

Harry Mehre, Georgia's head Coach from Notre Dame, used some of Rockne's old tactics when he started the second team against Mercer. They scored a touchdown in the first period. Then the varsity entered the game and proceeded to score 46 additional points.

BOSTONIANS

The KILKENNY

OVER TWO MILLION WELL-DRESSED MEN can't be wrong. What have they found in Bostonians? Style certainly—Bostonians are famed for that. Comfort—that's a big factor in Bostonians' creed. And surely $7 to $10 is a modest price for quality and long wear.

Gentlemen:

Having been a user of Edgeworth for over eight years, I can truthfully say that it is the best on earth. I am enclosing a little ditty that I believe expresses my sentiments entirely:

Old Man Joy and Old Man Trouble
Went out for a walk one day.
I happened to pass when they met
on the street
And I overheard them say,
Said Old Man Trouble, "She's as
wrong as she can be,
There ain't no fun in anything to me, why
I was just talking' to Old Man
Sorrow,
And he says the world will end
tomorrow."
Then Old Man Joy he started to
grin,
And I saw him bring out that
OLD BLUE TIN,
Then OLD JOHNNY BRIAR was
next on the scene,
And he packed him full from the
OLD BLUE TIN,
And I heard him say as he walked
away,
"You have to have a smoke screen
every day.
When a man gets the blues, and he
needs a friend,
He can find consolation in the OLD
BLUE TIN,
And I jist don't believe on all this earth
There's a thing that'll match good old EDGEWORTH."
Yours very truly,
F. H. McMurray

U.N.C. Meets "Big Three" Team
For First Time Since Yale Game

Game with Harvard Next Saturday Recalls Days of the Northern Contests Before 1924.

When the University of North Carolina grid squad invades Harvard Stadium at Cambridge, it will be the first time a Tar Heel team has faced one of the "Big Three" since 1924. At that time Yale was a regular member of the Carolina schedule.

Time was when the Tar Heels met two of the "Big Three" outfits on the same schedule, and indeed battled two of the big boys on successive Saturdays. That was back in 1916 when Dave Tayloe, Raby Tennent, Bill Folger, and Yank Tandy were members of the Tar Heel eleven. That season saw the Tar Heels meet Princeton, Harvard, and Georgia Tech in succession and give all three teams a merry time.

The lads from Down Home held Princeton to 29 to 0, dropped a hard fought game to Harvard 21 to 0, and then fought Georgia Tech to a standstill, losing by one touchdown margin. The team that goes to Cambridge next week to meet the Crimson there is another hard charging, fighting outfit. The Crimson is another hard charging, fighting outfit. The Crimson may win next week, but Arnold Horween's charges will know they've been in a scrap.

This 1928 Tar Heel team has another strong line, with numerous promising young backs. The Tar Heels are trained under the Notre Dame system.

The North Carolina schedule for this year has no easy spots. Following the Harvard battle, the Tar Heels meet V. P. I., Georgia Tech, N. C. State, South Carolina, Davidson, Virginia and Duke before the moleskins are packed away for the winter.

GRIDMEN TO MEET
V. P. I. AND TECH IN NEXT HOME GAMES

Gobblers and Tar Heels Have Not Met Since the World War.

The University of North Carolina gridmen invade northern fields to meet Harvard this week-end, but the Tar Heels return home on the last two Saturdays in October to meet two tough Southern Conference foes in succession.

The V. P. I. Gobblers furnish the opposition for the Tar Heels in the next home game in Kenan Memorial Stadium here on Saturday, October 20; and Georgia Tech's Golden Cornado is brewing a young storm to turn loose in the Stadium here on the following Saturday, October 27. Both contests will have important bearing on Southern Conference titular ranking.

The Gobblers and Tar Heel have not met since the world war. The Gobblers are reported to be exceptionally strong this year which means that the Tar Heels will have their hands full on that particular afternoon.

October 13 might well be designated as the day of the Southern Invasion. Yale, Harvard and Princeton will all play hosts to Southern Conference elevens—Georgia, Carolina and Virginia respectively, while Virginia Poly will travel to Hamilton, New York, to attempt to repeat their 1927 triumph over Colgate. Georgia will also enter the Yale game as past victors. The day before Harvard and Carolina meet, Duke tackles Boston College in a Columbus Day feature.

Send the TAR HEEL home.

Intramural Teams Will Start Annual Mauling 4:00 Today

The two leagues of the Intramural football schedule begin their championship drive on the Intramural fields today at 4:00 o'clock. Thirteen dormitories and seven fraternities will start the march pennantward.

The race is open this year, with any team entered liable to carry off the bunting, as New Dorms, last year's scintillating champions have lost every old man of the championship array, while Sigma Phi Sigma, last season's Greek letter champs, has not entered the race. This leaves both league winners out of the running practically, so some newcomer will step into a title this fall.

This year the games will be run on a somewhat altered style or plan, with contests scheduled on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of each week only. This leaves Monday for the week-enders to recuperate and Friday for them to start again. This move was made in an attempt to eliminate as many forfeits as possible, and all of them if possible. To make up for the games that might otherwise be lost on Monday and Friday, a third field has been prepared on the huge Intramural plot, located next to the old fields, adjoining the woods opposite the Freshman Field.

Games will start at four and five to clear the fields for the five o'clock order to finish without bringing in games and the five o'clock games in artificial lighting facilities.

Presenting

CHARLIE CHAPLIN

in the blindfold cigarette test

Famous star selects OLD GOLD

"One cigarette of the four I smoked in the blindfold test was like shooting a scene successfully after a whole series of failures. It just 'clicked' and I named it as my choice. It was OLD GOLD. Which clears up a mystery, for the supply of OLD GOLDS in my Beverly Hills home is constantly being depleted. It seems that Strongheart and Rin-tin-tin are the only motion picture stars who don't smoke them."

Charlie Chaplin

Made from the heart-leaves
of the tobacco plant

MR. CHAPLIN was asked to smoke each of the four leading brands, clearing his taste with coffee between smokes. Only one question was asked: "Which one do you like the best?"

CHARLIE CHAPLIN . . . movie favorite the world over, in one of his best-loved pictures—"The Circus."

How does OLD GOLD do it?

What's the secret of OLD GOLD's winning charm? The answer is very simple. Three types of leaves grow on the tobacco plant . . . coarse, heavy top-leaves, irritating to the throat . . . withered ground-leaves, without taste or aroma . . . and the heart-leaves, rich in cool and fragrant smoking qualities. These golden-ripe heart-leaves give OLD GOLDS their honey-like smoothness. That's why so many people choose them. And that's why you too can pick them . . . even in the dark.
