E. W. Knight Is Author

Of New Education Book

Dr. Edgar W. Knight, Kenan professor of educational history in the University, and Dr. Clifton L. Hall, professor of educational history in George Peabody College for Teachers, are the joint authors of "Readings in American Educational History," which has just been published by Appleton-Century-Crofts of New York.

The purpose of the volume of more than 800 pages of several hundred caretully chosene original documents is to makel available to students and temchers of social and educational history original sources in the subject. The documents extend from the in this country in the early par

DR. EDGAR Wi Katurnt
"Another Contribution" of the 17 th centruy through 1950
The apparent recent revival o interest in social and education al history and the obvious increase of emphasis on acquaintance with original sources in the to the book.

Lost and Found Open
The lost and found ofrice op erated by the $Y$ is holding many thems or stuacent property. Amons during registration which eire stil unclaimed. The department requests anyone who has lost personal property to stop in and ask whether it has been brought to

Freshmen Meet Freshmen had a get-together last night at the "Y" to become better acquainted with each other and with the University. Dean of Students Fred Weaver addressed the group briefly by way of welcome and orientation The meeting was sponsored the " Y " Freshman Council.

Group Plans Devotionals

Brief inter-dencminational devotional services, sponsored by -he University inter-faith counIII, and the churches or Co be hapel Monday through Friday, at I p.m. in Gerrard hail during the sumner session.
Guest speakers from the stujent body and faculty as well as will preside over the services.
The interfaith council was recently organized by the Univer-ity to attempt to control and sity to attempt to control and direct religious activities of the direct religious activities of the campus and to put more emphais upon religion in higher eduation. Carroll R. Taylor, who will preside over today's devotional, is student president of the arganization. Dr. Arnold Nash, dean of the Religion Department, is advisor. Sarah Thurston, coed from Atweekly devotional piograms.

Band to Meet

University band is meeting for the rummer session at 4:30 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursproximately 30 people roported for band practice this wook and Allen Garreft, summer director, urges anyone else, who can play arges anyone else, who can play terested in folning the band, to attend next week's rehearsalk. Tentative summer schedule for the music group calls for a lawn concert at the and of certs will probably be given occasionally during the summer, Garrett said.

CLASSIFIEDS
STUDENTS EARN 81.25 a day dellvering The Daliy Tar Heel this finl winter and spring quartery micyel Rocesary Rotes hour to dellver Contacty. Neal C dieut. ADt. $21-\mathrm{B}$ Glen Lemnox.

Yow can enter es many pictures as you wish in this newipaper's conyou wih in your favorite one may win you es much os $$ 1500$. We have all popular alzes of Kodek Film as woll as expert photoflinishing servol lice. Woll see that you gei the best possible printe of eech ahot. Stop in today.

FOISTER'S CAMERA STORE, INC.

WHEN YOU ADD UP THESE SAVINGS!

Bacon, Ib. .......... 61

Faculer's

Food Store
West Franklin Street

