

Dance Committee, HPB Present Rules Frat Houses Congratulated On Situation

Adams Lauds Men For Cooperation

In a statement to the Tar Heel, Art Adams, chairman of the House Privileges Board, has congratulated fraternities and fraternity men for their recent cooperation with the HPB.

Not a single violation of the coed privileges agreement has come to the attention of the board in many weeks. Adams said that he appreciates this helpfulness and apparent awareness of the fraternity men to their obligations. The board hopes this situation will continue. In particular it would like to have off campus visitors informed of the rules and regulations which exist in fraternities at Carolina.

Not Police Force

"Fraternity men should realize that the house privileges board is not a police force for the enforcement of these rules. It is up to the individuals concerned to see that they are carried out," Adams said.

Following is the essence of the visiting privileges agreement which states the actual regulations. The HPB will continue to see that these rules are enforced as they have been in the past.

Rules

1. Only those organizations whose houses have been approved by the HPB shall be allowed coed visiting privileges.

2. Approved houses may entertain women students only in the social rooms, hall, porches, and dining halls of their houses.

3. Approved houses shall be open to coeds from 1 o'clock noon until the coed dormitory closing time.

4. There shall be no consumption of alcoholic beverages in the presence of or by coeds in the house or on the premises of any organization.

Violations of the rules of this agreement by any coed shall be considered an Honor Council offense.

Every organization is responsible for any violations of the rules of this agreement which occurs in its house or on its premises regardless of whether anyone concerned in the violation is a member of the organization.

Fine

"Violation of this agreement by any organization may be punished by a fine not to exceed fifty dollars on the responsible organization or the suspension of privileges for an indefinite period of time or both. In extreme cases the Board may deem it advisable to recommend to the Chancellor of the University that an organization be forced to suspend activities on this campus.

"All members of the IFC, HPB, and all coeds are bound by the Honor code to report violations of this agreement. Any of the above mentioned groups who fail to carry out this duty shall be liable to trial before the men's or women's Honor Council as the case may be."

German Club To Open Ranks

LaMotte Says All Groups May Apply

Charlie LaMotte, President of the German Club, has announced that the club plans a program of expansion starting after next week's midwinter dances. All groups interested in the club and able to meet its requirements are invited to contact LaMotte.

The German Club constitution states that any group of 30 or more student members, which is organized and willing to pay initiation fees and meets the approval of the executive committee of the club may send a delegate to the committee and have all its rights and privileges. This provision was adopted last November. Since that time four new organizations have become members. The club now hopes to increase its membership to include a larger representation of the campus.

The purpose of the club is to sponsor major campus dances such as this weekend's midwinters.

LaMotte also stated that anyone wishing to obtain a ticket for Saturday night's dance should contact either him or Charlie Vance. Each member of the club has one extra ticket available for the Saturday night dance.

Rules Given By Committee For Dance Set

Drinking, Smoking To Be Prohibited

The University Dance Committee offers the following suggestions regarding the regulations governing Carolina dances as they apply to the Mid-Winter Germans being held next weekend, Feb. 1 and 2.

1. Dress for the Friday dance will be strictly formal and no other dress will be permitted. Saturday night the dress is semi-formal, that is, the girls will wear evening gowns and the boys dressing informally.

2. As has been the custom here for several years, no flowers will be permitted except for the sponsors. The flowers for the sponsors will be provided by the German Club.

3. Drinking will not be permitted either at or about the dance, and anyone showing signs of drinking will be asked to leave the floor. We especially urge you to cooperate with us in the enforcement of this rule in order that just as embarrassing to us as they are to you.

4. No smoking will be permitted on the dance floor. The wooden floor and the highly inflammable decorations make this rule necessary as a fire-preventive measure.

5. No girls will be allowed to leave the dance with the intention of returning later on, unless they are accompanied by a chaperone.

6. We have arranged with some of the restaurants to stay open so that you can go downtown for food after the dances.

We earnestly solicit your cooperation in the observance of the above rules, and if we can be of any assistance to you at the dances, please feel free to call on us at any time.

Caldwell Opens Art, Poster Shop In Union Building

Latest addition to Graham Memorial facilities was disclosed last week with the opening of an art and poster shop in the basement of the Student union building.

Under the direction of Dallas Caldwell, third year art student, the shop is prepared to turn out posters for all occasions, decorations for dances, parties, and cartoons and signs of any kind.

Infantry Vet

He served with the 28th "Keystone" infantry division in the European Theatre of operations in combat and occupational duties. A resident of Chapel Hill, Caldwell plans to take an M.A. here and later teach art.

"My real ambition is to sculpture, but I must teach first, in order to make a living," he said. Main work for the snow sculpture in front of Person Hall should be accredited to the artistic efforts of Caldwell.
