

Former UNC Track Ace Is Second In Decathlon

Former Carolina track star, Floyd "Chunk" Simmons, finished second in the 1951 Decathlon, held recently at Santa Barbara, Calif. This marked the second straight year that a former Tar Heel star has finished in the number two spot in this annual contest. Bill Albans, outstanding track star here two years ago, was runner-up to Bob Mathias last year.

This year's winner, the Rev. Bob Richards, topped 14 feet in the pole vault, to shoot him ahead of Simmons, who was leading going into the second day.

Simmons was outstanding in track here in 1946-47 and won the indoor and outdoor Southern Conference high hurdles championship both years. Track Coach Dale Ranson recognizes Simmons as one of the best trackmen to wear the Tar Heel colors.

Simmons left recently as a member of a 12-man team for Japan where he will compete in a series of 12 meets.

Table Tennis Champ

Skip Hoyle defeated Tommy Sumner, 21-18, 21-18, 21-18 and 21-12, in the table tennis finals last week, to emerge as top player of the Graham Memorial Tournament.

Dual Rolls For Athletes This Summer

Ernest Swartz, Vince Grimaldi, and Bud Maddy, Tar Heel basketball standouts last season, are making use of their summer months in a two-fold fashion, by playing basketball and working in the Adirondacks.

Grimaldi, at guard, and Maddy, center, were regulars on last season's team, while Swartz played a lot of ball at center. All three will be back this year.
