

of Drewyn, used in broad, tri-colored panels in the skirt and a high, choked type collar on the halter blouse, give this evening ensemble a regal air. It's not exactly the correct attire for the Midsummer Barefoot Ball at Hogan's next week, but we'd like to suggest it for those evening labs. As to the coed doing the modeling, she wasn't available for an interview but rumor has it that she's a sure bet for this year's Watermelon Queen.

Canterurians Hear Metcalf

The Canterbury Club will, in addition to its regular meeting Sunday night, have a watermelon cutting and swimming party tomorrow afternoon. All students who desire to go will meet at the Episcopal Parish House at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

The program on Sunday evening will consist of the usual supper meeting at 6 p.m. followed by a talk by the Rev. George Metcalf on his experiences as Student Chaplain at the University of Minnesota and his comparison of the situation there with that here.

Each evening, except Sunday, Evening Prayer is held in the chapel led by students. Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

-NOTICE-

I wish to announce to my friends and patrons that I have had to take over the management of THE PINES upon the leaving of the place by our former tenants who left without any notice to me.

I will continue to serve meals in the famous PINES manner.

Pike Honored By Two Groups At Supper Here

Dr. James A. Pike, chaplain and head of the Department of Religion at Columbia University, was guest of honor at a supper given Tuesday evening at the Methodist Church by members of the YWCA and Wesley Foundation, preceding his address in Gerrard Hall.

Other guests for the evening were Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Wettach, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Hanft, Dr. and Mrs. Arnold Nash, Mr. Claude Shotts, Miss Sally Roller, and The Rev. George Metcalf. Hostesses for the supper were Miss Gay Currie and Mrs. David Swain.

Dr. Pike was brought here by the Department of Religion in connection with its seminar, and spoke to the campus under the sponsorship of the YWCA. The topic of his address was "The Christian Faith."

Open Houses Thing Of Past In Coed Dorms

The coed dormitories' stand-by social, open-house, has been wholeheartedly replaced this summer by other forms of group entertainment, including watermelon parties and buffet dinners.

Last Thursday evening residents of Smith Hall entertained their dates with a buffet supper held in the dorm parlors. Mrs. Sedalia Gold, housemother, was hostess for the social.

A semi-formal dance was given last Friday by residents of Kenan Hall. Printed invitations were issued by the girls, and were presented at the door by the guests. Mrs. R. H. Wettach, dean of women, was guest of honor for the evening and was presented a corsage of gardenias. Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Victor Humphries, housemother.

Sunday morning breakfasts have been featured in Melver Hall. Breakfast was served to residents at 9:30 in the dorm parlors the first weekend of the session, and will be repeated this Sunday morning.

July fourth was celebrated by Carr Hall residents with a watermelon party held in front of the dorm. A similar watermelon party was held on the lawn of Spencer Hall for residents and their dates. Tonight Alderman Hall residents and dates will have a watermelon party on the women's dorm quadrangle lawns.

On Monday night a buffet supper was held by "C" dormitory.

AROUND CAMPUS

By MARY NELL BODDIE

Exams may be the chief factor in the immediate scheme of things, but pre and post exam parties will do their share in closing out the first summer session in true Tar Heel fashion.

Planning such beforehand socials are the Phi Deltas, KA's, Sigma Chi's, and Phi Gam's, while all the troops are invited to join forces for the first annual Barefoot Ball to be held Saturday, July 21, at Hogan's Lake. The Barefoot Ball will highlight the Mid-Summers weekend which is sponsored by the Summer Cotillion Club, and will feature the music of 30 of the nation's finest bands—on records, that is.

Tickets for the social may be obtained by contacting Summer Cotillion Club President Walter Allen, Pi Kappa Alpha; Vice-President Paul Edmundson, Sigma Nu; Secretary - Treasurer Weddell Harris, Phi Gamma Delta, or Social Chairman Johnny Carson, Sigma Nu.

A tad of originality plus a truckload of sawdust were combined by the Phi Kappa Sigs to bring a touch of the old Bowery to the campus for their house party. Brothers and dates came dressed as beach bums, and were entertained in the sawdust covered bar. Bert Wade of Greensboro won first prize as the "bummiest" beach bum present.

Monogram Club members and dates gathered at Hogan's last weekend for their annual summer weekend. Festivities began Friday night, and were resumed Saturday afternoon with a softball game and picnic supper.

Nags Head was the scene of the Phi Gams house party last weekend, while some representatives travelled farther south to Wrightsville.

Suzanne Lowry, Chi O from Tampa, Fla., is pinned to Phi Delt Harry Harrington, a student at the University of Florida.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Chi O Robbie Roberson of Durham and SAE Fred Bowman of Chapel Hill.

"Who's Who?" department: If you have heard that Libby Ann Royall is President of Women's Interdormitory Council and Chairman of Women's Honor Council, you may be only half right. It seems that the campus is blessed with two office-holding Libby Ann Royalls this summer.

Chairman of Women's Honor Council is Libby Ann Royall of Elkin, a rising senior at the University and a member of A breakfast on Sunday morning will complete their dormitory social program. Chairman for the socials is Myra Stowe.

ADPi. The other Libby Ann, President of Women's Interdormitory Council, is a '49 graduate of Carolina and an alum of Pi Phi. Libby has returned to alma mater for the summer to get her teacher's certificate in primary education.

Brothers of Chi Psi and dates chose Durham sites for their summer house party last weekend. On Friday evening a picnic supper was served at gate 12 of the Duke University picnic grounds. Perry's cabin was headquarters for swimming and a fried chicken dinner on Saturday. Visitors for the occasion included Fred Matthews, Bill Farrington, John Kennedy, and Fred Price.

Pinned are Chi O Betty Heath of Chapel Hill and Bigelow Thompson, a Beta at the University of Virginia.

A word of thanks comes from the Pi Phi's for the informal serenade (?) given them last Saturday night.

From the Delta shelter comes word of the pinning of Tink Gobbel of Suffolk, Va., and Beta Buddy Trexler of Concord.

Familiar footprints. Visitors this week at the Chi Omega house have included Betty Bowles, Dot Yokely, and Pellen Speck.

Jacque Quesenberg returned from the ADPi Centennial convention last week, and brought home the honors for the local chapter. Beta Upsilon chapter received one of three national awards offered for general progress over a two-year period.

Have You Met...?

In a chat with Mr. Claude Shotts, Secretary of the YMCA, a student remarked, "The guy who said 'life is just one damn thing after another' made a profound statement."

Mr. Shotts smiled and replied, "And that reminds me of another folk saying which is equally profound—'love is just two damn things after each other.'"

Always wearing a big smile, Mr. Shotts is always willing to share his wit and wisdom with students. Feel free to drop in.
