

Heels Nose Win Over State By Margin of A Stumped Toe

THRILLING GAME ENDS IN A FLUKE

Fourth Nose Victory Over State This Year.

The Tar Heels continued their string of uninterrupted victories Monday afternoon on Emerson Field when they edged out a 6-5 win over the N. C. State Wolfpack in one of the best games that has ever been played on the home diamond. This is the fourth time this year that Carolina teams have nosed State teams out of a victory at the last moment.

Paxton scored the winning run in the tenth inning in a most unbecoming ending to this game of games. Jessup walked after two were out. Paxton was sent in to run for him and gained third base when Catcher Eatman's peg to second went out in centerfield. Captain Luffy was then purposely walked by Averette and it appeared that Jackson would also be given a free base. However, Averette pitched to Jackson and a weak grounder that Averette could not field gave the Heels the victory.

Brake, centerfielder, provided the sensation of the game when he caught a hot drive of Satterfield's in left-center with his bare hand in the fourth inning. Tommy Coxe also gave the fans a thrill when he made a dive and caught Eatman's fly to block a State tally in the second frame.

Wright and Ball did the hurling for Carolina while Allgood, State's captain, started on the mound for the visitors, and later gave way to Shore and Averette. Ball was credited with the victory.

Friday, the Heels continue their quest for Tri State honors when they meet V.P.I. on Emerson field. The Carolina nine won a 8-2 victory over the V. P. I. team while on their northern trip into Virginia and Maryland. Rand, Tar Heel second baseman, was knocked out by a pitched ball in this game, but secured a double at his next turn at bat scoring two men.

Fleming is the probable choice to hold down the mound for the Heels Friday, as Coach Ashmore will likely save Ball for the game with the Duke Blue Devils Saturday. Rand has not yet recovered from the injury that he suffered in the V. P. I. game so Jackson will continue holding down his place at second base.

COUNTRY CLUB TO STAGE TOURNEY

Bradshaw and MacMillan Tie With Wilson and Curlee in Tourney Held Last Saturday.

The Spring Matched Play Handicap Golf Tournament which is the climax of a series of tournaments that the Country Club has sponsored during the spring is to begin immediately, according to an announcement by Jefferson Bynum, chairman of the Golf Committee of the Club. This tournament is in the nature of an elimination contest, and players are now being paired off for the first round of play which is to begin at once. Players will be notified in the immediate future of the number of strokes that they are allowed for each hole.

The last tournament sponsored by the Club was a two-ball foursome that was played last Saturday. The golf committee was very pleased by the large number of contestants that entered this last event. Over thirty members of the club took part, and the interest displayed showed that the good golfing weather that Chapel Hill has enjoyed for the past two weeks is stirring up even more interest in the coming tournament.

The prizes which will be given to the final winners of the Spring Handicap Tournament are a golf bag for the winner of first place and a dozen golf balls for the runner up. These prizes are being donated by Sutton's Book and Stationery Store which handles golf goods in the village.

In the tournament last Saturday, two pairs tied for first place. Dean Bradshaw and Louis MacMillan as one pair and T. J. Wilson and Mr. Curlee as the other turned in the same score for the course. These men received two Crowflight golf balls, given by Sutton's, as first place prizes, and Dr. Lawson and J. B. Linker won two balls apiece as second prizes.

Winston-Salem, N. C., had a player named Rye in its lineup during the last season and in several games Bud Weiser, a reserve, was sent in to pinch hit for him.

Auburn Wright

Auburn Wright is one of the rookie pitchers who have kept the Heels in the running this year. Beginning his first season of college baseball, Wright has developed fast and is now one of the three regular pitchers on the squad. Since he worked only five innings against State last Monday it is likely that he will see service when the Heels hook up with V.P.I. on Emerson Field Friday. In the event that Ashmore sends Fleming, his other rookie hurler, against the cadets Wright will probably be held in reserve to relieve Ball in the Duke fray. So far this season Wright has turned in a fine record.

FRESHMAN NINE MEETS DAVIDSON

Third Big Five Game for the Tar Babies This Season.

After losing their first two games in the Big Five to the Duke Blue Imps and the Wake Forest Frosh, the Tar Babies return to the home lot to play the Davidson first year men Friday afternoon. The Carolina Frosh have had an in and out season. After winning from several high school teams, including a no-hit over Danville, the Tar Babies looked good, but they have not come up to expectations in their big games. While the hitting has been good, the pitching has been weak, and the fielding has been uncertain. However the Tar Babies are due to start tomorrow against Davidson. Green or Layton will probably take the mound as they are the most likely looking pitchers on the squad. The probable line-up will include Wall at first, Waterhouse at second, Branch at short, Moore at third, and Kushner catching. In the outfield there will be Belton, Daniels, Cozart, and Gill. After the Davidson game the Tar Baby schedule calls for six more games all with prep schools or with freshmen teams. The schedule for the remaining games: Wake Forest Frosh at Chapel Hill, May 4. State Frosh at Raleigh, May 15. Woodberry Forest Frosh at Orange, Va., May 16. Virginia Frosh at Lexington, May 17. State Frosh at Chapel Hill, May 21.

At the Carolina

Another program of excellent pictures has been announced by Manager E. C. Smith for a showing at the Carolina Theatre this week.

Tuesday the feature was "Uncle Tom's Cabin," the two-million dollar picture based on the famous novel by Harriet Beecher Stowe, one of the biggest pictures of the year. Wednesday Alice White appeared in "Hot Stuff" and today Buster Keaton, the wooden-faced comedian will be shown in "Spite Marriage." For Saturday the feature is Reginald Denny in "Night Bird," his latest and of course his best.

NETMEN DEFEAT HAMPTON SYDNEY

Six Teams to Be Met on Northern Tour.

On the eve of their departure for a northern tour, the Carolina netmen, holders of the state singles and doubles championship, defeated Hampton Sidney seven matches to two. The Tar Heels captured all of the singles matches, while the visitors succeeded in taking two out of three of the doubles matches.

The summary of the matches was as follows: Yeomans defeated Smith, 6-4, 6-1; Shapiro defeated Pumphrey, 6-4, 6-0; Merritt defeated Talbot, 6-0 11-9; Waddill defeated Sloan, 4-6, 6-3, 6-0; Norwood defeated McAllister 6-1, 6-3; Scott defeated Milburn, 6-3, 6-1. In the doubles Smith and Shapiro, 6-1, 6-4; Norwood and Waddill defeated Sloan and McAllister, 6-1, 6-0; Talbot and Milburn defeated Yeomans and Lassiter, 6-1, 11-9.

The Carolina netmen leave today for a northern tour of six meets. Among the teams that will be met are scheduled the following: New York University, Catholic U., Princeton, Maryland, Rutgers, and Georgetown.

WRESTLING TITLE WON BY DAVIDSON

Hill, Captain of Wildcat Team, Wins National Honor.

Tom Hill, Senior at Davidson and retiring Captain of the Wildcat wrestling team, brought wide recognition to his college last Saturday night by winning the 165-pound class of the Amateur Athletic National Federation's Wrestling Meet held in Richmond, Va. By virtue of his win over Walpole, Charleston, S.C. Hill gains the national amateur title in his class. A handsome medal was awarded the Davidson representative.

The meet at Richmond was the first to be attempted by the Federation. All college men, Y.M.C.A. men and members of the Army and Navy are eligible to enter the competition, which is expected to become an institution in amateur athletics of the country.

Jim Ball

Jim Ball has turned out to be Coach Ashmore's mainstay on the mound this spring. Last season Ball was used quite a bit as a relief hurler and gave promise of developing into a good pitcher. He is the only man on the team this year who has had previous experience in pitching college ball and has turned in some fine performances. Monday he relieved Wright in the sixth inning of the State game and succeeded in chalking up another win for the Heels after a close struggle. He will probably be the starting pitcher when the Tar Heels meet the Blue Devils Saturday in Durham.

Throughout the past season, Captain Hill was one of the most reliable men on the varsity mat squad, and although wrestling out of his weight on many occasions, he never failed to make a good showing.

To Build School for Eskimos in the Arctic

Corner stone of the farthest north schoolhouse on the American Continent has been laid at Barrow, Alaska, according to recent announcement of the United States Bureau of Education, Alaska division. The building, including necessary equipment and supplies, cost $16,000, and is for native Eskimo children. The corner stone, a solid truncated prism of concrete, was placed upon a firm foundation of blue glacier ice 18 inches below the surface of the sand, and above the high-water mark. Supplies for the school and 165 tons of building material were brought by the Government ship Boxer on its annual visit to Barrow. The chief of the Alaska division of the bureau, officers of the S. S. Boxer, superintendents, teachers and local friends, traders, and whalers at Barrow assisted in the ceremonies, in the presence of about 200 Eskimos and a dozen white people. The corner stone was christened with seal oil, poured by and old walrus hunter and whaler of the locality, formerly of San Francisco. An appropriate background for the occasion was furnished by great ice fields grounded along the coast as far as eye could see and the S. S. Boxer, which was ready to lift anchor and maneuver for safety should the ice-pack shift in that direction.—School Life.
