

Mural Softball Nears Finale

With the final week of intramural softball underway Waugus with a 4 and 0 record and the Mountaineers with a 5 and 1 record lead their respective leagues. The two winners will play off for the Campus Championships next week.

Alpha Kappa Psi with 3 and 1 is in striking distance of Waugus while the Mountaineers are trailed by Sigma Nu, (4 and 1).

Today's schedule is as follows:
4:00—field 1-Ruffin vs. Waugus, and field 2-Old East vs. Bullets.

5:00—field 1-Sig Chi vs. Alpha Kap Psi, and field 2-Chi Psi vs. Phi Kap Sig.

Moody Receives Coaching Slot

Jack Moody, recently graduated Carolina track star from Plainfield, N. J., has been named to a coaching and teaching position at Riverside Military Academy of Ganesville, Ga., and Hollywood, Fla.

Moody completed his eligibility here in February after setting numerous records and winning countless titles. He holds the Southern Conference outdoor, the University and the Carolina Relays high jump records.

GOLF RECORD TIED

Larry Parker, freshman golfer and football player, last Thursday tied the Finley Links record of 65 set two years ago by Harvie Ward.
