources as are now bearing the minimum load or from sources which can carry a heavier load without reacting unfavorably on the development of the state," he said.

"Manufacturers are opposed to any further tax on industries; with agriculture in its present depressed state there can be no increase in property; it may therefore be necessary to levy some form of tax on "spenders." The success of the gasoline tax reveals how easily such a tax can be levied and how little protest it creates. A 10 per cent sales tax on tobacco would yield nearly two million dollars a year for the state. Perhaps there might be a tax on movies and the-

(Continued on page four)

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR TRACK SQUAD

Much Material to Build Team
From Despite Loss of Some Stars by Graduation.

Carolina's track team, which has been making good records during past years, faces the hardest schedule it has had yet, according to Dale Ransom.

Several of the mainstays of the squad were graduated last spring, while several of the colleges on the schedule have the best teams in their history, particularly Duke.

In the distance events the Tar Heels are very strong, having Galen Elliott and Hoyt Pritchett, captain, who have made and broken records, and are well known for their work.

Sandlin, one of the best in javelin and hurdles, is not at present in school, but is expected back before the season begins.

About the weakest department is the high jump. It is mostly inexperienced men who are working in that line.

Coach Ransom is anxious to confer with all men who expect or are expected to come out for track this spring, and asks that all who are listed below, and any others, see him at the stadium in the next day or two, if they have not done so.

The men who have had experience in different events are as follows: Dashes—J. K. Smith, C. L. Smith, Mac Gray, Harrison, and Grimes.

440—Harrison, Nims, R. F. Lowry, George Hamer, Farris, Koenig.

880—Horney, Nims, Miller, Devine, all of whom are sophomores.

1 Mile—Elliott, Barkley, Wrenn, Brown, Fisher.

2 mile—Pritchard (captain), Henderson, Gallagher, Lowry.

Hurdles—Pearson, Purser, Hadley, W. W. Smith, Perry, Fort, Sandlin.

Shot put—Evans, Koenig, Lipscomb, Adkins, McIver.

Discus—Harper, Colburn, Lipscomb. Javelin—Myers, Sandlin, Harper, Leach, Lowry, McNeely, McNinch.

Pole Vault—Cowper, Dry, Bass, Federal.

High Jump—Purser, Pearson, Buck, J. W. Patterson, W. W. Smith.

Broad Jump—Fort, Gray, Sandlin, McNinch.

McDowell Leads State to 19 to 6 Victory over Tar Heels on Riddick Field

NOTICE!
All men interested in working on the Yackety Yack editorial staff are requested to meet at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Yackety Yack office in the basement of Alumni Building.
THE EDITOR.

CINDERMEN WIN AT N. C. STATE

Freshmen and Varsity Victorious in Opening Cross Country Meet.

The Tar Heels did not lose quite everything at State the past Saturday, as both freshman and varsity cross-country teams turned in easy victories over the Wolfpack opposition.

Six Carolina men, Pritchett, Henderson, Gallagher, Barkley, Fisher, and Cox, came in together to tie for the first six places. The others, who also ran, came in in the following order: Brimley, captain (S), Hoyle (S), Redfern (S), Alexander (S), Ford (S), Loman (S), and Wrenn (C).

To see the six Blue and White clad runners trotting in together, as fresh as though there had been no race, gave thrills to the spectators. The score, 15 to 45, was the highest that Carolina could possibly win in the race. Elliott, a sure winner, did not run, as he was slightly indisposed, and the coaches were confident he would not be needed.

The Tar Babies did not gain quite such an overwhelming victory. Their score was 20 to 39. The order in which the freshmen finished is: Bacon (C), De Rosset (C), Stovall (S), R. Fisher (C), Johnson (S), Carbine (C), Ferrell (C), C. Fisher (C), Ashe (S), Taserall (S), Tilley (C), Shepherd (S), Stevens (S), Page (S).

Ed Ferrell was elected captain of the freshman team not long before the meet. He is from Asheville, and has a good record from that school.

Saturday next, the varsity meets Duke here. The team from there is said to have some very good distance men, especially Woodard and Tuddle.

Later in the year, the Southern Conference cross country meet will be held here.

H. P. Seiwel Will Take Long Cruise

Will Circumnavigate Globe on Geological Study Expedition.

A subscription to the Alumni Review was received yesterday by the Alumni office from H. P. Seiwel, who is doing special work in oceanography at the University of California, in preparation for his work while on the scientific expedition which starts next May first for a several years cruise for the purpose of doing research work in the oceans.

The party will circumnavigate the globe several times on the cruise, will visit the seven oceans, and will approach as near the two poles as possible.

Mr. Seiwel, who was graduate from here the past spring with a degree of B. S. in Geology, will be in charge of the chemical and biological work.

Cunningham Gives Playmaker Reading

State College Professor Reads from Eugene O'Neill's "Harry Ape."

Sunday night at the Playmaker theatre, Professor C. C. Cunningham of the English department of N. C. State College, read from Eugene O'Neill's "Harry Ape."

Professor Cunningham interpreted the play throughout in perfect dialect, showing the character of the Harry Ape without reading the entire play and losing the sympathy of his audience. He has read the play before many audiences, and spoke of the work of O'Neill before his interpretation.

Professor Cunningham is professor of public speaking at State College. He trained the winners of the National Oratorical Contest held last year in Los Angeles.

Wolfpack Resorts to Aerial Battle to Defeat Carolina
Eleven.

Touchdowns in First, Second, and Fourth Periods Give Pack
First Victory Over Carolina
Since 1921; Heels Score in Fourth Period.

Verily the lean years of the gridiron are upon us! For five full years the Tar Heels have swept victorious over the best N. C. State's Wolfpack could offer, but on last Saturday afternoon a starved and hungry Pack romped out on Riddick Field in Raleigh and gorged themselves in a 19 to 6 victory over the Hillians.

What matters the score? And yet historians demand that the stories of such victories be set down for posterity in cold and heartless figures. 'Tis a pity that posterity could not have seen that game, for truly 'twas a game worth watching.

The game was full of football. There was some brilliant football played by both sides, football that fairly scintillated. Then, too, there was some very, very mediocre football shown, that also being split between the two opposing teams. But, good or bad, it was a game for spectators to watch.

It was spectacular football of the wide open and overhead type that even the dumbest of the "beautiful but dumbs" can see and rave over. Close formations were tried by both sides, and for both sides they failed. The scores all came directly or indirectly from splendid aerial shots off the hands of McDowell, Adams, Gresham, Ward, or Whisnant.

Throughout five years State College has placed her faith in ponderous juggernauts of the gridiron. A massive line and a slow and ponderous backfield had tried and failed for half a decade to do what one nimble footed and nimble witted Florida lad did in one short hour.

McDowell Was Great!

That boy McDowell was great. That is the only word that describes him, although for many Tar Heel supporters he was the oft-mentioned "arsenic." For three seasons he has pastimed over the football field for State, approaching but never quite attaining greatness. He was never consistent before.

This year he arrived. Since the earliest moments of the campaign his praises have echoed from Florida to

(Continued from page three)

PROPOSED QUERY SENT TO STATE HIGH DEBATERS

McNary-Hagen Bill is Tentative
Subject for High School
Debate in 1928.

Letters have been mailed to the high schools of the state by F. R. Rankin, secretary of the N. C. High School Debating Union, in which the opinion of the officials of the different schools is asked concerning the proposed query for the debate this year which is "Resolved, that Congress should enact the McNary-Hagen Bill for farm relief."

Whether this topic shall be used depends on the favor with which it is received by the schools. Mr. Rankin said, and pointed out in the letter reasons for suggesting that subject. The schools are asked by him to send in information as to their intentions of participating in the debate this year, and of other schools that might be interested in taking part.

As usual, the final winner will be awarded the Aycock Memorial Cup at the University.

Prof. McKie Wants Information from Debaters

Every candidate for the debate with the British Students' team, it was announced by Professor George McKie yesterday, is to hand in to him by November 2nd or as soon as possible an outline of the question with a statement of the issues involved. A statement of the reading done should accompany the outline. Each candidate is also requested to indicate whether he wishes the University to take the affirmative or the negative side of the question or whether he wants split teams.